THE LAMENTATIONS
OF JEREMIAH

The Sorrows of Captive Zion

1 How doth the city [a] sit solitary, that was [b] full of people!
She is become as a [c] widow, that was [d] great among the nations!
She that was a princess among the provinces is become [e] tributary!
2 She [f] weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks;
Among all her [g] lovers she hath none to comfort her:
All her friends have [h] dealt treacherously with her; they are become her [i] enemies.
3 Judah is gone into [1] [k] captivity because of affliction, and because of great servitude;
She dwelleth [l] among the nations, she findeth no rest:
All [m] her persecutors overtook her within the straits.
4 The ways of Zion do mourn, because [n] none come to the [2] solemn assembly;
All her gates are [o] desolate, her priests do sigh:
Her [p] virgins are afflicted, and she herself is in [q] bitterness.
5 Her adversaries are become the [r] head, her enemies prosper;
For Jehovah hath [s] afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions:
Her young children are [t] gone into captivity before the adversary.
6 And from the daughter of Zion
all her [3] [u] majesty is departed:
Her princes are become like harts that find no pasture,
And they are [v] gone without strength before the pursuer.
7 Jerusalem [x] remembereth in the days of her affliction and of her [4] miseries all her [y] pleasant things that were from the days of old:
When her people fell into the hand of the adversary, and [z] none did help her,
The adversaries saw her, they did [a] mock at her [5] desolations.
8 Jerusalem hath [b] grievously sinned; therefore she [6] is become as an [c] unclean thing;
All that honored her despise her, because they have [d] seen her nakedness:
Yea, she [e] sigheth, and turneth backward.
9 Her [f] filthiness was in her skirts; she remembered not her latter [g] end;
Therefore is she [h] come down wonderfully; [i] she hath no comforter:
Behold, O Jehovah, my [k] afflic-tion; for the enemy hath [l] magnified himself.
10 The [m] adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things:
For she hath seen that the [n] nations are entered into her sanctuary,
Concerning whom thou didst command that they should [o] not enter into thine assembly.
11 All her people sigh, they [p] seek bread;
They have given their pleasant things for food to [q] refresh
the soul:
See, O Jehovah, and behold;
for I am become [r] abject.

12 Is [s] it nothing to you, all ye that pass by?
Behold, and [t] see if there be any sorrow [u] like unto my sorrow,
which is brought upon me, [7] Wherewith [v] Jehovah hath afflicted me in the day of his [x] fierce anger.
13 From on high hath he sent fire into my [y] bones, and it prevaileth against them;

The Sorrows of Captive Zion. Zion's Sorrows come from Jehovah

He hath spread a [a]net for my feet, he hath turned me back:
He hath made me [b]desolate and faint all the day.
14 The [c]yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand;
They are knit together, they are [d]come up upon my neck; he hath made my strength to [1]fail:
The Lord hath [e]delivered me into their hands, [2]against whom I am not able to stand.
15 The [f]Lord hath set at nought all my mighty men in the midst of me;
He hath called a solemn assembly against me to crush my [g]young men:
The Lord hath [h]trodden as in a winepress the virgin daughter of Judah.
16 For these things I [i]weep; mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water;
Because the [k]comforter that should refresh my soul is far from me:
My [l]children are desolate, because the enemy hath prevailed.
17 Zion [m]spreadeth forth her hands; there is none to comfort her;
Jehovah hath [n]commanded concerning Jacob, that they that are round about him should be his adversaries:
Jerusalem is among them as an [o]unclean thing.
18 Jehovah is [p]righteous; for I have [q]rebelled against his commandment:
Hear, I pray you, all ye peoples, and [r]behold my sorrow:
My [s]virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.
19 I [t]called for my lovers, but they deceived me:
My [u]priests and mine elders gave up the ghost in the city,
While they sought them food to [v]refresh their souls.

20 Behold, O Jehovah; for I am in [x]distress; my [y]heart is troubled;

My heart is turned within me; for I have grievously [z]rebelled:
Abroad [a]the sword bereaveth, at home there is as death.
21 They have heard that I [b]sigh; there is none to comfort me;
All mine enemies have heard of my trouble; they are [c]glad that thou hast done it:
Thou wilt bring the day that thou hast proclaimed, and they shall be [d]like unto me.
22 Let all their wickedness come before thee;
And [e]do unto them, as thou hast done unto me for all my transgressions:
For my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

2 How hath the Lord [f]covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger!
He hath [g]cast down from heaven unto the earth the [h]beauty of Israel,
And hath not remembered his [i]footstool in the day of his anger.
2 The Lord hath [k]swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied:
He hath [l]thrown down in his wrath the strongholds of the daughter of Judah;
He hath [m]brought them down to the ground; he hath [n]profaned the kingdom and the princes thereof.
3 He hath cut off in fierce anger [3]all the [o]horn of Israel;
He hath [p]drawn back his right hand from before the enemy:
And he hath [q]burned up Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.
4 He hath bent his [r]bow like an enemy, he hath stood with his right hand as an adversary,
And hath slain all that were [s]pleasant to the eye:
[4]In the tent of the daughter of Zion he hath [t]poured out his wrath like fire.
ɔ The Lord is become as an [u]enemy, he hath [v]swallowed up Israel;

Zion's Sorrows come from Jehovah

He hath swallowed up all her [a]palaces, he hath destroyed his strongholds;
And [b]he hath multiplied in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.
6 And he hath violently [c]taken away his [1]tabernacle, as if it were of a garden; he hath [d]destroyed his place of assembly:
Jehovah hath [e]caused [2]solemn assembly and sabbath to be forgotten in Zion,
And hath [f]despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest.
7 The Lord hath [g]cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary;
He [h]hath given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces:
They have made a [i]noise in the house of Jehovah, as in the day of a solemn assembly.
8 Jehovah hath purposed to [k]destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion;
He hath [l]stretched out the line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from [3]destroying:
And he hath [m]made the rampart and wall to lament; they languish together.
9 Her [n]gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars:
Her [o]king and her princes are among the nations where the [p]law is not;
Yea, her prophets find [q]no vision from Jehovah.
10 The elders of the daughter of Zion [r]sit upon the ground, they [s]keep silence;
They have cast up [t]dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with [u]sackcloth:
The [v]virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

11 Mine [w]eyes do fail with tears, my [x]heart is troubled;
My [y]liver is poured upon the earth, because of the [4][a]destruction of the daughter of my people,
Because the [b]young children and the sucklings swoon in the streets of the city.

12 They say to their mothers, [c]Where is grain and wine?
When they [d]swoon as the wounded in the streets of the city,
When their [e]soul is poured out into their mothers' bosom.
13 What shall I [5]testify unto thee? what shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem?
What [f]shall I compare to thee, that I may comfort thee, O [g]virgin daughter of Zion?
For thy [h]breach is great like the sea: who can [i]heal thee?
14 Thy [k]prophets have seen for thee false and foolish visions;
And they have not [l]uncovered thine iniquity, to bring back thy captivity,
But [m]have seen for thee false [6]oracles and [7]causes of banishment.
15 All that pass by [n]clap their hands at thee;
They [o]hiss and [p]wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying,
Is this the city that men called [q]The perfection of beauty, [r]The joy of the whole earth?
16 All [s]thine enemies have opened their mouth wide against thee;
They hiss and [t]gnash the teeth; they say, We have [u]swallowed her up;
Certainly this is the [v]day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it.
17 Jehovah hath [z]done that which he purposed; he hath [8]fulfilled his word that he commanded in the days of old;
He hath thrown down, and hath [y]not pitied:
And he hath caused the enemy to [z]rejoice over thee; he hath [a]exalted the horn of thine adversaries.
18 Their [b]heart cried unto the Lord:
O [c]wall of the daughter of Zion, [d]let tears run down like a river day and night;

Lamentation of the Afflicted. Hope of Relief through God's Mercy

Give thyself no respite; let not the apple of thine eye cease.
19 Arise, cry out in the [a]night, at the beginning of the watches;
Pour [b]out thy heart like water before the face of the Lord:
Lift up thy hands toward him for the [c]life of thy young children, that [d]faint for hunger at the head of every street.

20 See, O Jehovah, and behold to [e]whom thou hast done thus!
Shall the women [f]eat their fruit, the children that are dandled in the hands?
Shall the [g]priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord?
21 The [h]youth and the old man lie on the ground in the streets;
My [i]virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword:
Thou hast [k]slain them in the day of thine anger; thou hast slaughtered, and [l]not pitied.
22 Thou hast called, as in the day of a solemn assembly, my [m]terrors on every side;
And there was [n]none that escaped or remained in the day of Jehovah's anger:
Those [o]that I have dandled and brought up hath mine enemy consumed.

3 I am the man that hath [p]seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.
2 He hath led me and caused me to walk in [q]darkness, [1]and not in light.
3 Surely against me he [r]turneth his hand again and again all the day.
4 My [s]flesh and my skin hath he [2]made old; he hath broken my [t]bones.
5 He hath [u]builded against me, and compassed me with [v]gall and travail.
6 He hath made me to dwell in [z]dark places, as those that have been long dead.
7 He hath [y]walled me about, that I cannot go forth; he hath made my [z]chain heavy.
8 Yea, when I cry, and call for help, he [a]shutteth out my prayer.
9 He hath [b]walled up my ways with hewn stone; he hath made my paths [c]crooked.
10 He is unto me as a [d]bear lying in wait, as a [d]lion in secret places.
11 He hath turned aside my ways, and [e]pulled me in pieces; he hath made me desolate.
12 He hath [f]bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the [g]arrow.
13 He hath caused the [3]shafts of his [h]quiver to enter into my reins.
14 I am become a [i]derision to all my people, and their [k]song all the day.
15 He hath filled me with [l]bitterness, he hath sated me with wormwood.
16 He hath also [m]broken my teeth with [n]gravel stones; he hath covered me with [o]ashes.
17 And thou hast [4]removed my soul [p]far off from peace; I forgat prosperity.
18 And I said, My strength is perished, and mine [q]expectation from Jehovah.

19 Remember mine affliction and my [5]misery, the [r]wormwood and the gall.
20 My soul hath them still in [s]remembrance, and is [t]bowed down within me.
21 This I recall to my mind; therefore have I [u]hope.
22 It is of Jehovah's [v]lovingkindnesses that we are not consumed, [z]because his compassions fail not.
23 They are new [y]every morning; great is thy faithfulness.
24 Jehovah is my [z]portion, saith my soul; therefore will I [a]hope in him.
25 Jehovah is good unto them that [b]wait for him, to the soul that [c]seeketh him.
26 It is good that a man should [d]hope and quietly [e]wait for the salvation of Jehovah.
27 It is good for a man that he [f]bear the yoke in his youth.

Hope of Relief through God's Mercy

28 [1] Let him [a] sit alone and keep silence, because he hath laid it upon him.
29 Let him put his mouth in the [b] dust, if so be there may be [c] hope.
30 Let him give his [d] cheek to him that smiteth him; let him be filled full with reproach.
31 For the Lord will [e] not cast off for ever.
32 For though he cause grief, yet will he have [f] compassion according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses.
33 For he doth [g] not afflict [2] willingly, nor grieve the children of men.
34 To [h] crush under foot all the prisoners of the earth,
35 To turn aside the [i] right of a man before the face of the Most High, 36 To [k] subvert a man in his cause, the Lord [3] approveth not.
37 Who is he that saith, and it [l] cometh to pass, when the Lord commandeth it not?
38 Out of the mouth of the Most High [m] cometh there not evil and good?
39 Wherefore doth a living man [n] complain, [4] a man for the punishment of his sins?

40 Let us [o] search and try our ways, and turn again to Jehovah.
41 Let us [p] lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens.
42 We have [q] transgressed and have rebelled; thou hast [r] not pardoned.
43 Thou hast [5] covered with [s] anger and [t] pursued us; thou hast slain, thou hast [u] not pitied.
44 Thou hast [v] covered thyself with a cloud, so that [x] no prayer can pass through.
45 Thou hast made us an [y] offscouring and refuse in the midst of the peoples.
46 All our enemies have [z] opened their mouth wide against us.
47 [a] Fear and the pit are come upon us, [6] devastation and destruction.
48 Mine [b] eye runneth down with streams of water, for the destruction of the daughter of my people.
49 Mine eye poureth down, and [c] ceaseth not, without any intermission, 50 Till Jehovah [d] look down, and behold from heaven.
51 Mine [e] eye affecteth my soul, because of all the daughters of my city.
52 They have chased me sore [f] like a bird, they that are mine enemies [g] without cause.
53 They have cut off my life in the [h] dungeon, and have cast a stone upon me.
54 Waters flowed [i] over my head; I said, I am cut off.

55 I called upon thy name, O Jehovah, out of the [k] lowest dungeon.
56 Thou [l] heardest my voice; [m] hide not thine ear at my breathing, at my cry.
57 Thou [n] drewest near in the day that I called upon thee; thou saidst, [o] Fear not.
58 O Lord, thou hast [p] pleaded the causes of my soul; thou hast [q] redeemed my life.
59 O Jehovah, thou hast [r] seen my wrong; [s] judge thou my cause.
60 Thou hast [t] seen all their vengeance and all their [u] devices against me.
61 Thou [v] hast heard their [x] reproach, O Jehovah, and all their devices against me, 62 The [y] lips of those that rose up against me, and their device against me all the day.
63 Behold thou their [z] sitting down, and their rising up; [a] I am their song.
64 Thou wilt [b] render unto them a recompense, O Jehovah, according to the work of their hands.
65 Thou wilt give them [7] [c] hardness of heart, thy curse unto them.
66 Thou wilt [d] pursue them in anger, and destroy them from under the heavens [e] of Jehovah.

Distress of the Siege described

4 How is the gold become [a] dim!
how is the most pure gold changed!
The [b] stones of the sanctuary are poured out at the head of every street.
2 The precious [c] sons of Zion,
[1] comparable to fine gold,
How are they esteemed as [d] earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!
3 Even the [e] jackals draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones:
The daughter of my people is become [f] cruel, like the [g] ostriches in the wilderness.
4 The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for [h] thirst:
The young children [i] ask bread, and no man breaketh it unto them.
5 They that did feed [k] delicately are desolate in the streets:
They that were brought up in scarlet embrace [l] dunghills.
6 For [2] the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than [3] the sin of [m] Sodom, That was [n] overthrown as in a moment, and no hands [4] were laid upon her.
7 Her [5] nobles were [o] purer than snow, they were whiter than milk;
They were more ruddy in body than [6] rubies, their polishing was as of [p] sapphire.
8 Their visage is [7] [q] blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets:
Their [r] skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.
9 They that are slain with the [s] sword are better than they that are slain with hunger;
For these [8] [t] pine away, stricken through, for want of the fruits of the field.
10 The hands of the pitiful women have [u] boiled their own children;
They were their [v] food in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

11 Jehovah hath [z] accomplished his wrath, he hath poured out his fierce anger;
And he hath [y] kindled a fire in Zion, which hath devoured
the foundations thereof.
12 The kings of the earth [z] believed not, neither all the inhabitants of the world,
That the adversary and the enemy would [a] enter into the gates of Jerusalem.
13 It is because of the sins of her [b] prophets, and the iniquities of her priests,
That have shed the [c] blood of the just in the midst of her.
14 They wander [d] as blind men in the streets, they are polluted with [e] blood,[9]
So that men cannot touch their [f] garments.
15 Depart ye, they cried unto them,
[g] Unclean! depart, [h] depart, touch not!
[9] When they [i] fled away and wandered, men said among the nations, They shall no more sojourn here.
16 The [10] anger of Jehovah hath scattered them; he will no more regard them:
They [k] respected not the persons of the priests, they favored not the elders.

17 Our eyes do yet fail in looking for our [l] vain help:
In our watching we have watched for a [m] nation that could not save.
18 They [n] hunt our steps, so that we cannot go in our streets:
Our [o] end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end is come.
19 Our pursuers were [p] swifter than the eagles of the heavens:
They chased us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the [q] wilderness.
20 The [r] breath of our nostrils, the [s] anointed of Jehovah, was [t] taken in their pits;
Of whom we said, Under his [u] shadow we shall live among the nations.

21 Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of [v] Edom, that dwellest
in the land of Uz:

Miseries of the Captivity bewailed. Prayer for Mercy

The [a]cup shall pass through unto thee also; thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked.

22 [1]The punishment of thine iniquity is [b]accomplished, O daughter of Zion; he will no more carry thee away into captivity:
He [c]will visit thine iniquity, O daughter of Edom; he will uncover thy sins.

5 [d]Remember, O Jehovah, what is come upon us:
Behold, and see our [e]reproach.
2 Our inheritance is turned unto [f]strangers,
Our [g]houses unto aliens.
3 We are orphans and [h]fatherless;
Our mothers are as [h]widows.
4 We have drunken our [i]water for money;
Our wood [2]is sold unto us.
5 Our pursuers are upon our [k]necks:
We are weary, and have [l]no rest.
6 We have given the hand to the [m]Egyptians,
And to the [m]Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.
7 Our [n]fathers sinned, and are not;
And we have borne their iniquities.
8 [o]Servants rule over us:
There is [p]none to deliver us out of their hand.
9 We get our bread at the [q]peril of our lives,
Because of the sword of the wilderness.
10 Our skin is [3][r]black like an oven,
Because of the burning heat of famine.

11 They ravished the [s]women in Zion,
The virgins in the cities of Judah.
12 Princes were hanged up by their hand:
The [t]faces of elders were not honored.
13 The young men bare the mill;
And the children stumbled under the [u]wood.
14 The [v]elders have ceased from the gate,
The young men from their [x]music.
15 The joy of our heart is [y]ceased;
Our dance is turned into mourning.
16 The [z]crown is fallen from our head:
Woe [a]unto us! for we have sinned.
17 For this our [b]heart is faint;
For these things our [c]eyes are dim;
18 For the [d]mountain of Zion, which is desolate:
The [4][e]foxes walk upon it.

19 Thou, [f]O Jehovah, [5]abidest for ever;
Thy [g]throne is from generation to generation.
20 Wherefore dost thou [h]forget us for ever,
And forsake us so long time?
21 [i]Turn thou us unto thee, O Jehovah, and we shall be turned;
Renew [k]our days as of old.
22 [6]But [l]thou hast utterly rejected us;
Thou art very [m]wroth against us.
