THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE

COLOSSIANS

Salutation. Thanksgiving for their Attainments and Prayer for their Progress. The Preëminence of the Son

1 [a]Paul, [b]an apostle of Christ Jesus [c]through the will of God, and [d]Timothy [1]our brother, 2 [2]to the [e]saints and faithful brethren in Christ that are at Colossæ: [f]Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

3 [g]We give thanks to God [h]the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, 4 [i]having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the [k]love which ye have toward [l]all the saints, 5 because of the [m]hope which is [n]laid up for you in the heavens, whereof ye [o]heard before in the word of the truth of the [3]gospel, 6 which is come unto you; even as it is also [p]in all the world bearing [q]fruit and increasing, as it doth in you also, since the day ye [r]heard and knew the grace of God in truth; 7 even as ye learned of [s]Epaphras our [t]beloved fellow-servant, who is a faithful minister of Christ on [4]our behalf, 8 who also declared unto us your [u]love in the Spirit.

9 For this cause we also, [v]since the day we heard it, [x]do not cease to pray and make request for you, that ye may be filled with the [y]knowledge of his will in all spiritual [z]wisdom and understanding, 10 to [a]walk worthily of the Lord [5]unto all [b]pleasing, [q]bearing fruit in every good work, and increasing [6]in the knowledge of God; 11 [7][c]strengthened [8]with all power, according to the might of his glory, unto all [9]patience and [d]longsuffering with joy; 12 giving thanks unto [e]the Father, who made [10]us meet to be partakers of [f]the inheritance of the saints in [g]light; 13 who delivered us out of the power of [g]darkness, and translated us into the kingdom of [h]the Son of his love; 14 [i]in whom we have our redemption, the forgiveness of our sins: 15 who is the [k]image of the [l]invisible God, the [m]firstborn of all creation; 16 for [n]in him were all things created, [n]in the heavens and upon the earth, things visible and things invisible, whether [o]thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; [p]all things have been created through him, and unto him; 17 and he is [q]before all things, and in him all things [11]consist. 18 And he is the [r]head of [s]the body, the church: who is [t]the beginning, [u]the firstborn from the dead; [12]that in all things he might have the preëminence. 19 [13]For it was [v]the good pleasure of the Father that in him should all [x]the fulness dwell; 20 and through him to [y]reconcile all things [14]unto [15]himself, having made [z]peace through [a]the blood of his cross; through him, I say, [b]whether things upon the earth, or things in the heavens. 21 And you, [c]being in time past alienated and enemies in your mind in your evil works, 22 yet now [16]hath he [y]reconciled in the [d]body of his flesh through death, to [e]present you [f]holy and without blemish and unreprovable before him: 23 if so be that ye continue in the faith, [g]grounded and stedfast, and not moved away from the [h]hope of the [3]gospel which ye heard, which was preached [a] in all creation under heaven; [b] whereof I Paul was made a [c] minister.

24 [d] Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and [e] fill up on my part that which is lacking of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for [f] his body's sake, which is the church; 25 [g] whereof I was made a minister, according to the [1] [h] dispensation of God which was given me to you-ward, to fulfil the word of God, 26 even [i] the mystery which hath been hid [2] for ages and generations: but now hath it been manifested to his saints, 27 to whom [k] God was pleased to make known what is [l] the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is [m] Christ in you, the [n] hope of glory: 28 whom we proclaim, [o] admonishing every man and teaching every man in all [p] wisdom, that we may [q] present every man [r] perfect in Christ; 29 whereunto I [s] labor also, [t] striving [u] according to his working, which worketh in me [3] mightily.

2 For I would have you know how greatly I [t] strive for you, and for them at [v] Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh; 2 that their [x] hearts may be comforted, they being [y] knit together in love, and unto all [t] riches of the [4] [z] full assurance of understanding, that they [k] may know [i] the mystery of God, [5] even Christ, 3 in whom are all [a] the treasures of wisdom and knowledge hidden. 4 [b] This I say, that no one may delude you with [c] persuasiveness of speech. 5 For though I am [d] absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your [e] order, and the [f] stedfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 As therefore ye received [g] Christ Jesus the Lord, so [h] walk in him, 7 [i] rooted and [k] builded up in him, and [l] established [6] in your faith, even as ye [m] were taught, abounding [7] in thanksgiving.

8 [8] [n] Take heed lest there shall be any one that maketh spoil of you through his [o] philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the [9] [p] rudiments of the world, and not after Christ: 9 for in him dwelleth all the [q] fulness of the Godhead bodily, 10 and in him ye are [r] made full, [s] who is the head of [t] all principality and power: 11 in whom [u] ye were also circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of [v] the body of the flesh, in the circumcision of Christ; 12 having been [x] buried with him in baptism, wherein ye were also [y] raised with him through faith in the working of God, who [z] raised him from the dead. 13 And you, being [a] dead through your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, you, I say, did he [b] make alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses; 14 having blotted out [10] [c] the bond written in ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us: and [d] he hath taken it out of the way, nailing it to the cross; 15 [11] having [e] despoiled the [f] principalities and the powers, he [f] made a show of them openly, [g] triumphing over them in it.

16 Let no man therefore [h] judge you in [i] meat, or in [i] drink, or in respect of a [k] feast day or a [l] new moon or a [m] sabbath day: 17 which are [n] a shadow of the things to come; but the body is Christ's. 18 Let no man [o] rob you of your prize [12] by a [p] voluntary humility and [13] worshipping of the angels, [14] dwelling in the things which he hath [15] seen, vainly [q] puffed up by his [r] fleshly mind, 19 and not holding fast [s] the Head, from whom [t] all the body, being supplied and knit together through the joints and bands, increaseth with the increase of God.

20 [a] If ye died with Christ from the [1] rudiments of the world, [c] why, as though living in the world, do ye subject yourselves to [d] ordinances, 21 Handle not, nor taste, nor touch 22 (all which things are [e] to perish with the using), after the [f] precepts and doctrines of men? 23 Which things have indeed a show of wisdom in [g] will-worship, and humility, and [h] severity to the body; but are not of any [2] value against [i] the indulgence of the flesh.

3 If then ye were [k] raised together with Chris, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, [l] seated on the right hand of God. 2 [m] Set your mind on the things that are above, not on the things that are upon the earth. 3 For ye [n] died, and your life is hid with Christ in God. 4 When Christ, [o] who is [3] our life, shall be manifested, [p] then shall ye also with him be manifested in glory.

5 [q] Put to death therefore your [r] members which are upon the earth: [s] fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry; 6 for which things' sake cometh [t] the wrath of God [4] upon the sons of disobedience: 7 [5] [u] wherein ye also once walked, when ye lived in these things; 8 but now do ye also [v] put them all away: [x] anger, wrath, malice, railing, [y] shameful speaking out of your mouth: 9 [z] lie not one to another; seeing that ye have [a] put off the old man with his doings, 10 and have [b] put on the new man, that is being [c] renewed unto knowledge [d] after the image of him that [e] created him: 11 where [f] there cannot be Greek and Jew, [g] circumcision and uncircumcision, [h] barbarian, [i] Scythian, [k] bondman, freeman; but [i] Christ is all, and in all.

12 [b] Put on therefore, as [m] God's elect, holy and beloved, [n] a heart of compassion, kindness, [o] lowliness, meekness, [p] longsuffering; 13 [q] forbearing one another, and [r] forgiving each other, if any man have a complaint against any; [r] even as [6] the Lord forgave you, so also do ye: 14 and above all these things put on love, which is [s] the bond of [s] perfectness. 15 And let [u] the peace of Christ [7] rule in your hearts, to the which also ye were called in [v] one body; and be ye thankful. 16 Let [x] the word of [8] Christ dwell in you [9] richly; in all wisdom [y] teaching and admonishing [10] one another [z] with psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, [a] singing with grace in your hearts unto God. 17 And [b] whatsoever ye do, in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, [c] giving thanks to God the Father through him.

18 [d] Wives, [e] be in subjection to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. 19 [f] Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them. 20 [g] Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is well-pleasing in the Lord. 21 [h] Fathers, provoke not your children, that they be not discouraged. 22 [11] [i] Servants, obey in all things them that are your [12] masters according to the flesh; [k] not with eye-service, as men-pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing the Lord: 23 whatsoever ye do, work [13] heartily, [l] as unto the Lord, and not unto men; 24 [m] knowing that from the Lord ye shall receive the recompense of [n] the inheritance: ye [o] serve the Lord Christ. 25 For [p] he that doeth wrong shall [14] receive again for the wrong that he hath done: and [q] there is no respect of per-

4 sons. 1 [12] Masters, render unto your [11] servants that which is just and [15] equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

2 [a] Continue stedfastly in prayer, watching therein with thanksgiving; 3 withal praying [b] for us also, that God may open unto us a [c] door for [d] the word, to speak [e] the mystery of Christ, for which I am also [f] in bonds; 4 that I may make it manifest, [f] as I ought to speak. 5 [g] Walk in wisdom toward [h] them that are without, [1] [i] redeeming the time. 6 [k] Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with [l] salt, that ye may know how ye ought [m] to answer each one.

7 [n] All my affairs shall [o] Tychicus make known unto you, [p] the beloved brother and faithful minister and fellow-servant in the Lord: 8 [q] whom I have sent unto you for this very purpose, that ye may know our state, and that he may [r] comfort your hearts; 9 together with [s] Onesimus, the faithful and [t] beloved brother, [u] who is one of you. They shall make known unto you all things that are done here.

10 [v] Aristarchus my [x] fellow-prisoner saluteth you, and [y] Mark, the [z] cousin of [a] Barnabas (touching whom ye received commandments; [b] if he come unto you, receive him), 11 and Jesus that is called Justus, [c] who are of the circumcision: these only are my [d] fellow-workers unto the kingdom of God, men that have been a comfort unto me. 12 [e] Epaphras, [u] who is one of you, a [2] servant of Christ Jesus, saluteth you, always [f] striving for you in his prayers, that ye may stand [g] perfect and [h] fully assured in all the will of God. 13 For I bear him witness, that he hath much labor for you, and for them in [i] Laodicea, and for them in Hierapolis. 14 [k] Luke, the beloved physician, and [l] Demas salute you. 15 Salute the brethren that are in [i] Laodicea, and [3] Nymphas, and [m] the church that is in [4] their house. 16 And [n] when [5] this epistle hath been read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and that ye also [n] read the epistle from [i] Laodicea. 17 And say to [o] Archippus, Take heed to the [p] ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it.
