THE SECOND EPISTLE OF

JOHN

Salutation. "Walk after His Commandments." "Abide in the Teaching of Christ." Farewell

1 [a]The elder unto the [b]elect [1][c]lady and her children, whom I [d]love in truth; and not I only, but also all they that [e]know the truth; 2 for [f]the truth's sake which abideth [g]in us, and it shall be [h]with us for ever: 3 [i]Grace, mercy, peace shall be with us, from God the Father, and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 [k]I rejoice greatly that I have found certain of thy children walking in truth, even as we received commandment from the Father. 5 And now I beseech thee, [1]lady, [l]not as though I wrote to thee a new commandment, but that which we had [l]from the beginning, that we [m]love one another. 6 And [n]this is love, that we should walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, [o]even as ye heard [l]from the beginning, that ye should walk in it. 7 For [p]many deceivers are [q]gone forth into the world, even they that [r]confess not that Jesus Christ cometh in the flesh. This is [p]the deceiver and the [s]antichrist. 8 [t]Look to yourselves, [u]that ye [2]lose not the things which [3]we have wrought, but that ye receive a full reward. 9 Whosoever [4]goeth onward and [v]abideth not in the teaching of Christ, hath not God: he that abideth in the teaching, the same hath both the Father and the Son. 10 If any one cometh unto you, and bringeth not this teaching, [x]receive him not into your house, and give him no greeting: 11 for he that giveth him greeting [y]partaketh in his evil works.

12 [z]Having many things to write unto you, I would not write them with paper and ink: but I hope to come unto you, and to speak face to face, that your [a]joy may be made full. 13 The children of thine [b]elect sister salute thee.
