THE BOOK OF

HABAKKUK

The Chaldeans raised up to punish Judah's Sins. Habakkuk's Remonstrance. Jehovah's Reply

1 The [1] [a] burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see.

2 O Jehovah, [b] how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear? I cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt [c] not save. 3 Why dost thou show me [d] iniquity, and [2] look upon perverseness? for [e] destruction and violence are before me; and there is [f] strife, and contention riseth up. 4 Therefore the [g] law is slacked, and justice [3] doth never go forth; for the wicked doth [h] compass about the righteous; therefore justice goeth forth [i] perverted.

5 [k] Behold ye [l] among the nations, and look, and [m] wonder marvellously; for [4] I am working a [n] work in your days, which ye will not believe though it be told you. 6 For, lo, I [o] raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, that march through the breadth of the earth, to [p] possess dwelling-places that are not theirs. 7 [5] They are [q] terrible and dreadful; their [r] judgment and their dignity proceed from themselves. 8 Their [s] horses also are swifter than leopards, and are more fierce than the [t] evening wolves; and their horsemen [6] press proudly on: yea, their horsemen come from far; they fly as an [u] eagle that hasteth to devour. 9 They come all of them for violence; [7] the [v] set of their faces is [8] forwards; and they [x] gather captives as the sand. 10 [9] Yea, he [y] scoffeth at kings, and princes are a derision unto him; he [z] derideth every stronghold; for he [a] heapeth up dust, and taketh it. 11 [10] Then shall he sweep by as a [b] wind, and shall [11] pass over, and be [c] guilty, even he whose [d] might is his god.

12 Art not thou from [e] everlasting,

O Jehovah my God, my Holy One? we shall not die. O Jehovah, thou hast [f] ordained him for judgment; and thou, O [g] Rock, hast established him for correction. 13 Thou that art of [h] purer eyes than to behold evil, and that canst not look on perverseness, wherefore [i] lookest thou upon them that deal [k] treacherously, and [l] holdest thy peace when the wicked [m] swalloweth up the man that is more righteous than he; 14 and makest men [n] as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that have no ruler over them? 15 He [o] taketh up all of them with the angle, he [p] catcheth them in his net, and gathereth them in his drag: therefore he rejoiceth and is glad. 16 Therefore he [q] sacrificeth unto his net, and burneth incense unto his drag; because by [r] them his portion is fat, and his food [12] plenteous. 17 Shall he therefore empty his [s] net, and spare not to [t] slay the nations continually?

2 I will [u] stand upon my watch, and set me upon the [13] tower, and will [v] look forth to see [x] what he will speak [14] with me, and what I shall answer concerning my complaint. 2 And Jehovah answered me, and said, [y] Write the vision, and make it plain upon tablets, that he may run that readeth it. 3 For the vision is yet for the [z] appointed time, and it [15] hasteth toward the end, and shall [a] not lie: though it tarry, [b] wait for it; because it will [c] surely come, it will not delay.

4 Behold, his soul is [d] puffed up, it is not [16] upright in him; but the [e] righteous shall live [17] by his faith. 5 [18] Yea, moreover, [f] wine is treacherous, a [g] haughty man, [19] that

Woes pronounced on the Chaldeans. God's Deliverance of his Ancient People

[a] keepeth not at home; who [b] enlargeth his desire [c] as Sheol, and he is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but [d] gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all peoples. 6 Shall not all these [e] take up a parable against him, and a taunting [1] proverb against him, and say, [f] Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and that ladeth himself with [g] pledges! 7 Shall they not [h] rise up suddenly that shall [2] bite thee, and awake that shall [3] vex thee, and thou shalt be for booty unto them? 8 Because thou hast [i] plundered many nations, all the remnant of the peoples shall plunder thee, [4] because of men's blood, and for the [j] violence done to the land, to the city and to all that dwell therein.

9 Woe to him that getteth an [m] evil gain for his house, that he may [n] set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the hand of evil! 10 Thou hast devised [o] shame to thy house, by cutting off many peoples, and hast [p] sinned against thy soul. 11 For the [q] stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.

12 Woe to him that [r] buildeth a town with blood, and establisheth a city by iniquity! 13 Behold, is it not of Jehovah of hosts that the peoples [s] labor for the fire, and the nations weary themselves for [t] vanity? 14 For the earth shall be [u] filled with the knowledge of the glory of Jehovah, as the waters cover the sea.

15 Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor [v] drink, to thee that [4] addest thy [5] venom, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness! 16 Thou art filled with [w] shame, and not glory: [x] drink thou also, and [6] be as one uncircumcised; the [y] cup of Jehovah's right hand shall come round unto thee, and [z] foul shame shall be upon thy glory. 17 For the [a] violence done to Lebanon shall cover thee, and the destruction of the beasts, which made them afraid; [b] because of men's blood, and for the [c] violence done to the land, to the city and to all that dwell therein.

18 What [d] profiteth the graven image, that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, even the [e] teacher of lies, that he that fashioneth its form [f] trusteth therein, to make dumb idols? 19 Woe unto him that [g] saith to the wood, [h] Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise! Shall this teach? Behold, it is overlaid with [i] gold and silver, and there is [k] no breath at all in the midst of it. 20 But [l] Jehovah is in his holy temple: [7] let all the earth [m] keep silence before him.

3 A [n] prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, set to [o] Shigionoth.

2 O Jehovah, I have [p] heard [8] the report of thee, and [9] am [q] afraid:
O Jehovah, [r] revive [s] thy work in the midst of the years;
In the midst of the years make it known;
In wrath remember [t] mercy.

3 God [10] came from [u] Teman,
And the Holy One from mount [v] Paran. [Selah
His [x] glory covered the heavens,
And the [y] earth was full of his praise.

4 And his [z] brightness was as the light;
He had [11] rays coming forth [12] from his hand;
And there was the hiding of his [a] power.

5 Before him went the [b] pestilence,
And [13] [c] fiery bolts went forth at his feet.

6 He stood, and [14] measured the earth;
He beheld, and [d] drove asunder the nations;
And the eternal [e] mountains were scattered;
The everlasting hills did bow;
[15] His goings were as [f] of old.

7 I saw the tents of Cushan in [g] affliction;
The curtains of the land of [h] Midian did tremble.

8 Was Jehovah displeased with the [i] rivers?

Was thine anger against the rivers,
Or thy wrath against the [a] sea,
That thou didst [b] ride upon thy [c] horses,
Upon thy [d] chariots of salvation?
9 Thy [e] bow was made quite bare;
[1] The [f] oaths to the tribes were a sure word. [Selah
Thou didst [g] cleave the earth with rivers.
10 The [h] mountains saw thee, and [2] were afraid;
The tempest of [i] waters passed by;
The deep [k] uttered its voice,
And lifted up its hands on high.
11 The [l] sun and moon stood still in their habitation,
At the [m] light of thine arrows as they went,
At the shining of thy glittering spear.
12 Thou didst [n] march through the land in indignation;
Thou didst [o] thresh the nations in anger.
13 Thou [3] wentest forth for the [p] salvation of thy people,
[4] For the salvation of thine [q] anointed;
[5] Thou [6] woundedst the [r] head out of the house of the wicked man,
Laying bare the [s] foundation even unto the neck. [Selah
14 Thou [7] didst pierce with his [t] own staves the head of his [8] warriors:

They came as a [u] whirlwind to scatter me;
Their rejoicing was as to [v] devour the poor secretly.
15 Thou [9] didst [w] tread the sea with thy horses,
The [10] [x] heap of mighty waters.

16 I heard, and my body [y] trembled,
My lips quivered at the voice;
Rottenness entereth into my [a] bones, and I tremble in my place;
Because I must [b] wait quietly for the day of trouble,
[11] For the [c] coming up of the people that invadeth us.
17 For though the [d] fig-tree shall not flourish,
Neither shall fruit be in the [e] vines;
The labor of the [f] olive shall fail,
And the fields shall yield no food;
The [g] flock shall be cut off from the fold,
And there shall be [h] no herd in the stalls:
18 Yet I will [i] rejoice in Jehovah,
I will [k] joy in the [l] God of my salvation.
19 Jehovah, the Lord, is my [m] strength;
And he maketh my feet like hinds' feet,
And will make me to walk upon my [n] high places.
