THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE

GALATIANS

Salutation. The Galatians' Apostasy surprising. The Gospel I preach came from God; was not learned at Jerusalem;

1 Paul, [a] an apostle ([b] not from men, neither through [1] man, but [c] through Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who [d] raised him from the dead), 2 and all [e] the brethren that are with me, unto [f] the churches of Galatia: 3 [g] Grace to you and peace [2] from God the Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, 4 who [h] gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of [i] this present evil [3] world, according to the will of [4k] our God and Father: 5 [l] to whom be the glory [5] for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are [m] so quickly removing from [n] him that called you in the grace of Christ unto a [o] different [6] gospel; 7 [7] which is not another gospel: only there are some that [p] trouble you, and would pervert the [6] gospel of Christ. 8 But though we, or [q] an angel from heaven, should [8] preach [9] unto you any gospel [10] other than that which we [8] preached unto you, let him be [r] anathema. 9 As we [s] have said before, so say I now again, [t] If any man [8] preacheth unto you any gospel [10] other than that which ye received, let him be [r] anathema. 10 For am I now [u] seeking the favor of men, or of God? or am I striving to please men? if I were still pleasing men, I should not be a [11v] servant of Christ.

11 For [x] I make known to you, brethren, as touching the [6] gospel which was [8] preached by me, that it is [y] not after man. 12 For [z] neither did I receive it from [1] man, nor was I taught it, but it came to me through [a] revelation of Jesus Christ. 13 For ye have heard of [b] my manner of life in time past in [c] the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I [d] persecuted [e] the church of God, and [f] made havoc of it: 14 and I [g] advanced in the Jews' religion beyond many of mine own age [12] among my countrymen, being more exceedingly zealous for the [h] traditions of my fathers. 15 But when it was [i] the good pleasure of God, who separated me, even from my mother's womb, and [k] called me through his grace, 16 to reveal his Son in me, that I might [8l] preach him among the Gentiles; [m] straightway I conferred not with [n] flesh and blood: 17 [o] neither went I up to Jerusalem to them that were apostles before me: but I went away into Arabia; and again I returned unto [p] Damascus.

18 Then [q] after three years I went up [r] to Jerusalem to [13] visit [s] Cephas, and tarried with him fifteen days. 19 But other of the apostles saw I none, [14] save [15t] James the Lord's brother. 20 Now touching the things which I write unto you, behold, [u] before God, I lie not. 21 Then [v] I came into the regions of [x] Syria and [y] Cilicia. 22 And I was still unknown by face unto [z] the churches of Judæa which were [a] in Christ: 23 but they only heard say, He that once persecuted us now [8] preacheth [b] the faith of which he once [f] made havoc; 24 and they [c] glorified God in me.

yet was endorsed by "the Three," and maintained against Peter. The Folly of relapsing to the Law;

2 Then after the space of fourteen years I [a] went up again to Jerusalem with [b] Barnabas, taking [c] Titus also with me. 2 And I went up [d] by revelation; and I laid before them the [1e] gospel which I preach among the Gentiles but privately before them who [2] were of repute, lest by any means I should be [f] running, or had run, in vain. 3 But not even [c] Titus who was with me, being a Greek, was [g] compelled to be circumcised: 4 [3] and that because of the [h] false brethren privily brought in, who [i] came in privily to spy out our [k] liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might [l] bring us into bondage: 5 to whom we gave place in the way of subjection, no, not for an hour; that [m] the truth of the [1] gospel might continue with you. 6 But from those who [2] were [n] reputed to be somewhat ([4] whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: [o] God accepteth not man's person)—they, I say, who were of repute imparted nothing to me: 7 but contrariwise, when they saw that I had been [p] intrusted with the [1q] gospel of the uncircumcision, even as [r] Peter with the [1] gospel of the circumcision 8 (for he that wrought for Peter unto the [s] apostleship of the circumcision wrought for me also unto the Gentiles); 9 and when they perceived [t] the grace that was given unto me, [5u] James and [r v] Cephas and John, they who [2] were [n] reputed to be [x] pillars, gave to me and [b] Barnabas the [y] right hands of fellowship, that we should [z] go unto the Gentiles, and they unto the circumcision; 10 only they would that we should remember the poor; [a] which very thing I was also zealous to do.

11 But when [r] Cephas came to [b] Antioch, I resisted him to the face, because he stood condemned. 12 For before that certain came from [u] James, he [c] ate with the Gentiles; but when they came, he drew back and separated himself, [d] fearing them that were of the circumcision. 13 And the rest of the Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that even [e] Barnabas was carried away with their dissimulation. 14 But when I saw that they [f] walked not uprightly according to [m] the truth of the [1] gospel, I said unto [r] Cephas before them all, If thou, being a Jew, [g] livest as do the Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, how compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews? 15 We being [h] Jews by nature, and not [i] sinners of the Gentiles, 16 yet knowing that [k] a man is not [6] justified by the works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, even we believed on Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by [l] faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law: because [m] by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. 17 But if, while we sought to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found [n] sinners, is Christ a minister of sin? [o] God forbid. 18 For if I build up again those things which I destroyed, I [p] prove myself a transgressor. 19 For I through the law [q] died unto the law, that I might live unto God. 20 I have been [r] crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I that live, but [s] Christ liveth in me: and that life which I now live in the flesh I live in faith, the faith which is in [t] the Son of God, who [u] loved me, and [v] gave himself up for me. 21 I do not make void the grace of God: for [x] if righteousness is through the law, then Christ died for nought.

3 O foolish [y] Galatians, who did bewitch you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ [z] was openly set forth crucified? 2 This only would I learn from you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the [7a] hearing of faith? 3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, [8] are ye now perfected in the flesh? 4 Did ye suffer so many things in vain? [b] if it be indeed in vain. 5 He therefore that [c] supplieth to you the Spirit, and [a] worketh [1] miracles [2] among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the [3] [b] hearing of faith? 6 Even as [c] Abraham [4] believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. 7 [5] Know therefore that [d] they that are of faith, the same are [e] sons of Abraham. 8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God [6] would justify the [7] Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand unto Abraham, saying, [8] In thee shall all the nations be blessed. 9 So then [f] they that are of faith are blessed with the faithful Abraham. 10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under a curse: for it is written, [9] Cursed is every one who continueth not in all things that are written in the book of the law, to do them. 11 Now that [g] no man is justified [10] by the law before God, is evident: for, [11] [h] The righteous shall live by faith; 12 and the law is not of faith; but, [12] [i] He that doeth them shall live in them. 13 Christ [k] redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us; for it is written, [13] Cursed is every one that hangeth on [l] a tree: 14 that [m] upon the Gentiles might come the blessing of Abraham in Christ Jesus; that we [n] might receive [o] the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 [p] Brethren, [q] I speak after the manner of men: [r] Though it be but a man's covenant, yet when it hath been confirmed, no one maketh it void, or addeth thereto. 16 Now [s] to Abraham were the promises spoken, and to his seed. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, [14] [t] And to thy seed, which is Christ. 17 Now this I say: A covenant confirmed beforehand by God, the law, which came [u] four hundred and thirty years after, doth not disannul, so as to make the promise of none effect. 18 For [v] if the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise: but [x] God hath granted it to Abraham by promise. 19 [y] What then is the law? It was added because of transgressions, till [z] the seed should come to whom the promise hath been made; and it was [a] ordained through angels [b] by the hand of a mediator. 20 Now [c] a mediator is not a mediator of one; but God is one. 21 Is the law then against the promises of God? [d] God forbid: for [e] if there had been a law given which could make alive, verily righteousness would have been of the law. 22 But the scripture [f] shut up all [g] things under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept in ward under the law, [f] shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. 24 So that the law is become our [h] tutor to bring us unto Christ, that [i] we might be justified by faith. 25 But now that faith is come, we are no longer under a [i] tutor. 26 For ye are all [k] sons of God, through faith, in [l] Christ Jesus. 27 For as many of you as were [m] baptized into Christ did [n] put on Christ. 28 [o] There can be neither Jew nor Greek, there can be neither bond nor free, there can be no male and female; for [p] ye all are one man in [l] Christ Jesus. 29 And if [q] ye are Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, heirs according to [r] promise.

4 But I say that so long as the heir is a child, he differeth nothing from a bondservant though he is lord of all; 2 but is under guardians and stewards until the day appointed of the father. 3 So we also, when we were children, were held [s] in bondage under the [15] [t] rudiments of the world: 4 but when [u] the fulness of the time came, God sent forth his Son, [v] born of a woman, born [x] under the law, 5 that he might redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of [k] sons. 6 And because ye are sons, [y] God sent forth the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, [z] Abba, Father. 7 So that thou art no longer a bondservant, but a son; and [a] if a son, then an heir through God.

8 Howbeit at that time, [b] not knowing God, ye were [c] in bondage to [d] them that by nature are no gods: 9 but now that ye have come to know God, or rather to be [e] known by God, [f] how turn ye back again to the weak and beggarly [1g] rudiments, whereunto ye desire to be [c] in bondage over again? 10 Ye [h] observe days, and months, and seasons, and years. 11 I am afraid of you, lest by any means I have bestowed labor upon you in vain.

12 I beseech you, [i] brethren, [k] become as I am, for I also am become as ye are. Ye did me no wrong: 13 but ye know that because of an infirmity of the flesh I [2] preached the gospel unto you the [3] first time: 14 and that which was a temptation to you in my flesh ye despised not, nor [4] rejected; but [l] ye received me as an angel of God, even as [m] Christ Jesus. 15 Where then is that gratulation [5] of yourselves? for I bear you witness, that, if possible, ye would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me. 16 So then am I become your enemy, [6n] by telling you the truth? 17 They zealously seek you in no good way; nay, they desire to shut you out, that ye may seek them. 18 But it is good to be zealously sought in a good matter at all times, and [o] not only when I am present with you. 19 [p] My little children, of whom [q] I am again in travail until [r] Christ be formed in you — 20 but I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my tone; for [s] I am perplexed about you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not [t] hear the law? 22 For it is written, [7] that Abraham had two sons, one by the handmaid, and one by the freewoman. 23 [8] Howbeit [u] the son by the handmaid is born after the flesh; but [v] the son by the freewoman is born through promise. 24 Which things [x] contain an allegory: for these women are two covenants; one from [y] mount Sinai, bearing children unto [c] bondage, which is Hagar. 25 [9] Now this Hagar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to the Jerusalem that now is: for she is in bondage with her children. 26 But [z] the Jerusalem that is above is free, which is our mother. 27 For it is written,

> [10] Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not;
> Break forth and cry, thou that travailest not:
> For more are the children of the desolate than of her that hath the husband.

28 Now [11] we, brethren, [a] as Isaac was, are [b] children of promise. 29 But as then [c] he that was born after the flesh [d] persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, [e] so also it is now. 30 Howbeit what saith the scripture? [12] Cast out the handmaid and her son: for [f] the son of the handmaid shall not inherit with the son of the freewoman. 31 Wherefore, brethren, we are not children of a handmaid, but of the freewoman.

5 [g] For freedom did Christ set us free: [h] stand fast therefore, and be not entangled again in a [i] yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, [k] I Paul say unto you, that, if ye receive [l] circumcision, Christ will profit you nothing. 3 Yea, I [m] testify again to every man that receiveth [i] circumcision, that he is a debtor to [n] do the whole law. 4 Ye are [13] severed from Christ, ye who would be justified by the law; ye are [o] fallen away from grace. 5 For we through the Spirit by faith [p] wait for the hope of righteousness. 6 For in [q] Christ Jesus [r] neither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision; but [s] faith [14] working through love. 7 Ye were [t] running well; who hindered you that ye should not obey the truth? 8 This persuasion came not of [u] him that calleth you. 9 [v] A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump. 10 [x] I have confidence to you-ward in the Lord,

The Spirit and the Flesh contrary the One to the Other. Exhortation to Forbearance and Helpfulness that ye [a] will be none otherwise minded: but he that [b] troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be. 11 But I, brethren, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still [c] persecuted? then hath [d] the stumbling-block of the cross been done away. 12 I would that [e] they that unsettle you would even [1f] go beyond circumcision.

13 For ye, brethren, were called for [g] freedom; [h] only use not your freedom for an occasion to the flesh, but through love [i] be servants one to another. 14 For [k] the whole law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: [2l] Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. 15 But if ye [m] bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 But I say, [n] Walk by the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil [o] the lust of the flesh. 17 For [p] the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are contrary the one to the other; [q] that ye may not do the things that ye would. 18 But if ye are [r] led by the Spirit, [s] ye are not under the law. 19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are [t] these: [u] fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, 20 idolatry, [v] sorcery, enmities, [z] strife, jealousies, wraths, [y] factions, divisions, [3z] parties, 21 envyings, [a] drunkenness, revellings, and such like; of which I [4] forewarn you, even as I did [4] forewarn you, that they who practise such things shall not [b] inherit the kingdom of God. 22 But [c] the fruit of the Spirit is [d] love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, [e] faithfulness, 23 meekness, [f] self-control; against such [g] there is no law. 24 And they that are of [h] Christ Jesus have [i] crucified the flesh with the passions and [k] the lusts thereof.

25 If we live by the Spirit, [l] by the Spirit let us also walk. 26 Let us not become [m] vainglorious, [5] provoking one another, envying one another.

6 [n] Brethren, even if a man be overtaken [6] in any trespass, ye who are [o] spiritual, [p] restore such a one [q] in a spirit of gentleness; looking to thyself, lest thou also be tempted. 2 [r] Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil [s] the law of Christ. 3 For [t] if a man thinketh himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. 4 But let each man [u] prove his own work, and then shall he have his [v] glorying in regard of himself alone, and not of [7] his neighbor. 5 For [z] each man shall bear his own [8] burden.

6 But [y] let him that is taught in [z] the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things. 7 [a] Be not deceived; [b] God is not mocked: for [c] whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. 8 [d] For he that soweth unto his own flesh shall of the flesh reap [e] corruption; but [f] he that soweth unto the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap eternal life. 9 And [g] let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we [h] faint not. 10 So then, [9i] as we have opportunity, let us work that which is good toward all men, and especially toward them that are of the [k] household of [l] the faith.

11 See with how large letters I [10] write unto you [m] with mine own hand. 12 As many as desire [n] to make a fair show in the flesh, they [o] compel you to be circumcised; only that they [p] may not be persecuted [11] for the cross of Christ. 13 For not even they who [12] receive circumcision do themselves [q] keep the law; but they desire to have you circumcised, that they may [r] glory in your flesh. 14 But [s] far be it from me to glory, [t] save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, [u] through [13] which the world hath been crucified unto me, and [v] I unto
