THE THIRD EPISTLE OF

JOHN

Address to Gaius. Prayer for his Prosperity. "He that doeth good is of God." "Peace be unto Thee"

1 [a] The elder unto Gaius the beloved, whom I [b] love in truth.

2 Beloved, I pray that in all things thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth. 3 For I [1] [c] rejoiced greatly, when [d] brethren came and bare witness unto thy truth, even as thou [e] walkest in truth. 4 Greater joy have I none than [2] this, to hear of [e] my children [e] walking in the truth.

5 Beloved, thou doest a faithful work in whatsoever thou doest toward them that are [d] brethren and [f] strangers withal; 6 who bare witness to thy love before the church: whom thou wilt do well to [g] set forward on their journey [h] worthily of God: 7 because that for the sake of [i] the Name they went forth, [k] taking nothing of the Gentiles. 8 We therefore ought to welcome such, that we may be fellow-workers [3] for the truth.

9 I wrote somewhat unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the [l] preëminence among them, receiveth us not. 10 Therefore, [m] if I come, I will bring to remembrance his works which he doeth, prating against us with wicked words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself [n] receive the [d] brethren, and them that would he forbiddeth and [o] casteth them out of the church. 11 Beloved, [p] imitate not that which is evil, but that which is good. [q] He that doeth good is of God: [r] he that doeth evil hath not seen God. 12 Demetrius [s] hath the witness of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, we also bear witness; and [t] thou knowest that our witness is true.

13 [u] I had many things to write unto thee, but I am unwilling to write them to thee with ink and pen: 14 but I hope shortly to see thee, and we shall speak face to face. [v] Peace be unto thee. The friends salute thee. Salute the friends [x] by name.
