THE FIRST BOOK OF

SAMUEL

Elkanah and his Two Wives. Hannah prays for a Child. Samuel born, and given to Jehovah

1 Now there was a certain man of [a] Ramathaim-zophim, of the [b] hill-country of Ephraim, and his name was [c] Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite: 2 and he had [d] two wives; the name of the one was [e] Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. 3 And this man went up out of his city from [f] year to year [g] to worship and to sacrifice unto Jehovah of hosts in [h] Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, priests unto Jehovah, were there. 4 And when the day came that Elkanah sacrificed, he [i] gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters, portions: 5 but unto Hannah he gave [k] a double portion; for he loved Hannah, [l] but Jehovah had shut up her womb. 6 And her rival [m] provoked her sore, to make her fret, because Jehovah had shut up her womb. 7 And as he did so year by year, when she went up to the house of Jehovah, so she provoked her; therefore she wept, and did not eat. 8 And Elkanah her husband said unto her, Hannah, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thy heart grieved? [n] am not I better to thee than ten sons?

9 So Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shiloh, and after they had drunk. Now Eli the priest was sitting upon his seat by the doorpost of [o] the temple of Jehovah. 10 And she was in bitterness of soul, and prayed unto Jehovah, and wept sore. 11 And she [p] vowed a vow, and said, O Jehovah of hosts, if thou wilt indeed [q] look on the affliction of thy handmaid, and remember me, and not forget thy handmaid, but wilt give unto thy handmaid [1] a man-child, then I will give him unto Jehovah all the days of his life, and [r] there shall no razor come upon his head.

12 And it came to pass, as she continued praying before Jehovah, that Eli marked her mouth. 13 Now Hannah, [s] she spake in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had been drunken. 14 And Eli said unto her, [t] How long wilt thou be drunken? put away thy wine from thee. 15 And Hannah answered and said, No, my lord, I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I [u] poured out my soul before Jehovah. 16 Count not thy handmaid for a wicked woman; for [v] out of the abundance of my complaint and my provocation have I spoken hitherto. 17 Then Eli answered and said, [x] Go in peace; and the God of Israel [y] grant thy petition that thou hast asked of him. 18 And she said, [z] Let thy handmaid find favor in thy sight. So the woman went her way, and did eat; and [a] her countenance was no more sad.

19 And they rose up in the morning early, and worshipped before Jehovah, and returned, and came to their house to [b] Ramah. And Elkanah knew Hannah his wife; and [c] Jehovah remembered her; 20 and it came to pass, when the time was come about, that Hannah conceived, and bare a son; and she called his name Samuel, saying, [d] Because I have asked him of Jehovah.

21 And the man Elkanah, and all his house, [e] went up to offer unto Jehovah the yearly sacrifice, and his vow. 22 But Hannah went not up; for she said unto her husband, I will not go up until the child be weaned; and then I will [f] bring him, that he may appear before Jehovah, and [g] there abide for ever. 23 And [h] Elkanah her husband said unto her, Do what seemeth thee good; tarry until thou have weaned him; only [a]Jehovah establish his word. So the woman tarried and gave her son suck, until she weaned him. 24 And when she had weaned him, [b]she took him up with her, with [1]three bullocks, and one ephah of meal, and a [2]bottle of wine, and brought him unto [c]the house of Jehovah in Shiloh: and the child was young. 25 And [d]they slew the bullock, and [e]brought the child to Eli. 26 And she said, Oh, my lord, [f]as thy soul liveth, my lord, I am the woman that stood by thee here, praying unto Jehovah. 27 [g]For this child I prayed; and Jehovah hath given me my petition which I asked of him: 28 [h]therefore also I have [3]granted him to Jehovah; as long as he liveth he is granted to Jehovah. And he worshipped Jehovah there.

2 And Hannah [i]prayed, and said:

My heart exulteth in Jehovah;
My [k]horn is exalted in Jehovah;
My mouth is enlarged over mine enemies;
Because [l]I rejoice in thy salvation.

2 There is none [m]holy as Jehovah;
For [n]there is none besides thee,
Neither is there any [o]rock like our God.

3 Talk no more so exceeding proudly;
Let not [p]arrogancy come out of your mouth;
For Jehovah is a God of [q]knowledge,
[4]And by him actions are [r]weighed.

4 The [s]bows of the mighty men are broken;
And they that stumbled are [t]girded with strength.

5 They that were full have hired out themselves for bread;
And they that were hungry [5]have ceased to hunger:
Yea, the [u]barren hath borne seven;
And [v]she that hath many children languisheth.

6 Jehovah [x]killeth, and maketh alive:
He bringeth down to Sheol, and [y]bringeth up.

7 Jehovah maketh poor, and [z]maketh rich:
He bringeth low, he also [a]lifteth up.

8 He [b]raiseth up the poor out of the dust,
He [c]lifteth up the needy from the dunghill,
To [d]make them sit with princes,
And inherit the throne of glory:
For the [e]pillars of the earth are Jehovah's,
And he hath set the world upon them.

9 He will [f]keep the feet of his [6]holy ones;
But the wicked shall be [g]put to silence in darkness;
For [h]by strength shall no man prevail.

10 They that strive with Jehovah shall be [i]broken to pieces;
Against them will he [k]thunder in heaven:
Jehovah will [l]judge the ends of the earth;
And he will [m]give strength unto his king,
And [n]exalt the horn of his anointed.

11 And Elkanah went to [o]Ramah to his house. [p]And the child did minister unto Jehovah before Eli the priest.

12 Now the sons of Eli were base men; [7q]they knew not Jehovah. 13 [r]And the custom of the priests with the people was, that, when any man offered sacrifice, the priest's servant came, while the flesh was boiling, with a flesh-hook of three teeth in his hand; 14 and he struck it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the flesh-hook brought up the priest took therewith. So they did in Shiloh unto all the Israelites that came thither. 15 Yea, before [s]they burnt the fat, the priest's servant came, and said to the man that sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priest; for he will not have boiled flesh of thee, but raw. 16 And if the man said unto him, They will surely burn the fat [8]first, and then take as much as thy soul desireth; then [9]he would say, Nay, but thou shalt give it me now: and if not, I will take it by force. 17 And the sin of the young men was very great before Jehovah; for the men [a] despised the offering of Jehovah.

18 But [b] Samuel ministered before Jehovah, being a child, [c] girded with a linen ephod. 19 Moreover his mother made him a little [d] robe, and brought it to him from year to year, when she came up with her husband to offer [e] the yearly sacrifice. 20 And Eli [f] blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, Jehovah give thee seed of this woman for [g] the petition which was asked of Jehovah. And they went unto their own home. 21 [1] And [h] Jehovah visited Hannah, and she conceived, and bare three sons and two daughters. And [i] the child Samuel grew before Jehovah.

22 Now Eli was very old; and he heard [k] all that his sons did unto all Israel, and how that they lay with [l] the women that did service at the door of the tent of meeting. 23 And he said unto them, Why do ye such things? for I hear of your evil dealings from all this people. 24 Nay, my sons; for it is no good report [2] that I hear: ye [m] make Jehovah's people to transgress. 25 If one man sin against another, [3] [n] God shall judge him; but [o] if a man sin against Jehovah, who shall entreat for him? Notwithstanding, they hearkened not unto the voice of their father, because [p] Jehovah was minded to slay them. 26 And the child [q] Samuel grew on, and increased in favor both with Jehovah, and also with men.

27 And there came [r] a man of God unto Eli, and said unto him, Thus saith Jehovah, [s] Did I reveal myself unto the house of thy father, when they were in Egypt [4] in bondage to Pharaoh's house? 28 [5] and [t] did I choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to [6] go up unto mine altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before me? [7] and did I give unto the house of thy father all the offerings of the children of Israel made by fire? 29 Wherefore [8] [u] kick ye at my sacrifice and at mine offering, [v] which I have commanded in my [x] habitation, and [y] honorest thy sons above me, to make yourselves fat with the chiefest of all the offerings of Israel my people? 30 Therefore Jehovah, the God of Israel, saith, [z] I said indeed that thy house, and the house of thy father, should walk before me for ever: but now Jehovah saith, Be it far from me; for [a] them that honor me I will honor, and they [b] that despise me shall be lightly esteemed. 31 Behold, [c] the days come, that I will cut off thine arm, and the arm of thy father's house, that there shall not be an old man in thy house. 32 And thou shalt behold [9] [d] the affliction of my habitation, in all the wealth which God shall give Israel; and [e] there shall not be an old man in thy house for ever. 33 [10] And the man of thine, whom I shall not cut off from mine altar, shall be to consume thine eyes, and to grieve thy heart; and all the increase of thy house shall die [11] in the flower of their age. 34 And this shall be [f] the sign unto thee, that shall come upon thy two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas: [g] in one day they shall die both of them. 35 And [h] I will raise me up a faithful priest, that shall do according to that which is in my heart and in my mind: and [i] I will build him a sure house; and he shall walk before [k] mine anointed for ever. 36 And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left in thy house shall come and bow down to him for a piece of silver and a loaf of bread, and shall say, Put me, I pray thee, into one of the priests' offices, that I may eat a morsel of bread.

3 And [l] the child Samuel ministered unto Jehovah before Eli. And [m] the word of Jehovah was [12] precious in those days; there was no [13] frequent vision. 2 And it came to pass at that time, when Eli was laid down in his place (now [n] his eyes had begun to wax dim, so that he could not see), 3 and [o] the lamp of God was not yet gone out, and Samuel was laid down to sleep, in the temple of Jehovah, where the ark of God was; 4 that Jehovah called Samuel: and he said, [p] Here am I. 5 And he ran unto Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou calledst me. And he said, I called not; lie down again. And he went and lay down. 6 And Jehovah called yet again, Samuel. And Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou calledst me. And he answered, I called not, my son; lie down again. 7 [a] Now Samuel did not yet know Jehovah, neither was the word of Jehovah yet revealed unto him. 8 And Jehovah called Samuel again the third time. And he arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou calledst me. And Eli perceived that Jehovah had called the child. 9 Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go, lie down: and it shall be, if he call thee, that thou shalt say, Speak, Jehovah; for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

10 And Jehovah came, and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel said, Speak; for thy servant heareth. 11 And Jehovah said to Samuel, Behold, [b] I will do a thing in Israel, at which both the ears of every one that heareth it shall tingle. 12 In that day [c] I will perform against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from the beginning even unto the end. 13 For [d] I have told him that I will judge his house for ever, for [e] the iniquity which he knew, because [f] his sons did bring a curse upon themselves, and [g] he restrained them not. 14 And therefore I have sworn unto the house of Eli, that [h] the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be expiated with sacrifice nor offering for ever.

15 And Samuel lay until the morning, and [i] opened the doors of the house of Jehovah. And Samuel feared to show Eli [k] the vision. 16 Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel, my son. And he said, Here am I. 17 And he said, What is the thing that Jehovah hath spoken unto thee? I pray thee, hide it not from me: [l] God do so to thee, and more also, if thou hide anything from me of all the things that he spake unto thee. 18 And Samuel told him every whit, and hid nothing from him. And he said, [m] It is Jehovah: let him do what seemeth him good.

19 And [n] Samuel grew, and [o] Jehovah was with him, and [p] did let none of his words fall to the ground. 20 And all Israel [q] from Dan even to Beer-sheba knew that Samuel was established to be a prophet of Jehovah. 21 And Jehovah appeared again in Shiloh; [r] for Jehovah revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of Jehovah.

4 1 And the word of Samuel came to all Israel.

Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and encamped beside [s] Eben-ezer: and the Philistines encamped in [t] Aphek. 2 And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when [1] they joined battle, Israel was smitten before the Philistines; and they slew of the [2] army in the field about four thousand men. 3 And when the people were come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, [u] Wherefore hath Jehovah smitten us to-day before the Philistines? [v] Let us fetch the ark of the covenant of Jehovah out of Shiloh unto us, that it may come among us, and save us out of the hand of our enemies. 4 So the people sent to Shiloh; and they brought from thence the ark of the covenant of Jehovah of hosts, [x] who [3] sitteth above the cherubim: and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

5 And when the ark of the covenant of Jehovah came into the camp, [y] all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again. 6 And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What meaneth the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the ark of Jehovah was come into the camp. 7 And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, God is come into the camp. And they said, [z] Woe unto us! for there hath not been such a thing heretofore. 8 Woe unto us! who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty gods? these are the gods that smote the Egyptians with all manner of [4] plagues in the wilderness. 9 [a] Be strong, and quit yourselves like men, O ye Philistines, that ye be not servants unto the Hebrews, [b] as they have been to you: quit yourselves like men, and fight. 10 And the Philistines fought, and [a] Israel was smitten, and [b] they fled every man to his tent: and there was a very great slaughter; for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen. 11 And the ark of God was taken; and [c] the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were slain.

12 And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the [1] army, and came to Shiloh the same day, with [d] his clothes rent, and with earth upon his head. 13 And when he came, lo, [e] Eli was sitting upon his seat by the wayside watching; for his heart trembled for the ark of God. And when the man came into the city, and told it, all the city cried out. 14 And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, What meaneth the noise of this tumult? And the man hasted, and came and told Eli. 15 Now Eli was ninety and eight years old; and [f] his eyes were set, so that he could not see. 16 And the man said unto Eli, I am he that came out of the [1] army, and I fled to-day out of the [1] army. And he said, [g] How went the matter, my son? 17 And he that brought the tidings answered and said, Israel is fled before the Philistines, and there hath been also a great slaughter among the people, and thy two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God is taken. 18 And it came to pass, when he made mention of the ark of God, that [h] Eli fell from off his seat backward by the side of the gate; and his neck brake, and he died: for he was an old man, and heavy. And he had judged Israel forty years.

19 And his daughter-in-law, Phinehas' wife, was with child, near to be delivered: and when she heard the tidings that the ark of God was taken, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and brought forth; for her pains came upon her. 20 And about the time of her death the women that stood by her said unto her, [i] Fear not; for thou hast brought forth a son. But she answered not, neither did she regard it. 21 And she named the child [2] Ichabod, saying, [k] The glory is departed from Israel; because [l] the ark of God was taken, and because of her father-in-law and her husband. 22 And she said, The glory is departed from Israel; for the ark of God is taken.

[1] Heb. array. [2] That is, There is no glory.

5 Now the Philistines had taken the ark of God, and [m] they brought it from Eben-ezer unto [n] Ashdod. 2 And the Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it into [o] the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon. 3 And when they of Ashdod arose early on the morrow, behold, [p] Dagon was fallen [3] upon his face to the ground before the ark of Jehovah. And they took Dagon, and [q] set him in his place again. 4 And when they arose early on the morrow morning, behold, Dagon was fallen [3] upon his face to the ground before the ark of Jehovah; and the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands lay cut off upon the threshold; only the stump of Dagon was left to him. 5 Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any that come into Dagon's house, tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod, unto this day.

6 But [r] the hand of Jehovah was heavy upon them of Ashdod, and [s] he destroyed them, and smote them with [4] [t] tumors, even Ashdod and the borders thereof. 7 And when the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, The ark of the God of Israel shall not abide with us; for his hand is sore upon us, and upon Dagon our god. 8 They sent therefore and [u] gathered all the lords of the Philistines unto them, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about unto Gath. And they carried the ark of the God of Israel thither. 9 And it was so, that, after they had carried it about, [v] the hand of Jehovah was against the city with a very great discomfiture: and he smote the men of the city, both small and great; and [x] tumors brake out upon them. 10 So they sent the ark of God to Ekron. And it came to pass, as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us, to slay us and our people. 11 They [y] sent therefore and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and they said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to its own place, that it slay us not, and our people. For there was a deadly discomfiture throughout all the city; [a] the hand of God was very heavy there. 12 And the men that died not were smitten with the tumors; and [b] the cry of the city went up to heaven.

6 And the ark of Jehovah was in the [1] country of the Philistines seven months. 2 And [c] the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, What shall we do with the ark of Jehovah? show us wherewith we shall send it to its place. 3 And they said, If ye send away the ark of the God of Israel, [d] send it not empty; but by all means [e] return him a trespass-offering: then ye shall be healed, and it shall be known to you why his hand is not removed from you. 4 Then said they, What shall be the trespass-offering which we shall return to him? And they said, Five golden [f] tumors, and five golden mice, [g] according to the number of the lords of the Philistines: for one plague was on [2] you all, and on your lords. 5 Wherefore ye shall make images of your tumors, and images of your mice that mar the land; and [h] ye shall give glory unto the God of Israel: peradventure [i] he will lighten his hand from off you, and [k] from off your gods, and from off your land. 6 Wherefore then do ye harden your hearts, [l] as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When he had [3] wrought wonderfully among them, [m] did they not let [4] the people go, and they departed? 7 Now therefore take and [n] prepare you a new cart, and two milch kine, on which there [o] hath come no yoke; and tie the kine to the cart, and bring their calves home from them; 8 and take the ark of Jehovah and lay it upon the cart; and put [p] the jewels of gold, which ye return him for [q] a trespass-offering, in a coffer by the side thereof; and send it away, that it may go. 9 And see; if it goeth up by the way of its own border to [r] Beth-shemesh, then he hath done us this great evil: but if not, then [s] we shall know that it is not his hand that smote us; it was a chance that happened to us.

10 And the men did so, and took two milch kine, and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home; 11 and they put the ark of Jehovah upon the cart, and the coffer with the mice of gold and the images of their tumors. 12 And the kine took the straight way by the way to [t] Beth-shemesh; they went along [5] [u] the highway, lowing as they went, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left; and the lords of the Philistines went after them unto the border of Beth-shemesh. 13 And they of Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley; and they lifted up their eyes, and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it. 14 And the cart came into the field of Joshua the Beth-shemite, and stood there, where there was a great stone: and they clave the wood of the cart, and [v] offered up the kine for a burnt-offering unto Jehovah. 15 And [x] the Levites took down the ark of Jehovah, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone: and the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt-offerings and sacrificed sacrifices the same day unto Jehovah. 16 And when the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day.

17 And [y] these are the golden tumors which the Philistines returned for a trespass-offering unto Jehovah: for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Ashkelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one; 18 and the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, [z] both of fortified cities and of country villages, even unto [a] the great [6] stone, whereon they set down the ark of Jehovah, which stone remaineth unto this day in the field of Joshua the Beth-shemite.

19 And [b] he smote of the men of Beth-shemesh, because they had looked into the ark of Jehovah, he smote of the people seventy men, and fifty thousand men; and the people mourned, because Jehovah had smitten the people with a great slaughter. 20 And the men of Beth-shemesh said, [c] Who is able to stand before Jehovah, this holy God? and to whom shall he go up from us? 21 And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of [a]Kiriath-jearim, saying, The Philistines have brought back the ark of Jehovah; come ye down, and fetch it up to you. 7 1 And the men of Kiriath-jearim came, and fetched up the ark of Jehovah, and [b]brought it into the house of Abinadab in [1]the hill, and sanctified Eleazar his son to keep the ark of Jehovah. 2 And it came to pass, from the day that the ark abode in Kiriath-jearim, that the time was long; for it was twenty years: and all the house of Israel [2]lamented after Jehovah.

3 And Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, [c]If ye do return unto Jehovah with all your heart, then [d]put away the foreign gods and the [e]Ashtaroth from among you, and [f]direct your hearts unto Jehovah, and [g]serve him only; and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines. 4 Then the children of Israel did put away the Baalim and the Ashtaroth, and served Jehovah only.

5 And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to [h]Mizpah, and [i]I will pray for you unto Jehovah. 6 And they gathered together to Mizpah, and drew water, and [k]poured it out before Jehovah, and [l]fasted on that day, and said there, [m]We have sinned against Jehovah. And Samuel judged the children of Israel in Mizpah. 7 And when the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpah, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard it, [n]they were afraid of the Philistines. 8 And the children of Israel said to Samuel, [o]Cease not to cry unto Jehovah our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistines. 9 And Samuel took [p]a sucking lamb, and offered it for a whole burnt-offering unto Jehovah: and Samuel cried unto Jehovah for Israel; and [q]Jehovah answered him. 10 And as Samuel was offering up the burnt-offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel; but [r]Jehovah thundered with a great [3]thunder on that day upon the Philistines, and [s]discomfited them; and they were smitten down before Israel.

11 And the men of Israel went out of Mizpah, and pursued the Philistines, and smote them, until they came under Beth-car.

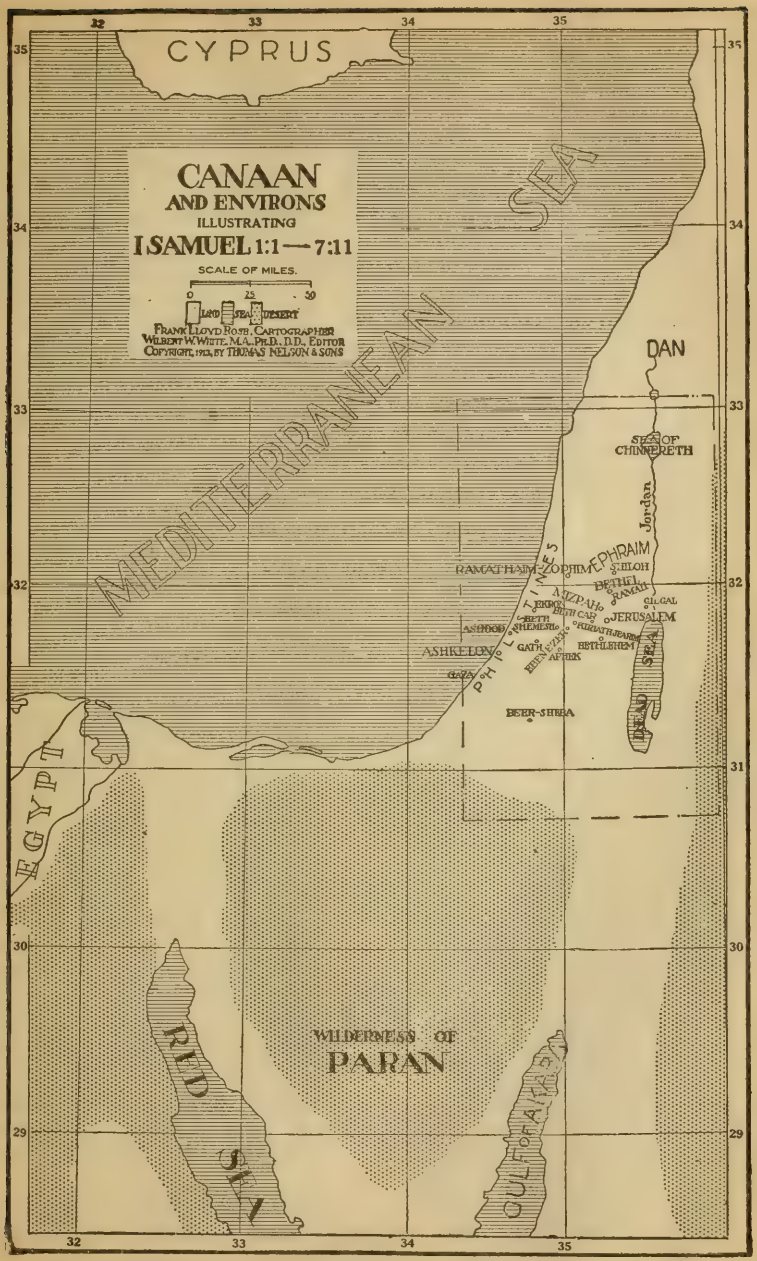

12 Then Samuel [t]took a stone, and set it between Mizpah and Shen, and called the name of it [4]Eben-ezer, saying, Hitherto hath Jehovah helped us. 13 [u]So the Philistines were subdued, and [v]they came no more within the border of Israel: and the hand of Jehovah was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel. 14 And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even unto Gath; and the border thereof did Israel deliver out of the hand of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and [x]the Amorites.

15 And Samuel [y]judged Israel all the days of his life. 16 And he went from year to year in circuit to [z]Beth-el, and [a]Gilgal, and [b]Mizpah; and he judged Israel in all those places. 17 And his return was to [c]Ramah, for there was his house; and there he judged Israel: and he built there an altar unto Jehovah.

8 1 And it came to pass, when Samuel was old, that [d]he made his sons judges over Israel. 2 Now the name of his first-born was Joel; and the name of his second, Abijah: they were judges in [e]Beer-sheba. 3 And his sons walked not in his ways, but turned aside after lucre, and [f]took bribes, and perverted justice.

4 Then all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel unto [g]Ramah; 5 and they said unto him, Behold, thou art old, and thy sons walk not in thy ways: now [h]make us a king to judge us like all the nations. 6 But the thing [i]displeased Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us. And [k]Samuel prayed unto Jehovah. 7 And Jehovah said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee; for [l]they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not be king over them. 8 According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, in that they have forsaken me, and served other gods, so do they also unto thee. 9 Now therefore hearken unto their voice: [a]howbeit thou shalt protest solemnly unto them, and shalt show them [b]the manner of the king that shall reign over them.

10 And Samuel told all the words of Jehovah unto [c]the people that asked of him a king. 11 And he said, [d]This will be the manner of the king that shall reign over you: [e]he will take your sons, and appoint them unto him, [1]for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and [f]they shall run before his chariots; 12 and [g]he will appoint them unto him for captains of thousands, and captains of fifties; and he will set some to plow his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and the instruments of his chariots. 13 And he will take your daughters to be perfumers, and to be cooks, and to be bakers. 14 And [h]he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your oliveyards, even the best of them, and give them to his servants. 15 And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give to his [2]officers, and to his servants. 16 And he will take your men-servants, and your maid-servants, and your goodliest [3]young men, and your asses, and put them to his work. 17 He will take the tenth of your flocks: and ye shall be his servants. 18 And [i]ye shall cry out in that day because of your king whom ye shall have chosen you; and [k]Jehovah will not answer you in that day.

19 But the people refused to hearken unto the voice of Samuel; and they said, Nay; but we will have a king over us, 20 [l]that we also may be like all the nations, and that our king may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles. 21 And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and [m]he rehearsed them in the ears of Jehovah. 22 And Jehovah said to Samuel, [n]Hearken unto their voice, and make them a king. And Samuel said unto the men of Israel, Go ye every man unto his city.

9 Now there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was [o]Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Becorath, the son of Aphiah, a mighty man of [4]valor. 2 And he had a son, whose name was Saul, a [5][p]young man and a goodly: and there was not among the children of Israel a goodlier person than he: [q]from his shoulders and upward he was higher than any of the people. 3 And the asses of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. And Kish said to Saul his son, Take now one of the servants with thee, and arise, go seek the asses. 4 And he passed through [r]the hill-country of Ephraim, and passed through the land of [s]Shalishah, but they found them not: then they passed through the land of [t]Shaalim, and there they were not: and he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they found them not.

5 When they were come to the land of [u]Zuph, Saul said to his servant that was with him, Come, and let us return, [v]lest my father leave off caring for the asses, and be anxious for us. 6 And he said unto him, Behold now, there is in this city [x]a man of God, and he is a man that is held in honor; [y]all that he saith cometh surely to pass: now let us go thither; [z]peradventure he can tell us concerning our journey whereon we go. 7 Then said Saul to his servant, But, behold, if we go, what shall we bring the man? for the bread is spent in our vessels, and there is not [a]a present to bring to the man of God: what have we? 8 And the servant answered Saul again, and said, Behold, I have in my hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver: that will I give to the man of God, [b]to tell us our way. 9 (Beforetime in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, thus he said, Come, and let us go to the seer; for he that is now called a Prophet was beforetime called [c]a Seer). 10 Then said Saul to his servant, Well said; come, let us go. So they went unto the city where the man of God was.

11 As they went up the ascent to the city, [d]they found young maidens going out to draw water, and said unto them, Is the seer here? 12 And they answered them, and said, He is; behold, he is before thee: make haste now, for he is come to-day into the city; for [e]the people have a sacrifice to-day in [f]the high place. 13 As soon as ye are come into the city, ye shall straightway find him, before he goeth up to the high place to eat; for the people will not eat until he come, because [a] he doth bless the sacrifice; and afterwards they eat that are bidden. Now therefore get you up; for at this time ye shall find him. 14 And they went up to the city; and as they came within the city, behold, Samuel came out toward them, to go up to the high place.

15 Now [b] Jehovah had [1] revealed unto Samuel a day before Saul came, saying, 16 To-morrow about this time I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin, and [c] thou shalt anoint him to be [2] prince over my people Israel; and he shall save my people out of the hand of the Philistines: for [d] I have looked upon my people, because their cry is come unto me. 17 And when Samuel saw Saul, Jehovah [3] said unto him, [e] Behold, the man [4] of whom I spake to thee! this same shall have authority over my people. 18 Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the seer's house is. 19 And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am the seer; go up before me unto the high place, for ye shall eat with me to-day: and in the morning I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that is in thy heart. 20 And [f] as for thine asses that were lost three days ago, set not thy mind on them; for they are found. And [5] [g] for whom is all that is desirable in Israel? Is it not for thee, and for all thy father's house? 21 And Saul answered and said, [h] Am not I a Benjamite, of [i] the smallest of the tribes of Israel? and my family the least of all the families of the [6] tribe of Benjamin? wherefore then speakest thou to me after this manner?

22 And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the guest-chamber, and made them sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden, who were about thirty persons. 23 And Samuel said unto the cook, Bring the portion which I gave thee, of which I said unto thee, Set it by thee. 24 And the cook [k] took up the [7] thigh, and that which was upon it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, Behold, that which hath been reserved! set it before thee and eat; because unto the appointed time hath it been kept for thee, [8] for I said, I have invited the people. So Saul did eat with Samuel that day.

25 And when they were come down from the high place into the city, he communed with Saul [l] upon the housetop. 26 And they arose early: and it came to pass about the spring of the day, that Samuel called to Saul on the housetop, saying, Up, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out both of them, he and Samuel, abroad. 27 As they were going down at the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the servant pass on before us (and he passed on), but stand thou still [9] first, that I may cause thee to hear the word of God.

10 Then [m] Samuel took the vial of oil, and poured it upon his head, and [n] kissed him, and said, Is it not that [o] Jehovah hath anointed thee to be prince over [p] his inheritance? 2 When thou art departed from me to-day, then thou shalt find two men by [q] Rachel's sepulchre, in the border of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will say unto thee, [r] The asses which thou wentest to seek are found; and, lo, thy father hath left off caring for the asses, and is anxious for you, saying, What shall I do for my son? 3 Then shalt thou go on forward from thence, and thou shalt come to the [10] [s] oak of Tabor; and there shall meet thee there three men going up [t] to God to Beth-el, one carrying three kids, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a [11] bottle of wine: 4 and they will salute thee, and give thee two loaves of bread, which thou shalt receive of their hand. 5 After that thou shalt come to [12] [u] the hill of God, where is the garrison of the Philistines: and it shall come to pass, when thou art come thither to the city, that thou shalt meet [v] a band of prophets coming down from the high place with a psaltery, and a timbrel, and a pipe, and a harp, before them; and [x] they will be prophesying: 6 and [y] the Spirit of Jehovah will come mightily upon thee, and [a] thou shalt prophesy with them, and shalt be turned into another man. 7 And [1] let it be, when these signs are come unto thee, [2] that thou [b] do as occasion shall serve thee; for [c] God is with thee. 8 And [d] thou shalt go down before me to Gilgal; and, behold, I will come down unto thee, to offer burnt-offerings, and to [e] sacrifice sacrifices of peace-offerings: [f] seven days shalt thou tarry, till I come unto thee, and show thee what thou shalt do.

9 And it was so, that, when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, God [3] [g] gave him another heart: and all those signs came to pass that day. 10 And [h] when they came thither to [4] the hill, behold, a band of prophets met him; and the Spirit of God came mightily upon him, and he prophesied among them. 11 And it came to pass, when all that knew him beforetime saw that, behold, he prophesied with the prophets, then the people said one to another, What is this that is come unto the son of Kish? [i] Is Saul also among the prophets? 12 And one of the same place answered and said, And who is their father? Therefore it became a proverb, Is Saul also among the prophets? 13 And when he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place.

14 And [k] Saul's uncle said unto him and to his servant, Whither went ye? And he said, [l] To seek the asses; and when we saw that they were not found, we came to Samuel. 15 And Saul's uncle said, Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said unto you. 16 And Saul said unto his uncle, [m] He told us plainly that the asses were found. But concerning the matter of the kingdom, whereof Samuel spake, he told him not.

17 And Samuel called the people together unto Jehovah [n] to Mizpah; 18 and he said unto the children of Israel, [o] Thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel, I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all the kingdoms that oppressed you: 19 but [p] ye have this day rejected your God, who himself saveth you out of all your calamities and your distresses; and ye have said unto him, Nay, but set a king over us. Now therefore [q] present yourselves before Jehovah by your tribes, and by your thousands. 20 So Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel near, and the tribe of Benjamin was taken. 21 And he brought the tribe of Benjamin near by their families; and the family of the Matrites was taken; and Saul the son of Kish was taken: but when they sought him, he could not be found. 22 Therefore [r] they asked of Jehovah further, [5] Is there yet a man to come hither? And Jehovah answered, Behold, he hath hid himself among the baggage. 23 And they ran and fetched him thence; and when he stood among the people, [s] he was higher than any of the people from his shoulders and upward. 24 And Samuel said to all the people, See ye him [t] whom Jehovah hath chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted, and said, [u] Long live the king.

25 Then Samuel told the people [v] the manner of the kingdom, and wrote it in [6] a book, and [x] laid it up before Jehovah. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house. 26 And Saul also went [y] to his house to Gibeah; and there went with him the [7] host, whose hearts God had touched. 27 But certain worthless fellows said, How shall this man save us? And they despised him, and [z] brought him no present. [8] But he held his peace.

11 Then [a] Nahash the Ammonite came up, and encamped against [b] Jabesh-gilead: and all the men of Jabesh said unto Nahash, Make [c] a covenant with us, and we will serve thee. 2 And Nahash the Ammonite said unto them, On this condition will I make it with you, [d] that all your right eyes be put out; and I will lay it for [e] a reproach upon all Israel. 3 And [f] the elders of Jabesh said unto him, Give us seven days' respite, that we may send messengers unto all the borders of Israel; and then, if there be none to save us, we will come out to thee. 4 Then came the messengers [a] to Gibeah of Saul, and spake these words in the ears of the people: and all the people [b] lifted up their voice, and wept. 5 And, behold, Saul came [c] following the oxen out of the field; and Saul said, What aileth the people that they weep? And they told him the words of the men of Jabesh.

6 And [d] the Spirit of God came mightily upon Saul when he heard those words, and his anger was kindled greatly. 7 And he took a yoke of oxen, and [e] cut them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the borders of Israel by the hand of messengers, saying, [f] Whosoever cometh not forth after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done unto his oxen. And [1] the dread of Jehovah fell on the people, and they came out [g] as one man. 8 And he numbered them in [h] Bezek; and the children of Israel were [i] three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand. 9 And they said unto the messengers that came, Thus shall ye say unto the men of Jabesh-gilead, To-morrow, by the time the sun is hot, ye shall have deliverance. And the messengers came and told the men of Jabesh; and they were glad. 10 Therefore the men of Jabesh said, [k] To-morrow we will come out unto you, and ye shall do with us all that seemeth good unto you. 11 And it was so on the morrow, that Saul put the people [l] in three companies; and they came into the midst of the camp in the morning watch, and smote the Ammonites until the heat of the day: and it came to pass, that they that remained were scattered, so that not two of them were left together.

12 And the people said unto Samuel, [m] Who is he that said, Shall Saul reign over us? [n] bring the men, that we may put them to death. 13 And Saul said, [o] There shall not a man be put to death this day; for to-day [p] Jehovah hath wrought [2] deliverance in Israel.

14 Then said Samuel to the people, Come, and let us go to [q] Gilgal, and [r] renew the kingdom there. 15 And all the people went to Gilgal; and there they made Saul king [s] before Jehovah in Gilgal; and there they [t] offered sacrifices of peace-offerings before Jehovah; and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

12 And Samuel said unto all Israel, Behold, [u] I have hearkened unto your voice in all that ye said unto me, and [v] have made a king over you. 2 And now, behold, [x] the king walketh before you; and [y] I am old and grayheaded; and, behold, [z] my sons are with you: and [a] I have walked before you from my youth unto this day. 3 Here I am: witness against me before Jehovah, and [b] before his anointed: [c] whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or [d] of whose hand have I taken a [3] ransom [4] to blind mine eyes therewith? and I will restore it you. 4 And they said, Thou hast not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, neither hast thou taken aught of any man's hand. 5 And he said unto them, Jehovah is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that [e] ye have not found aught [f] in my hand. And they said, He is witness.

6 And Samuel said unto the people, It is Jehovah that [5] [g] appointed Moses and Aaron, and that brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt. 7 Now therefore stand still, [h] that I may plead with you before Jehovah concerning all the righteous acts of Jehovah, which he did to you and to your fathers. 8 When Jacob was come into Egypt, and [i] your fathers cried unto Jehovah, then [k] Jehovah sent Moses and Aaron, [l] who brought forth your fathers out of Egypt, and made them to dwell in this place. 9 But [m] they forgat Jehovah their God; and [n] he sold them into the hand of Sisera, captain of the host of Hazor, and [o] into the hand of the Philistines, and [p] into the hand of the king of Moab; and they fought against them. 10 And [q] they cried unto Jehovah, and said, We have sinned, because we have forsaken Jehovah, and have served [r] the Baalim and the Ashtaroth: but [s] now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve thee. 11 And Jehovah sent [t] Jerubbaal, and [6] [u] Bedan, and Jephthah, and

Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side; and ye dwelt in safety. 12 And when ye saw [a] that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon came against you, ye said unto me, [b] Nay, but a king shall reign over us; [c] when Jehovah your God was your king. 13 Now therefore [d] behold the king whom ye have chosen, and [e] whom ye have asked for: and, behold, Jehovah hath set a king over you. 14 [f] If ye will fear Jehovah, and serve him, and hearken unto his voice, and not rebel against the commandment of Jehovah, [1] and both ye and also the king that reigneth over you be followers of Jehovah your God, well: 15 but [g] if ye will not hearken unto the voice of Jehovah, but rebel against the commandment of Jehovah, then [h] will the hand of Jehovah be against you, [i] as it was against your fathers. 16 Now therefore [k] stand still and see this great thing, which Jehovah will do before your eyes. 17 [l] Is it not wheat harvest to-day? [m] I will call unto Jehovah, that he may send thunder and rain; and ye shall know and see that [n] your wickedness is great, which ye have done in the sight of Jehovah, in asking you a king. 18 So Samuel called unto Jehovah; and Jehovah sent thunder and rain that day: and [o] all the people greatly feared Jehovah and Samuel.

19 And all the people said unto Samuel, [p] Pray for thy servants unto Jehovah thy God, that we die not; for we have added unto all our sins [q] this evil, to ask us a king. 20 And Samuel said unto the people, Fear not: ye have indeed done all this evil; yet [r] turn not aside from following Jehovah, but serve Jehovah with all your heart: 21 and turn ye not aside; for then would ye go after [s] vain things which cannot profit nor deliver, for they are vain. 22 For [t] Jehovah will not forsake his people [u] for his great name's sake, because [v] it hath pleased Jehovah to make you a people unto himself. 23 Moreover as for me, [z] far be it from me that I should sin against Jehovah in ceasing to pray for you: but [y] I will instruct you in the good and the right way. 24 [z] Only fear Jehovah, and serve him in truth with all your heart; for consider [a] how great things he hath done for you. 25 [b] But if ye shall still do wickedly, [c] ye shall be consumed, [d] both ye and your king.

13 Saul was [2]forty] years old when he began to reign; and when he had reigned two years over Israel, 2 Saul chose him three thousand men of Israel, whereof two thousand were with Saul in [e] Michmash and in the mount of Beth-el, and a thousand were with Jonathan in [f] Gibeah of Benjamin: and the rest of the people he sent every man to his tent. 3 And Jonathan smote [g] the garrison of the Philistines that was in [h] Geba; and the Philistines heard of it. And Saul [i] blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Let the Hebrews hear. 4 And all Israel heard say that Saul had smitten the garrison of the Philistines, and also that Israel was [k] had in abomination with the Philistines. And the people were gathered together after Saul to Gilgal.

5 And the Philistines assembled themselves together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and [l] people as the sand which is on the sea-shore in multitude: and they came up, and encamped in Michmash, eastward of [m] Beth-aven. 6 When the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait (for the people were distressed), then [n] the people did hide themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in covers, and in [3]pits. 7 Now some of the Hebrews had gone over the Jordan to the land of [o] Gad and Gilead; but as for Saul, he was yet in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling.

8 And [p] he tarried seven days, according to the set time that Samuel had appointed: but Samuel came not to Gilgal; and the people were scattered from him. 9 And Saul said, Bring hither the burnt-offering to me, and the peace-offerings. And [q] he offered the burnt-offering. 10 And it came to pass that, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt-offering, behold, Samuel came; and [r] Saul went out to meet him, that he might [4]salute him. 11 And Samuel said, What hast thou done? And Saul said, Because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that thou camest not within the days appointed, and that [a]the Philistines assembled themselves together at Michmash; 12 therefore said I, Now will the Philistines come down upon me to Gilgal, and I have not entreated the favor of Jehovah: I forced myself therefore, and offered the burnt-offering. 13 And Samuel said to Saul, [b]Thou hast done foolishly; [c]thou hast not kept the commandment of Jehovah thy God, which he commanded thee: for now would Jehovah have established thy kingdom upon Israel [d]for ever. 14 But [e]now thy kingdom shall not continue: [f]Jehovah hath sought him a man after his own heart, and Jehovah hath appointed him to be prince over his people, because thou hast not kept that which Jehovah commanded thee. 15 And Samuel arose, and gat him up from Gilgal unto [g]Gibeah of Benjamin.

And Saul numbered the people that were present with him, [h]about six hundred men. 16 And Saul, and Jonathan his son, and the people that were present with them, abode in [i]Geba of Benjamin: but the Philistines encamped in Michmash. 17 And [k]the spoilers came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned unto the way that leadeth to [l]Ophrah, unto the land of Shual; 18 and another company turned the way to [m]Beth-horon; and another company turned the way of the border that looketh down upon the valley of [n]Zeboim toward the wilderness.

19 Now [o]there was no smith found throughout all the land of Israel; for the Philistines said, Lest the Hebrews make them swords or spears: 20 but all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his share, and his coulter, and his axe, and his mattock; 21 [1]yet they had a file for the mattocks, and for the coulters, and for the forks, and for the axes, and to set the goads. 22 So it came to pass in the day of battle, that [p]there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people that were with Saul and Jonathan: but with Saul and with Jonathan his son was there found. 23 And [q]the garrison of the Philistines went out unto [r]the pass of Michmash.

14 Now it fell upon a day, that Jonathan the son of Saul said unto the young man that bare his armor, Come, and let us go over to the Philistines' garrison, that is on yonder side. But he told not his father. 2 And Saul abode in the uttermost part of [s]Gibeah under the pomegranate-tree which is in [t]Migron: and the people that were with him were [u]about six hundred men; 3 and [v]Ahijah, the son of Ahitub, [x]Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the priest of Jehovah in [y]Shiloh, [z]wearing an ephod. And the people knew not that Jonathan was gone. 4 And [a]between the passes, by which Jonathan sought to go over unto the Philistines' garrison, there was a rocky crag on the one side, and a rocky crag on the other side: and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh. 5 The one crag rose up on the north in front of Michmash, and the other on the south in front of Geba.

6 And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armor, Come, and let us go over unto the garrison of [b]these uncircumcised: it may be that Jehovah will work for us; for [c]there is no restraint to Jehovah to save by many or by few. 7 And his armorbearer said unto him, Do all that is in thy heart: turn thee, behold, I am with thee according to thy heart. 8 Then said Jonathan, [d]Behold, we will pass over unto the men, and we will disclose ourselves unto them. 9 If they say thus unto us, Tarry until we come to you; then we will stand still in our place, and will not go up unto them. 10 But if they say thus, Come up unto us; then we will go up; for Jehovah hath delivered them into our hand: and [e]this shall be the sign unto us. 11 And both of them disclosed themselves unto the garrison of the Philistines: and the Philistines said, Behold, [f]the Hebrews come forth out of the holes where they had hid themselves. 12 And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armorbearer, and said,

[1] Or, when the edges of the mattocks . . . and of the axes were blunt The Hebrew text is obscure.

Come up to us, and [a] we will show you a thing. And Jonathan said unto his armorbearer, Come up after me: for [b] Jehovah hath delivered them into the hand of Israel. 13 And Jonathan climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet, and his armorbearer after him: and they fell before Jonathan; and his armorbearer slew them after him. 14 And that first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armorbearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were [1] half a furrow's length in an acre of land. 15 And there was a trembling in the camp, in the field, and among all the people; the garrison, and [c] the spoilers, they also trembled; and [d] the earth quaked: so [e] there was [2] an exceeding great trembling.

16 And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked; and, behold, the multitude melted away, and they went hither and thither. 17 Then said Saul unto the people that were with him, Number now, and see who is gone from us. And when they had numbered, behold, Jonathan and his armorbearer were not there. 18 And Saul said unto Ahijah, [3] [f] Bring hither the ark of God. For the ark of God was there at that time [4] with the children of Israel. 19 And it came to pass, [g] while Saul talked unto the priest, that the tumult that was in the camp of the Philistines went on and increased: and Saul said unto the priest, Withdraw thy hand. 20 And Saul and all the people that were with him were gathered together, and came to the battle: and, behold, [h] every man's sword was against his fellow, and there was a very great discomfiture. 21 Now the Hebrews that were with the Philistines as beforetime, and that went up with them [5] into the camp, from the country round about, even [i] they also turned to be with the Israelites that were with Saul and Jonathan. 22 Likewise all the [k] men of Israel that had hid themselves in the hill-country of Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle. 23 So [l] Jehovah saved Israel that day: and the battle passed over by [m] Beth-aven.

24 And the men of Israel were distressed that day; for Saul had [n] adjured the people, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any food until it be evening, and I be avenged on mine enemies. So none of the people tasted food. 25 And all [6] the people came into the forest; and there was honey upon the ground. 26 And when the people were come unto the forest, behold, [7] [o] the honey dropped: but no man put his hand to his mouth; for the people feared the oath. 27 But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oath: wherefore [p] he put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipped it in the honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and [q] his eyes were enlightened. 28 Then answered one of the people, and said, Thy father straitly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth food this day. And the people were faint. 29 Then said Jonathan, [r] My father hath troubled the land: see, I pray you, how mine eyes have been enlightened, because I tasted a little of this honey. 30 How much more, if haply the people had eaten freely to-day of the spoil of their enemies which they found? [8] for now hath there been no great slaughter among the Philistines.

31 And they smote of the Philistines that day from [s] Michmash to [t] Aijalon. And the people were very faint; 32 and [u] the people flew upon the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground; and the people did eat them [v] with the blood. 33 Then they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sin against Jehovah, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, Ye have dealt treacherously: roll a great stone unto me this day. 34 And Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people, and say unto them, Bring me hither every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and slay them here, and eat; and sin not against Jehovah in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and slew them there. 35 And [a] Saul built an altar unto Jehovah: the same was the first altar that he built unto Jehovah.

36 And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and take spoil among them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they said, Do whatsoever seemeth good unto thee. Then [b] said the priest, Let us draw near hither unto God. 37 And [c] Saul asked counsel of God, Shall I go down after the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into the hand of Israel? But [d] he answered him not that day. 38 And Saul said, [e] Draw nigh hither, all ye [1] chiefs of the people; and know and see wherein this sin hath been this day. 39 For, [f] as Jehovah liveth, who saveth Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die. But there was not a man among all the people that answered him. 40 Then said he unto all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side. And the people said unto Saul, Do what seemeth good unto thee. 41 Therefore Saul said unto Jehovah, the God of Israel, [2g] Show the right. And Jonathan and Saul were taken by lot; but the people escaped. 42 And Saul said, Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was taken.

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, [h] Tell me what thou hast done. And Jonathan told him, and said, [i] I did certainly taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in my hand; and, lo, I must die. 44 And Saul said, [k] God do so and more also; for [l] thou shalt surely die, Jonathan. 45 And the people said unto Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who hath wrought this great salvation in Israel? Far from it: as Jehovah liveth, [m] there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he hath wrought with God this day. So the people [3] rescued Jonathan, that he died not. 46 Then Saul went up from following the Philistines; and the Philistines went to their own place.

47 Now when Saul had taken the kingdom over Israel, he fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, and [n] against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and [o] against the kings of Zobah, and [p] against the Philistines: and whithersoever he turned himself, he put them to the worse. 48 And he did valiantly, and [q] smote the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of them that despoiled them.

49 Now [r] the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and Ishvi, and Malchishua; and the names of his two daughters were these: the name of the first-born [s] Merab, and the name of the younger [t] Michal: 50 and the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz. And [u] the name of the captain of his host was Abner the son of Ner, Saul's uncle. 51 [v] And Kish was the father of Saul; and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.

52 And there was sore war against the Philistines all the days of Saul: and when Saul saw any mighty man, or any valiant man, he [4x] took him unto him.

15 And Samuel said unto Saul, [y] Jehovah sent me to anoint thee to be king over his people, over Israel: now therefore hearken thou unto the voice of the words of Jehovah. 2 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, I [5] have marked [z] that which Amalek did to Israel, how he set himself against him in the way, when he came up out of Egypt. 3 Now go and smite Amalek, and [6a] utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but [b] slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass.

4 And Saul summoned the people, and numbered them in [c] Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men of Judah. 5 And Saul came to the city of Amalek, and [7] laid wait in the valley. 6 And Saul said unto [d] the Kenites, Go, depart, get you down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them; for [e] ye showed kindness to all the children of Israel, when they came up out of Egypt. So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites. 7 And [f] Saul smote the Amalekites, from [g] Havilah as thou goest to [h] Shur, that is before Egypt. 8 And he took [a] Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and [1 b] utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword. 9 But Saul and the people [c] spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not [2] utterly destroy them: but everything that was vile and refuse, that they [1] destroyed utterly.

10 Then came the word of Jehovah unto Samuel, saying, 11 [d] It repenteth me that I have set up Saul to be king; for [e] he is turned back from following me, and hath not performed my commandments. And Samuel was wroth; and [f] he cried unto Jehovah all night. 12 And Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning; and it was told Samuel, saying, Saul came to [g] Carmel, and, behold, he set him up a [3] monument, and turned, and passed on, and went down to [h] Gilgal. 13 And Samuel came to Saul; and Saul said unto him, [i] Blessed be thou of Jehovah: I have performed the commandment of Jehovah. 14 And Samuel said, [k] What meaneth then this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear? 15 And Saul said, They have brought them from the Amalekites: for [l] the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice unto Jehovah thy God; and the rest we have [1] utterly destroyed. 16 Then Samuel said unto Saul, Stay, and I will tell thee what Jehovah hath said to me this night. And he said unto him, Say on.

17 And Samuel said, [4 m] Though thou wast little in thine own sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel? And Jehovah anointed thee king over Israel; 18 and Jehovah sent thee on a journey, and said, [n] Go, and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until they be consumed. 19 Wherefore then didst thou not obey the voice of Jehovah, [o] but didst fly upon the spoil, and didst that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah? 20 And Saul said unto Samuel, [p] Yea, I have obeyed the voice of Jehovah, and have gone the way which Jehovah sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have [1] utterly destroyed the Amalekites. 21 But [q] the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the devoted things, to sacrifice unto Jehovah thy God in Gilgal. 22 And Samuel said, [r] Hath Jehovah as great delight in burnt-offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of Jehovah? Behold, [s] to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams. 23 For rebellion is as the sin of [5 t] witchcraft, and stubbornness is as [6] idolatry and [u] teraphim. Because thou hast rejected the word of Jehovah, [v] he hath also rejected thee from being king.

24 And Saul said unto Samuel, [x] I have sinned; for [y] I have transgressed the commandment of Jehovah, and thy words, because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice. 25 Now therefore, [z] I pray thee, pardon my sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship Jehovah. 26 And Samuel said unto Saul, I will not return with thee: for [a] thou hast rejected the word of Jehovah, and Jehovah hath rejected thee from being king over Israel. 27 And as Samuel turned about to go away, [b] Saul laid hold upon the skirt of his robe, and it rent. 28 And Samuel said unto him, [c] Jehovah hath rent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to a neighbor of thine, that is better than thou. 29 And also the [7 d] Strength of Israel [e] will not lie nor repent; for he is not a man, that he should repent. 30 Then he said, I have sinned: yet [f] honor me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and turn again with me, [g] that I may worship Jehovah thy God. 31 So Samuel turned again after Saul; and Saul worshipped Jehovah.

32 Then said Samuel, Bring ye hither to me Agag the king of the Amalekites. And Agag came unto him cheerfully. And Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past. 33 And Samuel said, [k] As thy sword hath made women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before Jehovah in Gilgal.

34 Then Samuel went to [i] Ramah; and Saul went up to his house to [a] Gibeah of Saul. 35 And [b] Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death; [1] for Samuel [c] mourned for Saul: and Jehovah repented that he had made Saul king over Israel.

16 And Jehovah said unto Samuel, [d] How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing [e] I have rejected him from being king over Israel? [f] fill thy horn with oil, and go: I will send thee to [g] Jesse the Beth-lehemite; for I have provided me a king among his sons. 2 And Samuel said, How can I go? if Saul hear it, he will kill me. And Jehovah said, [h] Take a heifer with thee, and say, I am come to sacrifice to Jehovah. 3 And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and [i] I will show thee what thou shalt do: and [k] thou shalt anoint unto me him whom I name unto thee. 4 And Samuel did that which Jehovah spake, and came to [l] Beth-lehem. And the elders of the city came to meet him trembling, and said, [m] Comest thou peaceably? 5 And he said, Peaceably; I am come to sacrifice unto Jehovah: [n] sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

6 And it came to pass, when they were come, that he looked on [2] [o] Eliab, and said, Surely Jehovah's anointed is before him. 7 But Jehovah said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have rejected him: for Jehovah seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, [p] but Jehovah looketh on the heart. 8 Then Jesse called [q] Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, Neither hath Jehovah chosen this. 9 Then Jesse made [3] [r] Shammah to pass by. And he said, Neither hath Jehovah chosen this. 10 And Jesse made seven of his sons to pass before Samuel. And Samuel said unto Jesse, Jehovah hath not chosen these. 11 And Samuel said unto Jesse, Are here all thy children? And he said, [s] There remaineth yet the youngest, and, behold, he is keeping the sheep. And Samuel said unto Jesse, Send and fetch him; for we will not sit [4] down till he come hither. 12 And he sent, and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, and withal [5] [t] of a beautiful countenance, and goodly to look upon. And Jehovah said, [u] Arise, anoint him; for this is he. 13 Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and [v] anointed him in the midst of his brethren: and [x] the Spirit of Jehovah came mightily upon David from that day forward. So Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.

14 [y] Now the Spirit of Jehovah departed from Saul, and [z] an evil spirit from Jehovah [6] troubled him. 15 And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth thee. 16 Let our lord now command thy servants, that are before thee, to seek out a man who is a skilful player on the harp: and it shall come to pass, when the evil spirit from God is upon thee, that [a] he shall play with his hand, and thou shalt be well. 17 And Saul said unto his servants, Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring him to me. 18 Then answered one of the young men, and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Beth-lehemite, that is skilful in playing, and [b] a mighty man of valor, and a man of war, and [7] prudent in [8] speech, and a comely person; and [c] Jehovah is with him. 19 Wherefore Saul sent messengers unto Jesse, and said, Send me David thy son, who is with the sheep. 20 And Jesse [d] took an ass laden with bread, and a [9] bottle of wine, and a kid, and sent them by David his son unto Saul. 21 And David came to Saul, and [e] stood before him: and he loved him greatly; and he became his armorbearer. 22 And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Let David, I pray thee, stand before me; for he hath found favor in my sight. 23 And it came to pass, when [f] the evil spirit from God was upon Saul, that David took the harp, and played with his hand: so Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him.

17 Now [g] the Philistines gathered together their armies to battle; and they were gathered together at Socoh, which belongeth to Judah, and encamped between [h] Socoh and [i] Azekah, in [k] Ephes-dammim. 2 And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and encamped in [a] the vale of [1] Elah, and set the battle in array against the Philistines. 3 And the Philistines stood on the mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on the mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them. 4 And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named [b] Goliath, of [c] Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span. 5 And he had a helmet of brass upon his head, and he was clad with a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of brass. 6 And he had greaves of brass upon his legs, and a [d] javelin of brass between his shoulders. 7 And [e] the [2] staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron: and [f] his shield-bearer went before him. 8 And he stood and cried unto the [3] armies of Israel, and said unto them, Why are ye come out to set your battle in array? am not I a Philistine, and ye [g] servants to Saul? choose you a man for you, and let him come down to me. 9 [h] If he be able to fight with me, and kill me, then will we be your servants; but if I prevail against him, and kill him, then shall ye be our servants, and serve us. 10 And the Philistine said, [i] I [4] defy the armies of Israel this day; give me a man, that we may fight together. 11 And when Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid.

12 Now David was [k] the son of that [l] Ephrathite of Beth-lehem-judah, whose name was Jesse; and [m] he had eight sons: and the man was an old man in the days of Saul, stricken in years among men. 13 And the three eldest sons of Jesse had gone after Saul to the battle: and [n] the names of his three sons that went to the battle were Eliab the first-born, and next unto him Abinadab, and the third Shammah. 14 And [o] David was the youngest; and the three eldest followed Saul. 15 [p] Now David went to and fro from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Beth-lehem. 16 And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days.

17 And Jesse said unto David his son, [q] Take now for thy brethren an ephah of this parched grain, and these ten loaves, and carry them quickly to the camp to thy brethren; 18 and [r] bring these ten cheeses unto the captain of their thousand, [s] and look how thy brethren fare, and take their pledge. 19 Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, [5] were in the vale of Elah, fighting with the Philistines. 20 And David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the [6] [t] place of the wagons, as the host which was going forth to the [7] fight shouted for the battle. 21 And Israel and the Philistines put the battle in array, army against army. 22 And David left his [u] baggage in the hand of the keeper of the baggage, and ran to the army, and came and saluted his brethren. 23 And as he talked with them, behold, there came up the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, out of the ranks of the Philistines, and spake [v] according to the same words: and David heard them. 24 And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him, and were sore afraid. 25 And the men of Israel said, Have ye seen this man that is come up? surely to [4] defy Israel is he come up: and it shall be, that the man who killeth him, the king will enrich him with great riches, and [x] will give him his daughter, [y] and make his father's house free in Israel. 26 And David spake to the men that stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away [z] the reproach from Israel? for who is this [a] uncircumcised Philistine, that he should [4] [b] defy the armies of [c] the living God? 27 And the people answered him after this manner, saying, [d] So shall it be done to the man that killeth him.

28 And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spake unto the men; and [e] Eliab's anger was kindled against David, and he said, Why art thou come down? and with whom hast thou left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know thy pride, and the naughtiness of thy heart; for thou art come down that thou mightest see the battle. 29 And David said, What have I now done? [1] [a] Is there not a cause? 30 And he turned away from him toward another, and [b] spake after the same manner: and the people answered him again after the former manner.

31 And when the words were heard which David spake, they rehearsed them before Saul; and he sent for him. 32 And David said to Saul, [c] Let no man's heart fail [2] because of him; [d] thy servant will go and fight with this Philistine. 33 And Saul said to David, Thou art not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for thou art but a youth, and he a man of war from his youth. 34 And David said unto Saul, Thy servant was keeping his father's sheep; [3] and when there came a lion, or a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock, 35 I went out after him, and smote him, and [e] delivered it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him, and slew him. 36 Thy servant smote both the lion and the bear: and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he hath [4] defied the armies of the living God. 37 And David said, [f] Jehovah that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said unto David, [g] Go, and Jehovah shall be with thee. 38 And Saul clad David with his apparel, and he put a helmet of brass upon his head, and he clad him with a coat of mail. 39 And David girded his sword upon his apparel, and he assayed to go; for he had not proved it. And David said unto Saul, I cannot go with these; for I have not proved them. And David put them off him. 40 And he took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the [5] brook, and put them in the shepherd's bag which he had, even in his wallet; and [h] his sling was in his hand: and he drew near to the Philistine.

41 And the Philistine came on and drew near unto David; and the man that bare the shield went before him. 42 And when the Philistine looked about, and saw David, [i] he disdained him; for he was but a youth, and [k] ruddy, and withal of a fair countenance. 43 And the Philistine said unto David, [l] Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with staves? And [m] the Philistine cursed David by his gods. 44 And the Philistine said to David, Come to me, and I will give thy flesh [n] unto the birds of the heavens, and to the beasts of the field. 45 Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a javelin: [o] but I come to thee in the name of Jehovah of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast [4] defied. 46 This day will Jehovah deliver thee into my hand; and I will smite thee, and take thy head from off thee; and I will give the dead bodies of the host of the Philistines this day unto the birds of the heavens, and to the wild beasts of the earth; [p] that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel, 47 and that all this assembly may know that [q] Jehovah saveth not with sword and spear: for the battle is Jehovah's, and he will give you into our hand. 48 And it came to pass, when the Philistine arose, and came and drew nigh to meet David, that [r] David hastened, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine. 49 And David put his hand in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead; and the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell upon his face to the earth.

50 So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand of David. 51 Then David ran, and stood over the Philistine, and [s] took his sword, and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith. And [t] when the Philistines saw that their [6] champion was dead, they fled. 52 And the men of Israel and of Judah arose, and shouted, and pursued the Philistines, until thou comest to [1]Gai, and to the gates of [a]Ekron. And the wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to [2][b]Shaaraim, even unto Gath, and unto Ekron. 53 And the children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they plundered their camp. 54 And David took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Jerusalem; but he put his armor in his tent.

55 And when Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said unto Abner, the captain of the host, Abner, whose son is [c]this youth? And Abner said, As thy soul liveth, O king, I cannot tell. 56 And the king said, Inquire thou whose son the stripling is. 57 And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him, and [d]brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand. 58 And Saul said to him, Whose son art thou, thou young man? And David answered, [e]I am the son of thy servant Jesse the Bethlehemite.

18 And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking unto Saul, that [f]the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and [g]Jonathan loved him as his own soul. 2 And Saul took him that day, and [h]would let him go no more home to his father's house. 3 Then [i]Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul. 4 And [k]Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his apparel, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle. 5 And David [3]went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and [4]behaved himself wisely: and Saul set him over the men of war, and it was good in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

6 And it came to pass as they came, when David returned from the slaughter of the [5]Philistine, that [l]the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with timbrels, with joy, and with [6]instruments of music. 7 And the women [7][m]sang one to another as they played, and said,

[n]Saul hath slain his thousands,
[o]And David his ten thousands.

8 And Saul was very wroth, and this saying displeased him; and he said, They have ascribed unto David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands: and [p]what can he have more but the kingdom? 9 And Saul eyed David from that day and forward.

10 And it came to pass on the morrow, that [q]an evil spirit from God came mightily upon Saul, and [r]he [8]prophesied in the midst of the house: and David played with his hand, [s]as he did day by day. And [t]Saul had his spear in his hand; 11 and [u]Saul cast the spear; for he said, I will smite David even to the wall. And David avoided out of his presence twice. 12 And [v]Saul was afraid of David, [x]because Jehovah was with him, and [y]was departed from Saul. 13 Therefore Saul removed him from him, and made him his captain over a thousand; and [z]he went out and came in before the people. 14 And David [4]behaved himself wisely in all his ways; and [a]Jehovah was with him. 15 And when Saul saw that he behaved himself very wisely, he stood in awe of him. 16 But [b]all Israel and Judah loved David; for he went out and came in before them.

17 And Saul said to David, [c]Behold, my elder daughter Merab, her will I give thee to wife: only be thou valiant for me, and fight [d]Jehovah's battles. For Saul said, Let not my hand be upon him, but [e]let the hand of the Philistines be upon him. 18 And David said unto Saul, [f]Who am I, and [9]what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king? 19 But it came to pass at the time when Merab, Saul's daughter, should have been given to David, that she was given unto [g]Adriel [h]the Meholathite to wife. 20 And [i]Michal, Saul's daughter, loved David: and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him. 21 And Saul said, I will give him her, that she may be a snare to him, and [a] that the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul said to David, [b] Thou shalt this day be my son-in-law a second time.

22 And Saul commanded his servants, saying, Commune with David secretly, and say, Behold, the king hath delight in thee, and all his servants love thee: now therefore be the king's son-in-law. 23 And Saul's servants spake those words in the ears of David. And David said, Seemeth it to you a light thing to be the king's son-in-law, [c] seeing that I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed? 24 And the servants of Saul told him, saying, On this manner spake David. 25 And Saul said, Thus shall ye say to David, The king desireth not any [d] dowry, but a hundred foreskins of the Philistines, [e] to be avenged of the king's enemies. Now [f] Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines. 26 And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son-in-law. And [g] the days were not expired; 27 and David arose and went, [h] he and his men, and slew of the Philistines two hundred men; and [i] David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full number to the king, that he might be the king's son-in-law. And Saul gave him Michal his daughter to wife. 28 And Saul saw and knew that Jehovah was with David; and Michal, Saul's daughter, loved him. 29 And Saul was yet the more afraid of David; and Saul was David's enemy continually.

30 Then the princes of the Philistines went forth: and it came to pass, as often as they went forth, that David [1] [k] behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul; so that his name was much [2] set by.

19 And Saul spake to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, [l] that they should slay David. But [m] Jonathan, Saul's son, delighted much in David. 2 And Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father seeketh to slay thee: now therefore, I pray thee, take heed to thyself in the morning, and abide in a secret place, and hide thyself: 3 and I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where thou art, and I will commune with my father of thee; [n] and if I see aught, I will tell thee. 4 And Jonathan [o] spake good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, [p] Let not the king sin against his servant, against David; because he hath not sinned against thee, and because his works have been to thee-ward very good: 5 for [q] he put his life in his hand, and smote the Philistine, and [r] Jehovah wrought a great [3] victory for all Israel: thou sawest it, and didst rejoice; [s] wherefore then wilt thou sin against innocent blood, to slay David without a cause? 6 And Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan: and Saul sware, As Jehovah liveth, he shall not be put to death. 7 And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan showed him all those things. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, as [t] beforetime.

8 And there was war again: and David went out, and fought with the Philistines, and slew them with a great slaughter; and they fled before him. 9 And [4] [u] an evil spirit from Jehovah was upon Saul, as he sat in his house [v] with his spear in his hand; [w] and David was playing with his hand. 10 [x] And Saul sought to smite David even to the wall with the spear; but he slipped away out of Saul's presence, and he smote the spear into the wall: and David fled, and escaped that night. 11 And [y] Saul sent messengers unto David's house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal, David's wife, told him, saying, If thou save not thy life tonight, to-morrow thou wilt be slain. 12 [z] So Michal let David down through the window: and he went, and fled, and escaped. 13 And Michal took [a] the teraphim, and laid it in the bed, and put a [5] pillow of goats' hair at the head thereof, and covered it with the clothes. 14 And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, [b] He is sick. 15 And Saul sent the messengers to see David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may slay him. 16 And when the messengers came in, behold, the teraphim was in the bed, with the [5] pillow of goats' hair at the head thereof. 17 And Saul said unto Michal, Why hast thou deceived me thus, and let mine enemy go, so that he is escaped? And Michal answered Saul, He said unto me, Let me go; why should I kill thee?

18 Now David fled, and escaped, and came [a] to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and dwelt in [b] Naioth. 19 And it was told Saul, saying, Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah. 20 And [c] Saul sent messengers to take David: and when they saw [d] the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as head over them, the Spirit of God came upon the messengers of Saul, and [e] they also prophesied. 21 And when it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. And Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they also prophesied. 22 Then went he also to Ramah, and came to the great [1] well that is in Secu: and he asked and said, Where are Samuel and David? And one said, Behold, they are at Naioth in Ramah. 23 And he went thither to Naioth in Ramah: and [f] the Spirit of God came upon him also, and he went on, and prophesied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah. 24 And he also stripped off his clothes, and he also prophesied before Samuel, and [2] lay down [g] naked all that day and all that night. Wherefore they say, [h] Is Saul also among the prophets?

20 And David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and [i] said before Jonathan, What have I done? what is mine iniquity? and what is my sin before thy father, that he seeketh my life? 2 And he said unto him, Far from it; thou shalt not die: behold, my father doeth nothing either great or small, but that he [3] discloseth it unto me; and why should my father hide this thing from me? it is not so. 3 And David [k] sware moreover, and said, Thy father knoweth well that I have found favor in thine eyes; and he saith, Let not Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved: but truly [l] as Jehovah liveth, and as thy soul liveth, there is but a step between me and death. 4 Then said Jonathan unto David, [4] Whatsoever thy soul [5] desireth, I will even do it for thee. 5 And David said unto Jonathan, Behold, tomorrow is [m] the new moon, and I should not fail [n] to sit with the king at meat: but let me go, [o] that I may hide myself in the field unto the third day at even. 6 If thy father miss me at all, then say, David earnestly asked leave of me that he might run to [p] Beth-lehem his city; for it is [q] the yearly sacrifice there for all the family. 7 If he say thus, It is well; thy servant shall have peace: but if he be wroth, then know that evil is determined by him. 8 Therefore deal kindly with thy servant; for [r] thou hast brought thy servant into a covenant of Jehovah with thee: but [s] if there be in me iniquity, slay me thyself; for why shouldest thou bring me to thy father? 9 And Jonathan said, Far be it from thee; for if I should at all know that evil were determined by my father to come upon thee, then would not I tell it thee? 10 Then said David to Jonathan, Who shall tell me if perchance thy father answer thee roughly? 11 And Jonathan said unto David, Come, and let us go out into the field. And they went out both of them into the field.

12 And Jonathan said unto David, Jehovah, the God of Israel, be witness: when I have sounded my father about this time to-morrow, or the third day, behold, if there be good toward David, shall I not then send unto thee, and disclose it unto thee? 13 [t] Jehovah do so to Jonathan, and more also, should it please my father to do thee evil, if I disclose it not unto thee, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: and [u] Jehovah be with thee, as he hath been with my father. 14 And thou shalt not only while yet I live show me the lovingkindness of Jehovah, that I die not; 15 but [v] also thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from my house for ever; no, not when Jehovah hath cut off the enemies of David every one from the face of the earth. 16 So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, [x] And Jehovah will require it at the hand of David's enemies.

17 And Jonathan caused David to swear again, [6] for the love that he had to him; for [y] he loved him as he loved his own soul. 18 Then
