the priests, looked upon him, and, behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out quickly from thence; yea, himself hasted also to go out, because Jehovah had smitten him. 21 [a] And Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in [b] a [1] separate house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of Jehovah: and Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land. 22 Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, did [c] Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, write. 23 So Uzziah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers [d] in the field of burial which belonged to the kings; for they said, He is a leper: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

27 [e] Jotham was twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jerushah the daughter of Zadok. 2 And he did that which was right in the eyes of Jehovah, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: [f] howbeit he entered not into the temple of Jehovah. And the people did yet corruptly. 3 He built the upper gate of the house of Jehovah, and on the wall of [g] Ophel he built much. 4 Moreover he built [h] cities in the hill-country of Judah, and in the forests he built castles and towers. 5 He fought also with the king of the children of Ammon, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year a hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand [2] measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. So much did the children of Ammon render unto him, in the second year also, and in the third. 6 [i] So Jotham became mighty, because he ordered his ways before Jehovah his God. 7 [k] Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. 8 He was [l] five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. 9 And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

28 [m] Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and [n] he did not that which was right in the eyes of Jehovah, like David his father; 2 [o] but he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and [p] made also molten images for the Baalim. 3 Moreover [q] he burnt incense in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and [r] burnt his children in the fire, [s] according to the abominations of the nations whom Jehovah cast out before the children of Israel. 4 And he sacrificed and [t] burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

5 Wherefore [u] Jehovah his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria; and they smote him, and carried away of his a great multitude of captives, and brought them to Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him with a great slaughter. 6 For [v] Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah a hundred and twenty thousand in one day, all of them valiant men; because they had forsaken Jehovah, the God of their fathers. 7 And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the ruler of the house, and Elkanah that was [3] next to the king.

8 And [x] the children of Israel carried away captive of [y] their brethren two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria. 9 But a prophet of Jehovah was there, whose name was Oded: and [z] he went out to meet the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, because Jehovah, the God of your fathers, [a] was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage [b] which hath reached up unto heaven. 10 And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for bondmen and bondwomen unto you: but are there not even with you [4] trespasses of your own against Jehovah your God? 11 Now hear me therefore, and send back the captives, [c] that ye have taken captive of your brethren; for the fierce wrath of Jehovah is upon you. 12 Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war, 13 and said unto them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither: for ye purpose that which will bring upon us [1]a trespass against Jehovah, to add unto our sins and to our [1]trespass; for our [1]trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel. 14 So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the assembly. 15 And [a]the men that have been mentioned by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and [b]gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, [c]the city of palm-trees, unto their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.

16 [d]At that time did king Ahaz send unto the [2]kings of Assyria to help him. 17 [e]For again the Edomites had come and smitten Judah, and carried away [3]captives. 18 [f]The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the lowland, and of the South of Judah, and had taken Beth-shemesh, and Aijalon, and Gederoth, and Soco with the [4]towns thereof, and Timnah with the [4]towns thereof, Gimzo also and the [4]towns thereof: and they dwelt there. 19 For Jehovah brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of [g]Israel; for he had [6]dealt wantonly in Judah, and trespassed sore against Jehovah. 20 And [h]Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria came [6]unto him, and distressed him, but [7]strengthened him not. 21 [i]For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of Jehovah, and out of the house of the king and of the princes, and gave it unto the king of Assyria: but it helped him not.

22 And in the time [8]of his distress did he trespass yet more against Jehovah, this same king Ahaz. 23 [k]For he sacrificed unto the gods of [9]Damascus, which smote him; and he said, [l]Because the gods of the kings of Syria helped them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, that they may help me. But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel. 24 And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and [m]cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and [n]shut up the doors of the house of Jehovah; and [o]he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem. 25 And in every city of Judah he made high places to burn incense unto other gods, and provoked to anger Jehovah, the God of his fathers. 26 [p]Now the rest of his acts, and all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. 27 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem; [q]for they brought him not into the sepulchres of the kings of [r]Israel: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

29 [s]Hezekiah began to reign when he was five and twenty years old; and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah. 2 And [t]he did that which was right in the eyes of Jehovah, according to all that David his father had done. 3 He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, [u]opened the doors of the house of Jehovah, and repaired them. 4 And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the broad place on the east, 5 and said unto them, Hear me, ye Levites; now [v]sanctify yourselves, and sanctify the house of Jehovah, the God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy place. 6 For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah our God, and have forsaken him, and [x]have turned away their faces from the habitation of Jehovah, and turned their backs. 7 Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt-offerings in the holy place unto the God of Israel. 8 Wherefore [a] the wrath of Jehovah was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and [b] he hath delivered them [c] to be [1] tossed to and fro, to be [d] an astonishment, and a hissing, as ye see with your eyes. 9 For, lo, [e] our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this. 10 Now it is in my heart [f] to make a covenant with Jehovah, the God of Israel, that his fierce anger may turn away from us. 11 My sons, be not now negligent; [g] for Jehovah hath chosen you to stand before him, to minister unto him, and that ye should be his ministers, and burn incense.

12 Then the Levites arose, [h] Mahath, the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of [i] the Kohathites; and of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehallelel; and of the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah; 13 and of the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeuel; and of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah; 14 and of the sons of Heman, Jehuel and Shimei; and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel. 15 And they gathered their brethren, and [k] sanctified themselves, and went in, according to the commandment of the king [l] by the words of Jehovah, [m] to cleanse the house of Jehovah. 16 And the priests went in unto the inner part of the house of Jehovah, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of Jehovah into the court of the house of Jehovah. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad to [n] the brook Kidron. 17 Now they began [o] on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of Jehovah; and they sanctified the house of Jehovah in eight days: and on the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end. 18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king within the palace, and said, We have cleansed all the house of Jehovah, and the altar of burnt-offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the table of showbread, with all the vessels thereof. 19 Moreover [p] all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did cast away when he trespassed, have we prepared and sanctified; and, behold, they are before the altar of Jehovah.

20 Then Hezekiah the king arose early, and gathered the princes of the city, and went up to the house of Jehovah. 21 And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he-goats, [q] for a sin-offering for the kingdom and for the sanctuary and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of Jehovah. 22 So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and [r] sprinkled it on the altar: and they killed the rams, and sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and sprinkled the blood upon the altar. 23 And they brought near the he-goats for the sin-offering before the king and the assembly; and [s] they laid their hands upon them: 24 and the priests killed them, and they made a sin-offering with their blood upon the altar, [t] to make atonement for all Israel; for the king commanded that the burnt-offering and the sin-offering should be made for all Israel.

25 And [u] he set the Levites in the house of Jehovah with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, [v] according to the commandment of David, and of [x] Gad the king's seer, and [y] Nathan the prophet; for the commandment was of Jehovah by his prophets. 26 And the Levites stood with [z] the instruments of David, and [a] the priests with the trumpets. 27 And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt-offering upon the altar. And when the burnt-offering began, [b] the song of Jehovah began also, and the trumpets, together with the instruments of David king of Israel. 28 And all the assembly worshipped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded; all this continued until the burnt-offering was finished.

29 And when they had made an end of offering, [c] the king and all that were present with him bowed themselves and worshipped. 30 Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praises unto Jehovah with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, [a]Now ye have [1]consecrated yourselves unto Jehovah; come near and bring sacrifices and thank-offerings into the house of Jehovah. And the assembly brought in sacrifices and thank-offerings; and [b]as many as were of a willing heart brought burnt-offerings. 32 And the number of the burnt-offerings which the assembly brought was threescore and ten bullocks, a hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt-offering to Jehovah. 33 And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep. 34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt-offerings: [c]wherefore their brethren the Levites did help them, till the work was ended, and until the priests had sanctified themselves; for [d]the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests. 35 And also [e]the burnt-offerings were in abundance, with [f]the fat of the peace-offerings, and with [g]the drink-offerings for every burnt-offering. So the service of the house of Jehovah was set in order. 36 And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, because of that which God had prepared for the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

30 And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of Jehovah at Jerusalem, to keep the passover unto Jehovah, the God of Israel. 2 For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the assembly in Jerusalem, [h]to keep the passover in the second month. 3 For they could not keep it [i]at that time, because the priests had not sanctified themselves in sufficient number, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem. 4 And the thing was right in the eyes of the king and of all the assembly. 5 So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, [k]from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto Jehovah, the God of Israel, at Jerusalem: for they had not kept it [2]in great numbers in such sort as it is written. 6 So [l]the posts went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, turn again unto Jehovah, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, that he may return to the remnant that are escaped of you out of [m]the hand of the kings of Assyria. 7 [n]And be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, who trespassed against Jehovah, the God of their fathers, so that [o]he gave them up [3]to desolation, as ye see. 8 Now be ye not [p]stiffnecked, as your fathers were; but [4]yield yourselves unto Jehovah, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever, and serve Jehovah your God, [q]that his fierce anger may turn away from you. 9 For [r]if ye turn again unto Jehovah, your brethren and your children shall find compassion before them that led them captive, and shall come again into this land: [s]for Jehovah your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return unto him.

10 So the posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, even unto Zebulun: but [t]they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them. 11 Nevertheless [u]certain men of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem. 12 Also upon Judah came the hand of God to give them one heart, to do the commandment of the king and of the princes by the word of Jehovah.

13 And there assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread [v]in the second month, a very great assembly. 14 And they arose and [w]took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the [5]altars for incense took they away, and [x]cast them into the brook Kidron. 15 Then [y]they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the second month: and [z]the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought burnt-offerings into the house of Jehovah. 16 And

[a] they stood in their place after their order, according to the law of Moses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood which they received of the hand of the Levites. 17 For there were many in the assembly that had not sanctified themselves: therefore [b] the Levites had the charge of killing the passovers for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them unto Jehovah. 18 For a multitude of the people, [c] even many of Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, [d] yet did they eat the passover [e] otherwise than it is written. For Hezekiah had prayed for them, saying, The good Jehovah pardon [1] every one 19 that setteth his heart to seek God, Jehovah, the God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary. 20 And Jehovah hearkened to Hezekiah, and healed the people. 21 And the children of Israel that were present at Jerusalem [g] kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness; and the Levites and the priests praised Jehovah day by day, singing with loud instruments unto Jehovah. 22 And Hezekiah [h] spake comfortably unto all the Levites that had good understanding in the service of Jehovah. So they did eat throughout the feast for the seven days, offering sacrifices of peace-offerings, and [2] making confession to Jehovah, the God of their fathers.

23 And the whole assembly [k] took counsel to keep other seven days; and they kept other seven days with gladness. 24 For [l] Hezekiah king of Judah did give to the assembly for offerings a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep; and the princes gave to the assembly a thousand bullocks and ten thousand sheep: and [m] a great number of priests sanctified themselves. 25 And all the assembly of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and [n] all the assembly that came out of Israel, and the sojourners that came out of the land of Israel, and that dwelt in Judah, rejoiced. 26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem; for [o] since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem.

27 Then [p] the priests the Levites arose and [q] blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to [r] his holy habitation, even unto heaven.

31 Now when all this was finished, all Israel that were present went out to the cities of Judah, and [s] brake in pieces the [3] pillars, and hewed down the Asherim, and brake down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities.

2 And Hezekiah appointed [t] the courses of the priests and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, both the priests and the Levites, [u] for burnt-offerings and for peace-offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the camp of Jehovah. 3 He appointed also [v] the king's portion of his substance for the burnt-offerings, to wit, for the morning and evening burnt-offerings, and the burnt-offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, [x] as it is written in the law of Jehovah. 4 Moreover he commanded the people that dwelt in Jerusalem to give [y] the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might [4] give themselves to the law of Jehovah. 5 And as soon as the commandment came abroad, the children of Israel gave in abundance the first-fruits of grain, new wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field; and [z] the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly. 6 And the children of Israel and Judah, that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and [a] the tithe of dedicated things which were consecrated unto Jehovah their God, and laid them by heaps. 7 In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month. 8 And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed Jehovah, and his people Israel. 9 Then Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps. 10 And Azariah the chief priest, [a] of the house of Zadok, answered him and said, [b] Since the people began to bring the oblations into the house of Jehovah, we have eaten and had enough, and have left plenty: for Jehovah hath blessed his people; and that which is left is this great store.

11 Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare [c] chambers in the house of Jehovah; and they prepared them; 12 and they brought in the oblations and the tithes and the dedicated things faithfully. And [d] over them Conaniah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his brother was second; 13 and Jehiel, and Azaziah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers under the hand of Conaniah and Shimei his brother, by the appointment of Hezekiah the king, and [e] Azariah the ruler of the house of God. 14 And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the porter at the east gate, was over the freewill-offerings of God, to distribute the oblations of Jehovah, and the most holy things. 15 And under him were [f] Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in [g] the cities of the priests, in their [h] office of trust, to give to their brethren by courses, as well to the great as to the small: 16 besides them that were reckoned by genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even every one that entered into the house of Jehovah, [1] [i] as the duty of every day required, for their service in their offices according to their courses; 17 and them that were reckoned by genealogy of the priests by their fathers' houses, and the Levites [k] from twenty years old and upward, in their offices by their courses; 18 [2] and them that were reckoned by genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation: for in their office of trust they sanctified themselves in holiness. 19 Also for the sons of Aaron the priests, that were in [l] the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every city, [m] there were men that were mentioned by name, to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all that were reckoned by genealogy among the Levites.

20 And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah; and [n] he wrought that which was good and right and [3] faithful before Jehovah his God. 21 And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

32 [o] After these things, and this faithfulness, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fortified cities, and thought [4] to win them for himself. 2 And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that [5] he was purposed to fight against Jerusalem, 3 he took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the fountains which were without the city; and they helped him. 4 So there was gathered much people together, and [p] they stopped all the fountains, and [q] the brook that flowed through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come, and find much water? 5 And he took courage, and [r] built up all the wall that was broken down, and [6] raised it up to the towers, and [7] [s] the other wall without, and strengthened [t] Millo in the city of David, and made weapons and shields in abundance. 6 And he set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the broad place at the gate of the city, and [u] spake comfortably to them, saying, 7 [v] Be strong and of good courage, be not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him; [x] for [8] there is a greater with us than with him: 8 with him is [y] an arm of flesh; but [z] with us is Jehovah our God to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

9 After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem (now he was before Lachish, and all his power with him), unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah that were at Jerusalem, saying, 10 Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, Whereon do ye trust, that ye abide [1] the siege in Jerusalem? 11 Doth not Hezekiah persuade you, to give you over to die by famine and by thirst, saying, Jehovah our God will deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria? 12 [a] Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and upon it shall ye burn incense? 13 Know ye not what I and my fathers have done unto all the peoples of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of the lands in any wise able to deliver their land out of my hand? 14 [b] Who was there among all the gods of those nations which my fathers [2] utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of my hand? 15 Now therefore let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you after this manner, neither believe ye him; for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of my hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your [3] God deliver you out of my hand?

16 And his servants spake yet more against Jehovah God, and against his servant Hezekiah. 17 He wrote also [4] letters, to rail on Jehovah, the God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, [c] As the gods of the nations of the lands, which have not delivered their people out of my hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of my hand. 18 And they cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language unto the people of Jerusalem that were on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city. 19 And they spake of the God of Jerusalem, as of the gods of the peoples of the earth, which are the work of men's hands.

20 And Hezekiah the king, and Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, prayed because of this, and cried to heaven. 21 And Jehovah sent an angel, who cut off all the mighty men of valor, and the leaders and captains, in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth from his own bowels [5] slew him there with the sword. 22 Thus Jehovah saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all others, and guided them on every side. 23 And [d] many brought gifts unto Jehovah to Jerusalem, and precious things to Hezekiah king of Judah; so that he was exalted in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.

24 [e] In those days Hezekiah was sick even unto death: and he prayed unto Jehovah; and he spake unto him, and gave him a [6] sign. 25 But Hezekiah rendered not again according to the benefit done unto him; [f] for his heart was lifted up: [g] therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem. 26 Notwithstanding [h] Hezekiah humbled himself for [7] the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of Jehovah came not upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

27 And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honor: and he provided him treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of goodly vessels; 28 store-houses also for the increase of grain and new wine and oil; and stalls for all manner of beasts, and flocks in folds. 29 Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance; for God had given him very much substance. 30 This same Hezekiah also [i] stopped the upper spring of the waters of [k] Gihon, and brought them straight down on the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works. 31 Howbeit in the business of [l] the [8] ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent unto him to inquire of [m] the wonder that was done in the land, God left him, [n] to 32 Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his good deeds, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. 33 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the ascent of the sepulchres of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honor at his death. And Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

33 [a]Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem. 2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah, [b]after the abominations of the nations whom Jehovah cast out before the children of Israel. 3 For [c]he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down; [d]and he reared up altars for the Baalim, and made Asheroth, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them. 4 And [e]he built altars in the house of Jehovah, whereof Jehovah said, [f]In Jerusalem shall my name be for ever. 5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in [g]the two courts of the house of Jehovah. 6 [h]He also made his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom; and he practised augury, and used enchantments, and practised sorcery, and [i]dealt with them that had familiar spirits, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of Jehovah, to provoke him to anger. 7 And he set [k]the graven image of the idol, which he had made, in the house of God, of which God said to David and to Solomon his son, [l]In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever: 8 neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from off the land [m]which I have appointed for your fathers, if only they will observe to do all that I have commanded them, even all the law and the statutes and the ordinances given by Moses. 9 And Manasseh seduced Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that they did evil more than did the nations whom Jehovah destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And Jehovah spake to Manasseh, and to his people: but they gave no heed. 11 [n]Wherefore Jehovah brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh [1]in chains, and [o]bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon. 12 And when he was in distress, he besought Jehovah his God, and [p]humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers. 13 And he prayed unto him; and [q]he was entreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh [r]knew that Jehovah he was God.

14 Now after this he built an outer wall to the city of David, on the west side of [s]Gihon, in the valley, even to the entrance at [t]the fish gate; and he compassed [u]Ophel about with it, and raised it up to a very great height: and he put [2]valiant captains in all the fortified cities of Judah. 15 And [v]he took away the foreign gods, and the idol out of the house of Jehovah, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of Jehovah, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city. 16 And he [3]built up the altar of Jehovah, and offered thereon sacrifices of peace-offerings and of thanksgiving, and commanded Judah to serve Jehovah, the God of Israel. 17 Nevertheless [x]the people sacrificed still in the high places, but only unto Jehovah their God.

18 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and [y]his prayer unto his God, and the words of [z]the seers that spake to him in the name of Jehovah, the God of Israel, behold, they are written among the acts of the kings of [a]Israel. 19 His prayer also, and [b]how God was entreated of him, and all his sin and his trespass, and [c]the places wherein he built high places, and set up the Asherim and the graven images, before he humbled himself, behold, they are written in the history of [4]Hozai. 20 So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

21 [a]Amon was twenty and two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. 22 And he did that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah, [b]as did Manasseh his father; and Amon sacrificed unto all [c]the graven images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them. 23 And he humbled not himself before Jehovah, [d]as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but this same Amon [1]trespassed more and more. 24 And [e]his servants conspired against him, and put him to death in his own house. 25 But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

34 [f]Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned thirty and one years in Jerusalem. 2 And [g]he did that which was right in the eyes of Jehovah, and walked in the ways of David his father, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left. 3 For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father; and in the twelfth year he began [h]to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the Asherim, and the graven images, and the molten images. 4 And they brake down the altars of the Baalim in his presence; and [i]the sun-images that were on high above them he hewed down; and the Asherim, and the graven images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces, and [k]made dust of them, and strewed it upon the graves of them that had sacrificed unto them. 5 And [l]he burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and purged Judah and Jerusalem. 6 And so did he [m]in the cities of Manasseh and Ephraim and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, [2]in their ruins round about. 7 And he brake down the altars, and [n]beat the Asherim and the graven images into powder, and hewed down all the sun-images throughout all the land of Israel, and returned to Jerusalem.

8 [o]Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah [p]the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the [3]recorder, to repair the house of Jehovah his God. 9 And they came to [q]Hilkiah the high priest, and delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites, the keepers of the threshold, had gathered of the hand of [r]Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin, [4]and of the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 10 And they delivered it into the hand of the workmen that had the oversight of the house of Jehovah; and [5]the workmen that wrought in the house of Jehovah gave it to mend and repair the house: 11 even to the carpenters and to the builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for couplings, and to make beams for the houses [s]which the kings of Judah had destroyed. 12 And the men did the work faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, [6]to set it forward; and [t]others of the Levites, all that were skilful with instruments of music. 13 Also they were over [u]the bearers of burdens, and set forward all that did the work in every manner of service: and of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and porters.

14 And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of Jehovah, [v]Hilkiah the priest found the book of the law of Jehovah [7]given by Moses. 15 And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of Jehovah. And Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan. 16 And Shaphan carried the book to the king, and moreover brought back word to the king, saying, All that was committed to thy servants, they are doing. 17 And they have [8]emptied out the money that was found in the house of Jehovah, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and into the hand of the workmen. 18 And Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath delivered me a book. And Shaphan read therein before the king. 19 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the law, that [a] he rent his clothes. 20 And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and [1]Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying, 21 Go ye, inquire of Jehovah for me, and for them that are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found; for [b] great is the wrath of Jehovah that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of Jehovah, to do according unto all that is written in this book.

22 So Hilkiah, and they whom the king had commanded, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of [2]Tokhath, the son of [3]Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the [4]second quarter); and they spake to her to that effect. 23 And she said unto them, Thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel: Tell ye the man that sent you unto me, 24 Thus saith Jehovah, Behold, [c] I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all [d] the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah. 25 [e] Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore is my wrath poured out upon this place, and it shall not be quenched. 26 But unto the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of Jehovah, thus shall ye say to him, Thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel: As touching the words which thou hast heard, 27 [f] because thy heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and hast humbled thyself before me, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard thee, saith Jehovah. 28 Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof. And they brought back word to the king.

29 [g] Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. 30 And the king went up to the house of Jehovah, and [h] all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, both great and small: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of Jehovah. 31 And the king [i] stood in his place, and [k] made a covenant before Jehovah, to walk after Jehovah, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book. 32 And he caused all that were found in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. 33 And Josiah [l] took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Israel, and made all that were found in Israel to serve, even to serve Jehovah their God. All his days they departed not from following Jehovah, the God of their fathers.

35 And Josiah [m] kept a passover unto Jehovah in Jerusalem: and [n] they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month. 2 And he set the priests in their offices, and [o] encouraged them to the service of the house of Jehovah. 3 And he said unto [p] the Levites that taught all Israel, that were holy unto Jehovah, Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel did build; [q] there shall no more be a burden upon your shoulders. courses, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and [a] according to the writing of Solomon his son. 5 And [b] stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of your brethren the children of the people, [1] and let there be for each a portion of a father's house of the Levites. 6 And [c] kill the passover, and [d] sanctify yourselves, and prepare for your brethren, to do according to the word of Jehovah by Moses.

7 And Josiah [2] gave to the children of the people, of the flock, lambs and kids, all of them for the passover-offerings, unto all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the king's substance. 8 And his princes gave [3] for a free-will-offering unto the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, [e] the rulers of the house of God, gave unto the priests for the passover-offerings two thousand and six hundred small cattle, and three hundred oxen. 9 [f] Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brethren, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, the chiefs of the Levites, gave unto the Levites, for the passover-offerings five thousand small cattle, and five hundred oxen.

10 So the service was prepared, and [g] the priests stood in their place, and the Levites by their courses, according to the king's commandment. 11 And [h] they killed the passover, and [i] the priests sprinkled the blood which they received of their hand, and [k] the Levites flayed them. 12 And they removed the burnt-offerings, that they might give them according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of the children of the people, to offer unto Jehovah, as it is written in the book of Moses. And so did they with the oxen. 13 And [l] they roasted the passover with fire according to the ordinance: and [m] the holy offerings boiled they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and carried them quickly to all the children of the people. 14 And afterward they prepared for themselves, and for the priests, because the priests the sons of Aaron were busied in offering the burnt-offerings and the fat until night: therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron. 15 And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their place, [n] according to the commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and [o] the porters were at every gate: they needed not to depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.

16 So all the service of Jehovah was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt-offerings upon the altar of Jehovah, according to the commandment of king Josiah. 17 And the children of Israel that were present kept the passover at that time, and [p] the feast of unleavened bread seven days. 18 And [q] there was no passover like to that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did any of the kings of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept.

20 [r] After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Neco king of Egypt went up to fight against [s] Carchemish by the Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him. 21 But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, [t] What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against the house wherewith I have war; and God [4] hath commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not. 22 Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but [u] disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Neco [v] from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of [x] Megiddo. 23 And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore wounded. 24 So his servants took him out of the chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had, and brought him to Jerusalem; and he died, and was buried in the sepulchres of his fathers. [a] And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah. 25 And [b] Jeremiah lamented for Josiah: and all the singing men and singing women spake of Josiah in their lamentations unto this day; and they made them an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they are written in the lamentations. 26 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his good deeds, according to that which is written in the law of Jehovah, 27 and his acts, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

36 [c] Then the people of the land took [d] Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's stead in Jerusalem. 2 Joahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. 3 And the king of Egypt deposed him at Jerusalem, and fined the land a hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. 4 And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. And [e] Neco took Joahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

5 [f] Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah his God. 6 [g] Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and [h] bound him in fetters, [i] to carry him to Babylon. 7 [k] Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of Jehovah to Babylon, and put them in his [1] temple at Babylon. 8 [l] Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found [2] in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah: and [3] Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

9 [m] Jehoiachin was [4] eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah. 10 And [n] at the return of the year king Nebuchadnezzar sent, and brought him to Babylon, with the goodly vessels of the house of Jehovah, and made [o] Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.

11 [p] Zedekiah was twenty and one years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: 12 and he did that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah his God; [q] he humbled not himself [r] before Jeremiah the prophet speaking from the mouth of Jehovah. 13 And [s] he also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God: but [t] he stiffened his neck, and [5] hardened his heart against turning unto Jehovah, the God of Israel. 14 Moreover all the chiefs of the priests, and the people, trespassed very greatly after all the abominations of the nations; and they polluted the house of Jehovah which he had hallowed in Jerusalem. 15 And Jehovah, the God of their fathers, [u] sent to them by his messengers, rising up early and sending, because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling-place: 16 but they [v] mocked the messengers of God, and [x] despised his words, and scoffed at his prophets, [y] until the wrath of Jehovah arose against his people, till there was no [6] remedy.

17 [z] Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldeans, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or virgin, old man or hoary-headed: he gave them all into his hand. 18 And [a] all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of Jehovah, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes, all these he brought to Babylon. 19 And [b] they burnt the house of God, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels thereof. 20 And them that had escaped from the sword [c] carried he away to Babylon; and [d] they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia: 21 [e] to fulfil the word of Jehovah by the
