THE BOOK OF

JOB

Job's Uprightness and Wealth. Satan permitted to test him. Job's Afflictions and Patience

1 There was a man in the land of [a] Uz, whose name was [1 b] Job; and that man was [c] perfect and upright, and one [d] that feared God, and [e] turned away from evil. 2 [f] And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters. 3 [g] His [2] substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she-asses, and a very great household; so that this man was [h] the greatest of all the [i] children of the east. 4 And his sons went and held a feast in the house of each one upon his day; and they sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them. 5 And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and [k] sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered [l] burnt-offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, [m] It may be that my sons have sinned, and [3 n] renounced God in their hearts. Thus did Job continually.

6 Now it came to pass on the day when the [o] sons of God came to present themselves before Jehovah, that [4 p] Satan also came among them. 7 And Jehovah said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered Jehovah, and said, [q] From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. 8 And Jehovah said unto Satan, Hast thou considered [r] my servant Job? [5] for there is none like him in the earth, [s] a perfect and upright man, one that feareth God, and turneth away from evil. 9 Then Satan answered Jehovah, and said, [t] Doth Job fear God for nought? 10 [u] Hast not thou made a hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath, on every side? [v] thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his [2 x] substance is increased in the land. 11 [y] But put forth thy hand now, and [z] touch all that he hath, and he will renounce thee to thy face. 12 And Jehovah said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy [6] power; only upon himself put not forth thy hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of Jehovah.

13 And it fell on a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house, 14 that there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them; 15 and [7] the [a] Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away: yea, they have slain the [8] servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. 16 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, [b] The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burned up the sheep and the [8] servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. 17 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The [c] Chaldeans made three bands, and [9] fell upon the camels, and have taken them away, yea, and slain the [8] servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. 18 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Thy [d] sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house; 19 and, behold, there came a great [e] wind [10] from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

20 Then Job arose, and [f] rent his robe, and [g] shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped; 21 and he said, [a]Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: [b]Jehovah gave, and Jehovah hath taken away; [c]blessed be the name of Jehovah. 22 [d]In all this Job sinned not, nor [1e]charged God foolishly.

2 [f]Again it came to pass on the day when the sons of God came to present themselves before Jehovah, that Satan came also among them to present himself before Jehovah. 2 And Jehovah said unto Satan, From whence comest thou? And Satan answered Jehovah, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. 3 And Jehovah said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job? [2]for there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and turneth away from evil: and he still [g]holdeth fast his integrity, although thou movedst me against him, [3]to destroy him [h]without cause. 4 And Satan answered Jehovah, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life. 5 [i]But put forth thy hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will renounce thee to thy face. 6 And Jehovah said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thy hand; only spare his life.

7 So Satan went forth from the presence of Jehovah, and smote Job with [k]sore boils from the sole of his foot unto his crown. 8 And he took him a potsherd to scrape himself therewith; and [l]he sat among the ashes. 9 Then said his wife unto him, Dost thou still hold fast thine integrity? renounce God, and die. 10 But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the [4]foolish women speaketh. What? [m]shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? [n]In all this did not Job sin with his lips.

11 Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place: Eliphaz the [o]Temanite, and Bildad the [p]Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite; and they made an appointment together to come to [q]bemoan him and to comfort him. 12 And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they [r]rent every one his robe, and [s]sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven. 13 So they sat down with him upon the ground [t]seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his [5]grief was very great.

3 After this opened Job his mouth, and cursed his day.
2 And Job answered and said:
3 [u]Let the day perish wherein I was born,
And the night which said,
There is a man-child conceived.
4 Let that day be darkness;
Let not God from above seek for it,
Neither let the light shine upon it.
5 Let darkness and [6]the [v]shadow of death claim it for their own;
Let a cloud dwell upon it;
Let all that maketh black the day terrify it.
6 As for that night, let [x]thick darkness seize upon it:
Let it not rejoice among the days of the year;
Let it not come into the number of the months.
7 Lo, let that night be [7]barren;
Let no joyful voice come therein.
8 Let them curse it that curse the day,
Who are [8]ready to [y]rouse up leviathan.
9 Let the stars of the twilight thereof be dark:
Let it look for light, but have none;
Neither let it behold the [z]eyelids of the morning:
10 Because it shut not up the doors of my mother's womb,
Nor hid trouble from mine eyes.
11 [a]Why died I not from the womb?
Why did I not give up the ghost when my mother bare me?
12 Why did the [b]knees receive me?
Or why the breasts, that I should suck?

Job bewails his Birth. Eliphaz's First Speech. He affirms the Justice of God. Man's Insignificance in God's Sight

13 For now [a]should I have lain down and been quiet;
I should have slept; then had I been at rest,
14 With [b]kings and [c]counsellors of the earth,
Who [1]built up [d]waste places for themselves;
15 Or with [e]princes [f]that had gold,
Who filled their houses with silver:
16 Or as a hidden [g]untimely birth I had not been,
As infants that never saw light.
17 There the wicked cease from [2]troubling;
And there the weary are at [h]rest.
18 There the prisoners are at ease together;
They hear not the voice of the taskmaster.
19 The [i]small and the great are there:
And the servant is free from his master.

20 Wherefore is light given to him that is in misery,
And life unto the [k]bitter in soul;
21 Who [3]long for death, but it cometh not,
And dig for it more than for hid treasures;
22 Who rejoice [4]exceedingly,
And are glad, when they can find the grave?
23 Why is light given to a man [m]whose way is hid,
And whom [n]God hath hedged in?
24 For [o]my sighing cometh [5]before I eat,
And [p]my [6]groanings are poured out like water.
25 For [7q]the thing which I fear cometh upon me,
And that which I am afraid of cometh unto me.
26 I [8]am not at ease, neither am I quiet, neither have I rest;
But trouble cometh.

4 Then answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,
2 If one assay to commune with thee, wilt thou be grieved?
But [r]who can withhold himself from speaking?

3 Behold, [s]thou hast instructed many,
And thou hast [t]strengthened the weak hands.
4 Thy words have upholden him that was falling,
And thou hast [t]made firm the [9]feeble knees.
5 But now it is come unto thee, and thou [10u]faintest;
It [v]toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.
6 Is not thy [x]fear of God thy confidence,
And the integrity of thy ways thy hope?
7 Remember, I pray thee, [y]who ever perished, being innocent?
Or where were the upright cut off?
8 According as I have seen, [z]they that plow iniquity,
And sow [11]trouble, reap the same.
9 By [a]the breath of God they perish,
And [b]by the blast of his anger are they consumed.
10 The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion,
And the [c]teeth of the young lions, are broken.
11 The [d]old lion perisheth for lack of prey,
And the [e]whelps of the lioness are scattered abroad.

12 Now a thing [f]was [12]secretly brought to me,
And mine ear received a [g]whisper thereof.
13 In thoughts from the visions of the night,
When deep sleep falleth on men,
14 Fear came upon me, and trembling,
Which made all my [h]bones to shake.
15 Then [13]a spirit passed before my face;
The hair of my flesh stood up.
16 It stood still, but I could not discern the appearance thereof;
A form was before mine eyes:
[14]There was silence, and I heard a voice, saying,
17 Shall [i]mortal man [15]be more just than God?

[1] Or, built solitary piles [2] Or, raging
[3] Heb. wait. [4] Or, unto exultation
[5] Or, like my food [6] Heb. roarings.
[7] Or, the thing which I feared is come &c.
[8] Or, was not at ease . . . yet trouble came

[11] Or, mischief [12] Heb. brought by stealth
[13] Or, a breath passed over
[14] Or, I heard a still voice
[15] Or, be just before God

Shall a man [1] be more pure than his [a] Maker?
18 Behold, [b] he putteth no trust in his servants;
And his angels he chargeth with folly:
19 How much more them that dwell in [c] houses of clay,
Whose [d] foundation is in the dust,
Who are crushed [2] before the moth!
20 [3] [e] Betwixt morning and evening they are [4] destroyed:
They [f] perish for ever without any regarding it.
21 [5] Is not their [g] tent-cord plucked up within them?
They [h] die, and that without wisdom.

5 Call now; is there any that will answer thee?
And to which of the [i] holy ones wilt thou turn?
2 For [k] vexation killeth the foolish man,
And [6] jealousy slayeth the silly one.
3 I have seen the [l] foolish taking root:
But suddenly [m] I cursed his habitation.
4 His children are [n] far from safety,
And they are [o] crushed in the gate,
Neither is there any to deliver them:
5 Whose harvest the hungry eateth up,
And taketh it even out of the thorns;
And [7] the [p] snare gapeth for their substance.
6 For [8] affliction cometh not forth from the dust,
Neither doth trouble spring out of the ground;
7 But [q] man is born unto trouble,
As [9] the sparks fly upward.

8 But as for me, I would seek unto God,
And unto God would I [r] commit my cause;
9 Who [s] doeth great things and unsearchable,
Marvellous things without number:
10 Who [t] giveth rain upon the earth,
And sendeth waters upon the fields;
11 So that [u] he setteth up on high those that are low,
And those that mourn are exalted to safety.
12 He [v] frustrateth the devices of the crafty,
So that their hands [10] cannot perform their enterprise.
13 He [x] taketh the wise in their own craftiness;
And the counsel of the cunning is carried headlong.
14 They [y] meet with darkness in the day-time,
And [z] grope at noonday as in the night.
15 But he saveth from [a] the sword [11] of their mouth,
Even [b] the needy from the hand of the mighty.
16 So the poor hath hope,
And [c] iniquity stoppeth her mouth.

17 Behold, [d] happy is the man whom God [12] correcteth:
Therefore [e] despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty.
18 For [f] he maketh sore, and bindeth up;
He woundeth, and his hands make whole.
19 He will [g] deliver thee in six troubles;
Yea, in seven there shall [h] no evil touch thee.
20 In [i] famine he will redeem thee from death;
And [k] in war from the power of the sword.
21 Thou shalt be [l] hid from the scourge of the tongue;
[m] Neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh.
22 At destruction and dearth thou shalt laugh;
[n] Neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth.
23 For thou shalt be in league with the stones of the field;
And [o] the beasts of the field shall be at peace with thee.
24 And thou shalt know that thy [p] tent is in peace; and [2] shalt miss nothing.

25 Thou shalt know also that thy [a] seed shall be great,
And [b] thine offspring as the grass of the earth.
26 Thou shalt [c] come to thy grave in a full age,
Like as a shock of grain cometh in in its season.
27 Lo this, we have searched it, so it is;
Hear it, and know thou it [3] for thy good.

6 Then Job answered and said,
2 [d] Oh that my vexation were but weighed,
And all my calamity laid in the balances!
3 For now it would be [e] heavier than the sand of the seas:
Therefore have my words been rash.
4 For the [f] arrows of the Almighty are within me,
The poison whereof my spirit [g] drinketh up:
The [h] terrors of God do set themselves in array against me.
5 Doth the [i] wild ass bray when he hath grass?
Or loweth the ox over his fodder?
6 Can that which hath no savor be eaten without salt?
Or is there any taste in [4] the white of an egg?
7 [5] My soul refuseth to touch them;
They are as loathsome food to me.

8 [k] Oh that I might have my request;
And that God would grant me the thing that I long for!
9 Even that it would [l] please God to crush me;
That he would let loose his hand, and cut me off!
10 And be it still my consolation,
[6] Yea, let me [7] exult in pain
[8] that spareth not,
That I [m] have not [9] denied the words of the [n] Holy One.
11 What is my strength, that I should wait?
And what is mine end, that I should be [o] patient?
12 Is my strength the strength of stones?
Or is my flesh of brass?
13 Is it not that I have [p] no help in me,
And that [q] wisdom is driven quite from me?

14 To him that is ready [r] to faint
[s] kindness should be showed from his friend;
[10] Even to him that forsaketh the fear of the Almighty.
15 My brethren have dealt [t] deceitfully as a brook,
As the channel of brooks that pass away;
16 Which are black by reason of the ice,
And wherein the snow hideth itself:
17 What time [u] they [11] wax warm, they vanish;
When it is hot, they are consumed out of their place.
18 [12] The caravans that travel by the way of them turn aside;
They go up into the waste, and perish.
19 The caravans of [v] Tema looked,
The companies of [x] Sheba waited for them.
20 They [y] were put to shame because they had hoped;
They came thither, and were confounded.
21 For now ye [13] are nothing;
Ye see a terror, and are afraid.
22 Did I say, Give unto me?
Or, Offer a present for me of your substance?
23 Or, Deliver me from the adversary's hand?
Or, Redeem me from the hand of the oppressors?

24 Teach me, and I will hold my peace;
And cause me to understand wherein I have erred.
25 How [z] forcible are words of uprightness!
But your reproof, what doth it reprove?
26 Do ye think to reprove words,
Seeing that the speeches of one that is desperate are [14] as [a] wind?

[1] Or, habitation [2] Or, shalt not err
[3] Heb. for thyself. [4] Or, the juice of purslain
[5] Or, What things my soul refused to touch, these are as my loathsome food
[6] Or, Though I shrink back
[7] Or, harden myself
[8] Or, though he spare not [9] Or, concealed
[10] Or, Else might he forsake Or, But he forsaketh [11] Or, shrink
[12] Or, The paths of their way are turned aside
[13] Another reading is, are like thereto.
[14] Or, for the wind

27 Yea, ye would [a]cast lots upon the fatherless,
And [b]make merchandise of your friend.
28 Now therefore be pleased to look upon me;
[1]For surely I [c]shall not lie to your face.
29 Return, I pray you, let there be no injustice;
Yea, return again, [2][d]my cause is righteous.
30 Is there [e]injustice on my tongue?
Cannot [f]my taste discern mischievous things?

7 Is there not a [3][g]warfare to man upon earth?
And are not his days like the [h]days of a hireling?
2 As a servant that earnestly desireth the shadow,
And as a hireling that looketh for his [i]wages:
3 So am I made to possess [k]months of misery,
And [l]wearisome nights are appointed to me.
4 When I [m]lie down, I say,
When shall I arise, and the night be gone?
And I am full of tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day.
5 My [n]flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust;
My skin [4]closeth up, and breaketh out afresh.
6 My days are [o]swifter than a weaver's shuttle,
And are spent [p]without hope.
7 Oh remember that my life [q]is a breath:
Mine eye shall [r]no more see good.
8 The [s]eye of him that seeth me shall behold me no more;
Thine eyes shall be upon me, but [t]I shall not be.
9 As the [u]cloud is consumed and vanisheth away,
So [v]he that goeth down to [x]Sheol shall [y]come up no more.
10 He shall [z]return no more to his house,
Neither shall [a]his place know him any more.

11 Therefore [b]I will not refrain my mouth;
I will speak in the anguish of my spirit;
I will [c]complain in the bitterness of my soul.
12 Am I a sea, or [d]a sea-monster,
That thou settest a watch over me?
13 When [e]I say, My bed shall comfort me,
My couch shall ease my complaint;
14 Then thou scarest me with dreams,
And [f]terrifiest me through visions:
15 So that my soul chooseth strangling,
And [g]death rather than these my bones.
16 [5]I [h]loathe my life; I [6]would not live alway:
Let me alone; [i]for my days are [7]vanity.
17 [k]What is man, that thou shouldest magnify him,
And that thou shouldest set thy mind upon him,
18 And that [l]thou shouldest visit him every morning,
And [m]try him every moment?
19 How long [n]wilt thou not look away from me,
Nor [o]let me alone till I swallow down my spittle?
20 If I have sinned, [p]what [8]do I unto thee, O thou [9][q]watcher of men?
Why hast thou [r]set me as a mark for thee,
So that I am a burden to myself?
21 And why [s]dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity?
For now shall I [t]lie down in the dust;
And thou wilt seek me diligently, [u]but I shall not be.

8 Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,
2 How long wilt thou speak these things?
And how long shall the [v]words of thy mouth be like a mighty wind?
3 Doth [x]God pervert justice?
Or doth the Almighty pervert righteousness?

Bildad says that God favors the Righteous, and destroys the Sinner. Job's Third Speech. He confesses God's Power, but

And he hath delivered them into the hand of their transgression;
5 If thou wouldest [a]seek diligently unto God,
And [b]make thy supplication
to the Almighty;
6 If thou wert pure and upright:
Surely now [c]he would awake
for thee,
And make the [d]habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.
7 And though thy beginning was small,
Yet thy [e]latter end would greatly increase.

8 For [f]inquire, I pray thee, of the former age,
And apply thyself to that which their fathers have searched out
9 (For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing,
Because [g]our days upon earth
are a shadow);
10 Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee,
And utter words out of their heart?

11 Can the [1][h]rush grow up without mire?
Can the [2][i]flag grow without water?
12 Whilst it is yet in its greenness, and not cut down,
It [k]withereth before any other herb.
13 So are the paths of [l]all that forget God;
And the [m]hope of the godless man shall perish:
14 Whose confidence shall [3]break
in sunder,
And whose trust is a [n]spider's
[4]web.
15 He shall lean upon his [o]house,
but it shall not stand:
He shall hold fast thereby, but it shall not endure.
16 He is [p]green before the sun,
And his [q]shoots go forth over his garden.
17 His roots are wrapped [5]about the stone-heap,
He beholdeth the place of stones.
18 If he be destroyed from [r]his place,
Then it shall deny him, saying,
[s]I have not seen thee.
19 Behold, [t]this is the joy of his way;
And out of the [6]earth [u]shall others spring.
20 Behold, [v]God will not cast away a perfect man, Neither [x]will he uphold the evil-doers.
21 [7]He will yet fill [y]thy mouth with laughter,
And thy lips with [z]shouting.
22 They that hate thee shall be
[a]clothed with shame;
And the [b]tent of the wicked shall be no more.

9 Then Job answered and said,
2 Of a truth I know that it is so:
[8]But how can [c]man be just
[9]with God?
3 [10]If he be pleased to [d]contend with him,
He cannot [e]answer him one of a thousand.
4 He is [f]wise in heart, and [g]mighty in strength:
Who hath [h]hardened himself against him, and prospered?—
5 Him that [i]removeth the mountains, and they know it not,
When he overturneth them in his anger;
6 That [k]shaketh the earth out of its place,
And the [l]pillars thereof tremble;
7 That commandeth the [m]sun,
and it riseth not,
And sealeth up the stars;
8 That alone [n]stretcheth out the heavens,
And [o]treadeth upon the [11]waves
of the sea;
9 That maketh the [p]Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades,
And the [q]chambers of the south;
10 That [r]doeth great things past finding out,
Yea, marvellous things without number.
11 Lo, he goeth by me, and [s]I see him not:
He passeth on also, but I perceive him not.

12 Behold, he seizeth the prey,
[a]who can [1]hinder him?
Who will say unto him, [b]What doest thou?

13 God will not withdraw his anger;
The helpers of [2][c]Rahab [3]do stoop under him.
14 How much less shall [a]I answer him,
And choose out my words to reason with him?
15 Whom, [c]though I were righteous, yet would I not answer;
I would [f]make supplication to my judge.
16 If I had called, and he had answered me,
Yet would I not believe that he hearkened unto my voice.
17 [4]For he [g]breaketh me with a tempest,
And multiplieth my wounds [h]without cause.
18 He will not suffer me to take my breath,
But [i]filleth me with bitterness.
19 If we speak of strength, [5][k]lo, he is mighty!
And if of justice, Who, saith he, will summon me?
20 [l]Though I be righteous, mine own mouth shall [m]condemn me:
Though I be perfect, [6]it shall prove me perverse.
21 [7]I am [n]perfect; I regard not myself;
I [o]despise my life.
22 It is all one; therefore I say,
He [p]destroyeth the perfect and the wicked.
23 If the scourge slay [q]suddenly,
He will mock at the [8][r]trial of the innocent.
24 The earth [s]is given into the hand of the wicked;
He [t]covereth the faces of the judges thereof:
If it be not he, who then is it?

25 Now [u]my days are swifter than a [9]post:
They flee away, [v]they see no good.
26 They are passed away as [x]the [10]swift ships;
As the [y]eagle that swoopeth on the prey.
27 If I say, I will forget [z]my complaint,
I will put off my sad countenance, and [11][a]be of good cheer;
28 I am [b]afraid of all my sorrows,
I know that [c]thou wilt not hold me innocent.
29 I shall be [d]condemned;
Why then do I labor in vain?
30 If I [e]wash myself [12]with snow water,
And [13]make [f]my hands never so clean;
31 Yet wilt thou plunge me in the ditch,
And mine own clothes shall abhor me.
32 For [g]he is not a man, as I am, that [h]I should answer him,
That [i]we should come together in judgment.
33 There is no [k]umpire betwixt us,
That might lay his hand upon us both.
34 Let him [l]take his rod away from me,
And let not his terror make me afraid:
35 Then [m]would I speak, and not fear him;
For I am not so in myself.

10 My soul is [n]weary of my life;
I will give free course to [o]my complaint;
I will speak in the [p]bitterness of my soul.
2 I will say unto God, [q]Do not condemn me;
Show me wherefore thou [r]contendest with me.
3 Is it good unto thee that thou shouldest [s]oppress,
That thou shouldest despise [t]the [14]work of thy hands,
And shine upon [u]the counsel of the wicked?
4 Hast thou eyes of flesh?
Or [v]seest thou as man seeth?
5 Are thy days as the days of man,
Or [x]thy years as man's days,
6 That [y]thou inquirest after mine iniquity,
And searchest after my sin,
7 Although thou knowest that [z]I am not wicked,
And there is [a]none that can deliver out of thy hand?

Job protests against God's severe Treatment of him. Zophar's First Speech. He accuses Job of Arrogance and Impiety

8 [a]Thy hands have framed me and fashioned me
Together round about; yet thou dost destroy me.
9 Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast fashioned me as [b]clay;
And wilt thou [c]bring me into dust again?
10 Hast thou not poured me out as milk,
And curdled me like cheese?
11 Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh,
And knit me together with bones and sinews.
12 Thou hast [d]granted me life and lovingkindness;
And thy [1]visitation hath [e]preserved my spirit.
13 Yet [f]these things thou didst hide in thy heart;
I know that this is with thee:
14 If I sin, then thou [g]markest me,
And thou [h]wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.
15 If I be [i]wicked, woe unto me;
And [k]if I be righteous, yet shall I not lift up my head
[2]Being [l]filled with ignominy,
And looking upon mine affliction.
16 And if my head exalt itself,
[m]thou huntest me as a lion;
And again thou showest thyself [n]marvellous upon me.
17 Thou renewest [o]thy witnesses against me,
And increasest thine indignation upon me:
[3][p]Changes and [q]warfare are with me.

18 [r]Wherefore then hast thou brought me forth out of the womb?
I had given up the ghost, and no eye had seen me.
19 I should have been as though I had not been;
I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.
20 Are not [s]my days few? [4]cease then,
And [t]let me alone, that I may [5][u]take comfort a little,
21 Before I go [v]whence I shall not return,

Even to the land of darkness and of [x]the shadow of death;
22 The land dark as [6]midnight,
The land of the shadow of death, without any order,
And where the light is as [6]midnight.

11 Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,
2 Should not the multitude of words be answered?
And should a man [y]full of talk be justified?
3 Should thy [z]boastings make men hold their peace?
And when thou [a]mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?
4 For [b]thou sayest, My doctrine is pure,
And [c]I am clean in thine eyes.
5 But oh that God would speak,
And open his lips against thee,
6 And that he would show thee the [d]secrets of wisdom!
For he is manifold in [e]understanding.
Know therefore that God [7]exacteth of thee less than [f]thine iniquity deserveth.

7 [8][g]Canst thou by searching find out God?
Canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection?
8 [9]It is [h]high as heaven; what canst thou do?
[i]Deeper than Sheol; what canst thou know?
9 The measure thereof is longer than the earth,
And broader than the sea.
10 If he pass through, and shut up,
And [10]call unto judgment, then [k]who can hinder him?
11 For [l]he knoweth false men:
He [m]seeth iniquity also, [11]even though he consider it not.
12 [12]But [n]vain man is [o]void of understanding,
Yea, man is born as a [p]wild ass's colt.

13 [q]If thou [r]set thy heart aright,
And [s]stretch out thy hands toward him;

[1] Or, care
[2] Or, I am filled with ignominy, but look thou . . . for it increaseth: thou &c.
[3] Or, Host after host is against me
[4] Another reading is, let him cease, and leave me alone.
[5] Heb. brighten up.
[6] Heb. thick darkness.
[7] Or, remitteth (Heb. causeth to be forgotten) unto thee of thine iniquity
[8] Or, Canst thou find out the deep things of God?
[9] Heb. The heights of heaven.
[10] Heb. call an assembly.
[11] Or, and him that considereth not
[12] Or, But an empty man will get understanding, when a wild ass's colt is born a man

14 If iniquity be in thy hand, [a] put it far away,
And let not unrighteousness dwell in thy tents.
15 Surely then shalt thou [b] lift up thy face [c] without spot;
Yea, thou shalt be stedfast, and shalt [d] not fear:
16 For thou shalt [e] forget thy misery;
Thou shalt remember it as [f] waters that are passed away.
17 And thy life shall [1] be [g] clearer than the noonday;
Though there be darkness, it shall be as the morning.
18 And thou shalt be secure, because there is hope;
Yea, thou shalt search about thee, and shalt take thy rest in safety.
19 Also thou shalt [h] lie down, and none shall make thee afraid;
Yea, many shall [i] make suit unto thee.
20 But the [k] eyes of the wicked shall fail,
And [2] they shall [l] have no way to flee;
And their [m] hope shall be [n] the giving up of the ghost.

12 Then Job answered and said,
2 No doubt but [o] ye are the people,
And wisdom shall die with you.
3 But [p] I have understanding as well as you;
I am not inferior to you:
Yea, who knoweth not such things as these?
4 I am as one that is a [q] laughing-stock to his neighbor,
I who called upon God, and he answered:
The just, [r] the perfect man is a laughing-stock.
5 In the thought of [s] him that is at ease there is contempt for misfortune;
It is ready for them whose foot slippeth.
6 The [t] tents of robbers prosper,
And they that provoke God [u] are secure;
[3 u] Into whose hand God bringeth abundantly.

And the birds of the heavens, and they shall tell thee:
8 Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee;
And the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee.
9 Who knoweth not [4] in all these,
That [x] the hand of Jehovah hath wrought this,
10 [y] In whose hand is the soul of every living thing,
And [z] the [5] breath of all mankind?
11 Doth not [a] the ear try words,
Even as the palate tasteth its food?
12 [6] With [b] aged men is wisdom,
And in length of days understanding.

13 With [7] God is [c] wisdom and [d] might;
He hath counsel and [e] understanding.
14 Behold, he [f] breaketh down, and it cannot be built again;
He [g] shutteth up a man, and there can be no opening.
15 Behold, he [h] withholdeth the waters, and they dry up;
Again, he [i] sendeth them out, and they overturn the earth.
16 With him is [k] strength and wisdom;
The [l] deceived and the deceiver are his.
17 He leadeth [m] counsellors away [n] stripped,
And [o] judges maketh he fools.
18 He [p] looseth the bond of kings,
And bindeth their loins with a girdle.
19 He leadeth priests away stripped,
And overthroweth [q] the mighty.
20 He removeth the speech of the trusty,
And [r] taketh away the understanding of the elders.
21 He [s] poureth contempt upon princes,
And [t] looseth the belt of the strong.
22 He [u] uncovereth deep things out of darkness,
And bringeth out to light the [v] shadow of death.
23 He [x] increaseth the nations, and he [y] destroyeth them:

1 Or, arise above
2 Heb. refuge is perished from them.
3 Or, That bring their god in their hand
4 Or, by 5 Or, spirit
6 Or, With aged men, ye say, is wisdom
7 Heb. him.

Job charges his Friends with making a False Defence of God. He affirms his Integrity, and begs for Justice

He [a]enlargeth the nations, and he [b]leadeth them captive.
24 He [c]taketh away understanding from the chiefs of the people of the [1]earth,
And [d]causeth them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.
25 They [e]grope in the dark without light;
And he maketh them to [2f]stagger like a drunken man.

13 Lo, [g]mine eye hath seen all this,
Mine ear hath heard and understood it.
2 What ye know, [h]the same do I know also:
I am not inferior unto you.

3 Surely [i]I would speak to the Almighty,
And I desire to [k]reason with God.
4 But ye are [l]forgers of lies;
Ye are all physicians of [m]no value.
5 Oh that ye would altogether [n]hold your peace!
And [o]it would be your wisdom.
6 Hear now my reasoning,
And hearken to the pleadings of my lips.
7 Will ye [p]speak unrighteously for God,
And talk deceitfully for him?
8 Will ye [p]show partiality to him?
Will ye contend for God?
9 Is it good that he should [q]search you out?
Or as one [3]deceiveth a man,
[r]will ye [4]deceive him?
10 He will surely reprove you,
If ye do secretly [s]show partiality.
11 Shall not [t]his majesty make you afraid,
And his dread fall upon you?
12 Your memorable [u]sayings are proverbs of ashes,
Your defences are defences of clay.

13 [v]Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak;
And let come on me what will.
14 [5]Wherefore should I take my flesh in my teeth,
And [x]put my life in my hand?

15 [6]Behold, he will slay me; [y]I have no hope:
Nevertheless I [z]will [7]maintain my ways before him.
16 This also shall be my salvation,
That [a]a godless man shall not come before him.
17 [b]Hear diligently my speech,
And let my declaration be in your ears.
18 Behold now, I have [c]set my cause in order;
I know that [d]I [8]am righteous.
19 [e]Who is he that will contend with me?
For then [9]would [f]I hold my peace and give up the ghost.

20 Only do not two things unto me;
Then will I not hide myself from thy face:
21 [g]Withdraw thy hand far from me;
And let not thy [h]terror make me afraid.
22 Then call thou, and [i]I will answer;
Or let me speak, and answer thou me.
23 [k]How many are mine iniquities and sins?
[l]Make me to know my transgression and my sin.
24 Wherefore [m]hidest thou thy face,
And holdest me for [n]thine enemy?
25 Wilt thou harass a [o]driven leaf?
And wilt thou pursue the dry [p]stubble?
26 For thou writest [q]bitter things against me,
And makest me to inherit the [r]iniquities of my youth:
27 Thou [s]puttest my feet also in the stocks,
And [t]markest all my paths;
Thou settest a bound to the soles of my feet:
28 [10]Though I am like a [u]rotten thing that consumeth,
Like a garment that is [v]moth-eaten.

Is of [z]few days, and full of trouble.
2 He cometh forth [a]like a flower, and [11b]is cut down:

Job sets forth the Frailty of Man. He prays for a Respite. Eliphaz's Second Speech. He rebukes Job's Presumptuousness

He fleeth also as [a] a shadow, and continueth not.
3 And dost thou [b] open thine eyes upon such a one,
And [c] bringest me into judgment with thee?
4 [1] Who can bring a [d] clean thing out of an unclean? not one.
5 Seeing his [e] days are determined,
The [f] number of his months is with thee,
And thou hast appointed his [g] bounds that he cannot pass;
6 [h] Look away from him, that he may [2] rest,
Till he shall [3] accomplish, as a [i] hireling, his day.

7 For there is hope of a tree,
If it be cut down, that it will sprout again,
And that the tender branch thereof will not cease.
8 Though the root thereof wax old in the earth,
And the stock thereof die in the ground;
9 Yet [k] through the scent of water it will bud,
And put forth boughs like a plant.
10 But [l] man dieth, and is laid low:
Yea, man [m] giveth up the ghost, and where is he?
11 As the [n] waters [4] fail from the sea,
And the river wasteth and drieth up;
12 So [o] man lieth down and riseth not:
Till the [p] heavens be no more, they shall not awake,
Nor be [q] roused out of their sleep.

13 Oh that thou wouldest [r] hide me in Sheol,
That thou wouldest keep me secret, [s] until thy wrath be past,
That thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me!
14 If a man die, [t] shall he live again?
All the days of my [u] warfare [5] would I wait,
Till my [6] release should come.
15 Thou [7] wouldest [v] call, and I would answer thee:

Thou wouldest have a desire to [x] the work of thy hands.
16 But now thou [y] numberest my steps:
Dost thou not [z] watch over my sin?
17 My transgression is [a] sealed up in a bag,
And thou fastenest up mine iniquity.

18 But the mountain falling [8] cometh to nought;
And the [b] rock is removed out of its place;
19 The waters wear the stones;
The overflowings thereof wash away the dust of the earth:
So thou [c] destroyest the hope of man.
20 Thou prevailest for ever against him, and [d] he passeth;
Thou [e] changest his countenance, and sendest him away.
21 His sons come to honor, and he [f] knoweth it not;
And they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them.
22 [9] But his flesh upon him hath pain,
And his soul within him mourneth.

15 Then answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,
2 Should a wise man make answer with [10] vain knowledge,
And fill himself with the east [g] wind?
3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk,
Or with speeches wherewith he can do no good?
4 Yea, thou doest away with fear,
And [11] hinderest [12] devotion before God.
5 For [13] [h] thine iniquity [i] teacheth thy mouth,
And thou choosest the tongue of [k] the crafty.

Yea, thine own lips testify against thee.

Eliphaz rebukes Job's Presumptuousness. He declares that Sinners shall be speedily cut off. Job's Fifth Speech

8 [1]Hast thou heard the [a]secret counsel of God?
And [b]dost thou limit wisdom to thyself?
9 [c]What knowest thou, that we know not?
What understandest thou,
which is not in us?
10 With us are both the [d]gray-headed and the very aged men,
Much elder than thy father.
11 Are [e]the consolations of God too small for thee,
[2]Even the [f]word that is gentle toward thee?
12 Why doth thy heart carry thee away?
And why do thine eyes flash,
13 That [g]against God thou turn-est thy spirit,
And lettest words go out of thy mouth?
14 What is man, that [h]he should be clean?
And [i]he that is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?
15 Behold, [k]he putteth no trust in his [l]holy ones;
Yea, the [m]heavens are not clean in his sight:
16 How much less [3]one that is [n]abominable and corrupt,
A man that [o]drinketh iniquity like water!

17 I will show thee, hear thou me;
And that which I have seen I will declare 18 (Which wise men have told From [p]their fathers, and have not hid it;
19 Unto whom alone the land was given,
And no stranger passed among them):
20 The wicked man travaileth
[q]with pain all his days,
[4]Even the number of years that are [r]laid up for the oppressor.
21 A sound of [s]terrors is in his ears;
In [t]prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him.
22 He believeth not that he shall [u]return out of darkness,
And he is waited for of [v]the sword.

23 He [x]wandereth abroad for bread, saying, Where is it?
He knoweth that the day of [y]darkness is ready at his hand.
24 Distress and anguish make him afraid;
They prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.
25 Because he hath stretched out his hand against God,
And [5z]behaveth himself proudly against the Almighty;
26 He runneth upon him with a stiff neck,
[6]With the thick bosses of his bucklers;
27 Because he hath [a]covered his face with his fatness,
And gathered fat upon his loins;
28 And he hath [b]dwelt in [7]desolate cities,
In houses which no man [8]inhabited,
Which were ready to become heaps;
29 He [c]shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, Neither shall [9]their possessions be extended on the earth.
30 He shall [d]not depart out of darkness;
The [e]flame shall dry up his branches,
And by [f]the breath of [10]God's mouth shall he go away.
31 Let him not [g]trust in vanity,
deceiving himself;
For vanity shall be his recompense.
32 It shall be [11]accomplished [h]before his time,
And his [i]branch shall not be green.
33 He shall shake off his unripe
grape as the vine,
And shall [k]cast off his flower as the olive-tree.
34 For the company of [l]the godless shall be barren,
And fire shall consume [m]the tents of bribery.
35 They [n]conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity,
And their heart prepareth deceit.

16 Then Job answered and
said,
2 I have heard many such things:

[m] ch. 8. 22, ref.
[n] Ps. 7. 14; Is. 59. 4; Hos. 10. 13

1 Or, Dost thou hearken in the council
2 Or, Or is there any secret thing with thee?
3 Or, that which is
4 Or, And years that are numbered are laid up &c.

5 Or, biddeth defiance to 6 Or, Upon
7 Heb. cut off. 8 Or, would inhabit
9 Or, their produce bend to the earth
10 Heb. his. 11 Or, paid in full

[1] [a] Miserable comforters are ye all.
3 Shall [2] [b] vain words have an end?
Or what provoketh thee that thou answerest?
4 I also could speak as ye do;
If your soul were in my soul's stead,
I could join words together against you,
And [c] shake my head at you.
5 But I would strengthen you with my mouth,
And the solace of my lips would assuage your grief.

6 Though I speak, [d] my grief is not assuaged;
And though I forbear, [3] what am I eased?
7 But now he hath [e] made me weary:
Thou hast [f] made desolate all my company.
8 And thou hast [4] laid fast hold on me, [g] which is a witness against me:
And my [h] leanness riseth up against me,
It testifieth to my face.
9 He hath [i] torn me in his wrath, and [5] [k] persecuted me;
He hath [l] gnashed upon me with his teeth:
Mine [m] adversary sharpeneth his eyes upon me.
10 They have [n] gaped upon me with their mouth;
They have [o] smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully:
They [p] gather themselves together against me.
11 God delivereth me to the ungodly,
And casteth me into the hands of the wicked.
12 I was at ease, and [q] he brake me asunder;
Yea, he hath taken me by the neck, and dashed me to pieces:
He hath also [r] set me up for his mark.
13 His [6] [s] archers compass me round about;
He cleaveth my reins asunder, and [t] doth not spare;
He poureth out [u] my gall upon the ground.
14 He [v] breaketh me with breach upon breach;
He [x] runneth upon me like a [7] giant.
15 I have sewed [y] sackcloth upon my skin,
And have [8] laid my [z] horn in the dust.
16 My face is red with [a] weeping,
And on my eyelids is [b] the shadow of death;
17 Although there is no [c] violence in my hands,
And [d] my prayer is pure.

18 O earth, [e] cover not thou my blood,
And let my [f] cry [9] have no resting-place.
19 Even now, behold, [g] my witness is in heaven,
And he that voucheth for me is [h] on high.
20 My [i] friends scoff at me:
But [k] mine eye poureth out tears unto God,
21 [10] That he would [l] maintain the right of a man with God,
And of a son of man with his neighbor!
22 For when a few years are come,
I shall go the way [m] whence I shall not return.

17 My spirit is consumed, my days are extinct,
The [n] grave is ready for me.
2 Surely [o] there are [11] mockers with me,
And mine eye dwelleth upon their [p] provocation.

3 Give now a pledge, [q] be surety for me with thyself;
Who is there that will [r] strike hands with me?
4 For thou hast [s] hid their heart from understanding:
Therefore shalt thou not exalt them.
5 He that [t] denounceth his friends for a [12] prey,
Even the [u] eyes of his children shall fail.

6 But he hath made me a [v] byword of the people;
And they [x] spit in my face.
7 Mine eye also is [y] dim by reason of sorrow,
And all my [z] members are as a shadow.

Job laments his Dire State. Bildad's Second Speech. He reproaches Job. He depicts the Awful Lot of Sinners

8 Upright men shall be astonished at this,
And the [a] innocent shall stir up himself against the godless.
9 Yet shall [b] the righteous hold on his way,
And [c] he that hath clean hands shall wax stronger and stronger.
10 But as for you all, come on now again;
[1] And I [d] shall not find a wise man among you.
11 My [e] days are past, my purposes are broken off,
Even the [2] thoughts of my heart.
12 They change the night into day:
The light, say they, is near [3] unto the darkness.
13 If I [4] look for [f] Sheol as my house;
If I have spread my couch in the darkness;
14 If I have said to [5] [g] corruption,
Thou art my father;
To the [h] worm, Thou art my mother, and my sister;
15 Where then is [i] my hope?
And as for my hope, who shall see it?
16 It shall go down to the bars of Sheol,
When once there is [k] rest [l] in the dust.

18 Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,
2 How long will ye hunt for words?
Consider, and afterwards we will speak.
3 Wherefore are we [m] counted as beasts,
And are become [n] unclean in your sight?
4 Thou that tearest thyself in thine anger,
Shall the earth be forsaken for thee?
Or shall the [o] rock be removed out of its place?
5 Yea, the [p] light of the wicked shall be put out,
And the [6] spark of his fire shall not shine.
6 The light shall be [q] dark in his tent,
And his lamp [7] above him shall be put out.
7 The [r] steps of his strength shall be straitened,
And his [s] own counsel shall cast him down.
8 For he is [t] cast into a net by his own feet,
And he walketh upon the toils.
9 A [u] gin shall take him by the heel,
And a [v] snare shall lay hold on him.
10 A noose is hid for him in the ground,
And a [x] trap for him in the way.
11 [y] Terrors shall make him afraid on every side,
And shall [z] chase him at his heels.
12 His strength shall be [a] hunger-bitten,
And [b] calamity shall be ready [3] at his side.
13 The [8] members of his body shall be devoured,
Yea, the first-born of death shall [c] devour his members.
14 He shall be [d] rooted out of his tent wherein he trusteth;
And [10] he shall be brought to the king of [e] terrors.
15 [11] There shall dwell in his tent that which is none of his:
[f] Brimstone shall be scattered upon his habitation.
16 His [g] roots shall be dried up beneath,
And above shall his [h] branch [12] be cut off.
17 His [i] remembrance shall perish from the earth,
And he shall have no name in the street.
18 He shall be driven from light [k] into darkness,
And [l] chased out of the world.
19 He shall have [m] neither son nor son's son among his people,
Nor any remaining where he sojourned.
20 [13] They that come after shall be astonished at [n] his day,
As they that went before [14] were affrighted.

14 Heb. laid hold on horror.

21 Surely such are the [a]dwellings of the unrighteous,
And this is the place of him that [b]knoweth not God.

19 Then Job answered and said,
2 How long will ye vex my soul,
And break me in pieces with words?
3 These ten times have ye reproached me:
Ye are not ashamed that ye deal hardly with me.
4 And be it indeed that I have [c]erred,
Mine error remaineth with myself.
5 [1]If indeed ye will [d]magnify yourselves against me,
And plead against me my reproach;
6 Know now that [e]God hath [2]subverted me in my cause,
And hath compassed me with [f]his net.

7 Behold, [g]I [3]cry out of wrong, but I am not heard:
I cry for help, but there is no justice.
8 He hath [h]walled up my way that I cannot pass,
And hath set [i]darkness in my paths.
9 He hath stripped me of my [k]glory,
And taken the [l]crown from my head.
10 He hath [m]broken me down on every side, and I am gone;
And my [n]hope hath he plucked up [o]like a tree.
11 He hath also [p]kindled his wrath against me,
And [q]he counteth me unto him as one of his adversaries.
12 His [r]troops come on together,
And [s]cast up their way against me,
And encamp round about my tent.

13 He hath [t]put my brethren far from me,
And mine [u]acquaintance are wholly estranged from me.
14 My [v]kinsfolk have failed,
And my [x]familiar friends have forgotten me.

15 They that [4][y]dwell in my house, and my maids, count me for a stranger:
I am an alien in their sight.
16 I call unto my servant, and he giveth me no answer,
Though I entreat him with my mouth.
17 My breath is strange to my wife,
And [5]my supplication to the children [6]of mine own mother.
18 Even [z]young children despise me;
If I arise, they speak against me.
19 All [7]my [a]familiar friends abhor me,
And they whom I loved are turned against me.
20 My [b]bone cleaveth to my skin and to my flesh,
And I am escaped with the skin of my teeth.
21 Have pity upon me, have [c]pity upon me, O ye my friends;
For the [d]hand of God hath touched me.
22 Why do ye [e]persecute me as God,
And are not satisfied with my flesh?

23 Oh that my words were now written!
Oh that they were [f]inscribed in a book!
24 That with an [g]iron pen and lead
They were graven in the rock for ever!
25 [8]But as for me I know that [h]my [9]Redeemer liveth,
And at last he will stand up upon the [10]earth:
26 [11]And after my skin, even this body, is destroyed,
Then without my flesh shall I [i]see God;
27 Whom I, even I, shall see, [12]on my side,
And mine eyes shall behold, and not as a stranger.
My [13]heart [k]is consumed within me.
28 If ye say, How we will [l]persecute him!

Zophar's Second Speech. He declares that Sinners, however prosperous, must suffer Swift Vengeance

And that the root of the matter is found in me;
29 Be ye afraid of [a] the sword:
For [1] wrath bringeth the punishments of the sword,
That ye may know [b] there is a judgment.

20 Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,
2 Therefore do my thoughts give answer to me,
[2] Even by reason of my haste that is in me.
3 I have heard [c] the reproof which putteth me to shame;
[3] And the spirit of my understanding answereth me.
4 Knowest thou not this [d] of old time,
Since man was placed upon earth,
5 That the [e] triumphing of the wicked is short,
And the joy of the godless but [f] for a moment?
6 Though his height [g] mount up to the heavens,
And his head reach unto the clouds;
7 Yet he shall [h] perish for ever like his own dung:
They that have seen him [i] shall say, Where is he?
8 He shall fly away as a [k] dream, and shall not be found:
Yea, he shall be [l] chased away as a vision of the night.
9 The [m] eye which saw him shall see him no more;
Neither shall [n] his place any more behold him.
10 [4] His [o] children shall seek the favor of the poor,
And his hands shall [p] give back his wealth.
11 His [q] bones are full of his youth,
But it shall [r] lie down with him in the dust.

12 Though wickedness be [s] sweet in his mouth,
Though he hide it [t] under his tongue,
13 Though he spare it, and will not let it go,
But keep it still [u] within his mouth;

14 Yet his food in his bowels is turned,
It is the gall of asps within him.
15 He hath swallowed down riches,
and he shall [v] vomit them up again;
God will cast them out of his belly.
16 He shall suck [x] the poison of asps:
The viper's tongue shall slay him.
17 He shall not look upon [y] the rivers,
The flowing streams of honey and butter.
18 That which he labored for [z] shall he restore, and shall not swallow it down;
According to the substance [5] that he hath gotten, he shall not rejoice.
19 For he hath [a] oppressed and forsaken the poor;
He hath violently taken away a house, [6] and he shall not build it up.

20 Because he knew no quietness [7] within him,
He shall [b] not save aught of that wherein he delighteth.
21 There was nothing left that he devoured not;
Therefore [c] his prosperity shall not endure.
22 In [d] the fulness of his sufficiency he shall be in straits:
The [e] hand of every one that is in misery shall come upon him.
23 [8] When he is [f] about to fill his belly,
God will cast the fierceness of his wrath upon him,
And will [g] rain it upon him [9] while he is eating.
24 He shall flee from the iron weapon,
And the [h] bow of brass shall strike him through.
25 He draweth it forth, and it cometh out of his body;
Yea, the [i] glittering point cometh out of [k] his gall:
[l] Terrors are upon him.
26 All [m] darkness is laid up for his treasures:
A [n] fire not blown by man shall devour him;

Job's Seventh Speech. He complains of the Prosperity of the Wicked. He controverts the Doctrine that Sinners receive their Due

[1] It shall consume that which is left in his tent.

27 The [a] heavens shall reveal his iniquity,
And the earth shall rise up against him.

28 The [b] increase of his house shall depart;
His goods shall flow away [c] in the day of his wrath.

29 This is [d] the portion of a wicked man from God,
And the heritage appointed unto him by God.

21 Then Job answered and said,

2 Hear diligently my speech;
And let this be your consolations.

3 Suffer me, and I also will speak;
And after that I have spoken, [2] [e] mock on.

4 As for me, is [f] my complaint [3] to man?
And [g] why should I not be impatient?

5 [4] Mark me, and be astonished,
And [h] lay your hand upon your mouth.

6 Even when I remember I am troubled,
And [i] horror taketh hold on my flesh.

7 Wherefore [k] do the wicked live,
Become old, yea, wax [l] mighty in power?

8 Their [m] seed is established with them in their sight,
And their offspring before their eyes.

9 Their houses [n] are [5] safe from fear,
Neither is the rod of God upon them.

10 Their bull gendereth, and faileth not;
Their cow calveth, and [o] casteth not her calf.

11 They send forth their little ones like a flock,
And their children dance.

12 They [6] sing to the [p] timbrel and harp,
And rejoice at the sound of the [q] pipe.

13 They [r] spend their days in prosperity,
And [s] in a moment they go down to Sheol.

14 And they say unto God, [t] Depart from us;
For we [u] desire not the knowledge of thy ways.

15 [v] What is the Almighty, that we should serve him?
And [x] what profit should we have, if we pray unto him?

16 [7] Lo, their prosperity is not in their hand:
The [y] counsel of the wicked is far from me.

17 [8] How oft is it that [z] the lamp of the wicked is put out?
That their [a] calamity cometh upon them?
That God distributeth sorrows in his anger?

18 That they are as [b] stubble before the wind,
And as [c] chaff that the storm carrieth away?

19 [9] Ye say, [d] God layeth up his iniquity for his children.
Let him recompense it unto himself, that he may know it:

20 Let his [e] own eyes see his destruction,
And let him [f] drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

21 For what careth he for his house after him,
When the [g] number of his months is cut off?

22 Shall any [h] teach God knowledge,
Seeing he [i] judgeth those that are high?

23 One [k] dieth in his full strength,
Being wholly at ease and quiet:

24 His pails are full of milk,
And the [l] marrow of his bones is moistened.

25 And another dieth in [m] bitterness of soul,
And never tasteth of good.

26 They [n] lie down alike in the dust,
And the [o] worm covereth them.

27 Behold, I know your thoughts,
And the devices wherewith ye would wrong me.

28 For ye say, Where is the house of the [p] prince?

[1] Or, It shall go ill with him that is left

[5] Or, in peace, without fear

[8] Or, How oft is the lamp of the wicked put out, And how oft cometh their calamity upon them! God distributeth sorrows in his anger. They are as stubble . . . away.
[9] Or, God layeth up his iniquity for his children: He rewardeth him, and he shall know it. His eyes shall see his destruction, and he shall drink &c.

And where is the [a] tent wherein the wicked dwelt?
29 Have ye not asked wayfaring
men?
And do ye not know their evidences,
30 That the [b] evil man is [1] reserved to the day of calamity?
That they are [2] led forth to [c] the day of wrath?
31 Who shall declare his way to his face?
And who shall repay him what he hath done?
32 [3] Yet shall he be borne to the grave,
And men shall keep watch over the tomb.
33 The [d] clods of the valley shall be sweet unto him,
And [e] all men shall draw after him,
As there were innumerable before him.
34 How then [f] comfort ye me [4] in vain,
Seeing in your answers there remaineth only [5] falsehood?

22 Then answered Eliphaz
the Temanite, and said,
2 Can a [g] man be profitable unto God?
Surely he that is wise is profitable unto himself.
3 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou art righteous?
Or is it gain to him, that thou makest thy ways perfect?
4 Is it [6] for thy fear of him that he reproveth thee,
That he [h] entereth with thee
into judgment?
5 Is not [i] thy wickedness great?
Neither is there any end to thine iniquities.
6 For thou hast [k] taken pledges of thy brother for nought,
And [l] stripped the naked of their clothing.
7 Thou hast not [m] given water to the weary to drink,
And thou hast [n] withholden bread from the hungry.
8 But as for [7] the [o] mighty man,
he [p] had the [8] earth;
And [9] [q] the honorable man, he dwelt in it.

10 Therefore [t] snares are round about thee,
And sudden [u] fear troubleth
thee,
11 [10] Or [v] darkness, so that thou canst not see,
And [x] abundance of waters cover
thee.

12 Is not God [y] in the height of heaven?
And behold the [11] height of the stars, how high they are!
13 And thou sayest, [z] What doth
God know?
Can he judge through the thick
darkness?
14 Thick [a] clouds are a covering to him, so that he seeth not;
And he walketh on the vault of heaven.
15 [12] Wilt thou keep the [b] old way
Which wicked men have trodden?
16 Who were snatched away [c] before their time,
Whose [d] foundation was poured out as a stream,
17 Who [e] said unto God, Depart from us;

do [13] for [14] us?
18 Yet he [g] filled their houses with good things:
But [h] the counsel of the wicked is far from me.
19 The [i] righteous see it, and are glad;
And the innocent laugh them
to scorn,
20 Saying, Surely [k] they that did rise up against us are cut off,
And [15] the remnant of them [l] the fire hath consumed.

21 [m] Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace:
[16] Thereby good shall come unto
thee.
22 Receive, I pray thee, [17] the [n] law
from his mouth,
And lay up his words in thy heart.

10 Or, Or dost thou not see the darkness, And the flood of waters that covereth thee?

but to return to him. Job's Eighth Speech. He yearns for Access to God. He protests his Integrity in spite of God's Rigor 23 If thou [a]return to the Almighty, thou shalt be [b]built up,

[1]If thou [c]put away unrighteousness far from thy tents.
24 And [d]lay thou thy [2]treasure
[3]in the dust,
And the gold of Ophir among
the stones of the brooks;
25 And the [e]Almighty will be thy
[2]treasure,
And [4]precious silver unto thee.
26 For then shalt thou [f]delight
thyself in the Almighty,
And shalt [g]lift up thy face unto
God.
27 Thou shalt [h]make thy prayer unto him, and [i]he will hear
thee;
And thou shalt [k]pay thy vows.
28 Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it [l]shall be established unto thee;
And [m]light shall shine upon thy ways.
29 When they [5]cast thee down,
thou shalt say, There is lifting up;
And [6]the [n]humble person he will save.
30 He will [o]deliver even him that is not innocent:
Yea, he shall be delivered through the [p]cleanness of thy hands.

23 Then Job answered and said,
2 Even to-day is my [q]complaint
[7]rebellious:
My stroke is [r]heavier than my groaning.
3 Oh that I knew where I might
[s]find him!
That I might come even to his [t]seat!
4 I would [u]set my cause in order
before him,
And fill my mouth with arguments.
5 I would know the words which he would answer me,
And understand what he would say unto me.
6 Would he contend with me in
[v]the greatness of his power?
Nay; [8]but he would give heed unto me.
7 There the upright might [x]reason with him;
So should I be [y]delivered for ever from my judge.
8 Behold, I go forward, but he is not there;
And backward, but I [z]cannot perceive him;
9 On the left hand, when he doth work, but I cannot behold
him;
He [9]hideth himself on the right hand, that I cannot see him.

10 [10]But [a]he knoweth [11]the way that I take;
When he hath [b]tried me, I shall come forth as gold.
11 My foot hath [c]held fast to his steps;
His way have I kept, and turned not aside.
12 I have not gone back from the commandment of his lips;
I have treasured up the [d]words of his mouth [12]more than my [13]necessary food.
13 But [14]he is in one mind, and [e]who can turn him?
And what his soul [f]desireth,
even that he doeth.
14 For he performeth that which is [g]appointed for me:
And many such things are with
him.
15 Therefore am I terrified at his presence;
When I consider, I am afraid of
him.
16 For God hath made my [h]heart
faint,
And the Almighty hath terrified me;
17 [15]Because I [i]was not cut off before the darkness, Neither did he cover [k]the thick darkness from my face.

24 [16]Why are [l]times not [m]laid up by the Almighty?
And why do not they that know him see [n]his days?
2 There are that [o]remove the landmarks;
They [p]violently take away flocks, and feed them.
3 They drive away the ass of the fatherless;

Job says that God is indifferent to Wickedness; that Sinners perish, but only like all others. Bildad's Third Speech

They take the widow's ox for a [a]pledge.
4 They [b]turn the needy out of the way:
The [1]poor of the earth all [c]hide themselves.
5 Behold, as [d]wild asses in the desert
They [e]go forth to their work, seeking diligently for [2]food;
The wilderness yieldeth them bread for their children.
6 They cut [3]their provender in the field;
And they glean the vintage of the wicked.
7 They lie all night naked without clothing,
And have no covering in the cold.
8 They are wet with the showers of the mountains,
And [f]embrace the rock for want of a shelter.
9 There are that pluck the fatherless from the breast,
And [4]take a [g]pledge of the poor;
10 So that they go about [h]naked without clothing,
And being hungry they carry the sheaves.
11 They make oil within the walls of these men;
They tread their winepresses, and suffer thirst.
12 From out of the [5]populous city men groan,
And the soul of the [i]wounded crieth out:
Yet God [k]regardeth not the folly.

13 These are of them that [l]rebel against the light;
They know not the ways thereof,
Nor abide in the paths thereof.
14 The murderer [m]riseth with the light;
He [n]killeth the poor and needy;
And in the night he is as a thief.
15 The eye also of the [o]adulterer waiteth for the twilight,
Saying, No eye shall see me:
And he [6]disguiseth his face.
16 In the dark they [p]dig through houses:

[1] Or, meek [2] Heb. prey. [3] Or, his
[4] Or, take in pledge that which is on the poor
[5] Heb. city of men.
[6] Or, putteth a covering on his face

7 They shut themselves up in the day-time;
They know not the light.
17 For [8]the morning is to all of them as thick darkness;
For they know the [q]terrors of the thick darkness.

18 [9]Swiftly they [r]pass away upon the face of the waters;
Their portion is cursed in the earth:
They turn not into the way of the vineyards.
19 Drought and heat [10][s]consume the snow waters:
So doth [t]Sheol those that have sinned.
20 The womb shall [u]forget him;
The [v]worm shall feed sweetly on him;
He shall be [x]no more remembered;
And unrighteousness shall be broken [11][y]as a tree.
21 He devoureth the barren that beareth not,
And doeth not good to [z]the widow.
22 Yet God [a]preserveth the mighty by his power:
He riseth up that hath [b]no assurance of life.
23 God giveth them [c]to be in security, and they rest thereon;
[12]And his [d]eyes are upon their ways.
24 They are exalted; yet a [e]little while, and they are gone;
[13]Yea, they are [f]brought low, they are [14]taken out of the way as all others,
And are cut off as the tops of the [g]ears of grain.
25 And if it be not so now, [h]who will prove me a liar,
And make my speech nothing worth?

25 Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,
2 [i]Dominion and fear are with him;
He maketh peace in [k]his high places.
3 Is there any number of [l]his armies?

Man's Inferiority to God. Job's Ninth Speech. He admits God's Power, but affirms his own Integrity. The Sinner's Hope vain

And upon whom doth not his light arise?
4 How then can man be [a] just
[1] with God?
Or how can he be [b] clean that is born of a woman?
5 Behold, even [c] the moon hath no brightness,
And the [d] stars are not pure in his sight:
6 How much less [e] man, that is [f] a worm!
And the son of man, that is a worm!

26 Then Job answered and said,
2 How hast thou helped him that is [g] without power!
How hast thou saved the arm that [h] hath no strength!
3 How hast thou counselled him that hath no wisdom,
And plentifully declared sound knowledge!
4 To whom hast thou uttered words?
And whose [2] spirit came forth from thee?

5 [3] They that are [i] deceased tremble
Beneath the waters and the inhabitants thereof.
6 Sheol is [k] naked before [4] God,
And [5] [l] Abaddon hath no covering.
7 He [m] stretcheth out the north over empty space,
And hangeth the earth [6] upon nothing.
8 He [n] bindeth up the waters in his thick clouds;
And the cloud is not rent under
them.
9 He [o] incloseth the face of his throne,
And spreadeth his cloud upon it.
10 He hath described a [p] boundary upon the face of the waters,
Unto the [q] confines of light and
darkness.
11 The pillars of heaven tremble
And are astonished at his rebuke.
12 He [7] [r] stirreth up the sea with his power,
And by his [s] understanding he smiteth through [t] Rahab.

13 By his Spirit the [u] heavens are [8] garnished;
His hand hath pierced [v] the [9] swift serpent.
14 Lo, these are but the outskirts of his ways:
And [10] how small [x] a whisper [11] do we hear of him!
But the [y] thunder of his [12] power who can understand?

27 And Job again took up his [z] parable, and said,
2 As God liveth, [a] who hath taken away my right,
And the Almighty, [b] who hath
[13] vexed my soul
3 [14] (For my life is yet whole in me,
And the [c] spirit of God is in my nostrils);
4 Surely my lips [15] shall not speak
unrighteousness,
Neither [16] shall [d] my tongue utter deceit.
5 Far be it from me that I should justify you:
Till I die [e] I will not put away
mine integrity from me.
6 My righteousness I [f] hold fast,
and will not let it go:
My [g] heart [17] shall not reproach me so long as I live.
7 Let mine enemy be as the wicked,
And let him that riseth up against me be as the unrighteous.

8 For what is [h] the hope of the godless, [18] though he get him gain,
When God [i] taketh away his soul?
9 Will God [k] hear his cry,
When [l] trouble cometh upon
him?
10 Will he [m] delight himself in the Almighty,
And call upon God at all times?
11 I will teach you concerning the [n] hand of God;
That which is with the Almighty will I not conceal.
12 Behold, all ye yourselves have seen it;
Why then are ye become altogether vain?

Job depicts the Vanity of the Sinner's Hope. Man's Skill in finding the Treasures of the Earth. Wisdom a Richer Treasure, 13 This is [a] the portion of a wicked man with God,

And the heritage of [b] oppressors, which they receive from the Almighty:
14 If his [c] children be multiplied, it is for the sword;
And his [d] offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.
15 Those that remain of him shall be buried in death,
And his [e] widows shall make no lamentation.
16 Though he [f] heap up silver as the dust,
And prepare raiment as the clay;
17 He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on,
And the [g] innocent shall divide the silver.
18 He buildeth his [h] house as the moth,
And as a booth which the keeper maketh.
19 He lieth down rich, but he shall not be [i] gathered to his fathers;
He openeth his eyes, and [k] he is not.
20 [l] Terrors overtake him like waters;
A tempest stealeth him away [m] in the night.
21 The east [n] wind carrieth him away, and he departeth;
And it sweepeth him [o] out of his place.
22 For God shall hurl at him, and [p] not spare:
He would fain [q] flee out of his hand.
23 Men shall [r] clap their hands at him,
And shall [s] hiss him out of his place.

28 [1] Surely there is a mine for silver,
And a place for gold which they refine.
2 Iron is taken out of the [2] earth,
And [t] copper is molten out of the stone.
3 Man setteth an end to darkness,
And searcheth out, to the furthest bound,
The stones of obscurity and of thick darkness.
4 [3] He breaketh open a shaft away from where men sojourn;
They are forgotten of the foot;
They hang afar from men, they [4] swing to and fro.
5 As for the earth, [u] out of it cometh bread;
And underneath it is turned up as it were by fire.
6 The stones thereof are the place of sapphires,
[5] And it hath dust of gold.
7 That path no bird of prey knoweth,
Neither hath the falcon's eye seen it:
8 The [6] [v] proud beasts have not trodden it,
Nor hath the fierce lion passed thereby.
9 He putteth forth his hand upon the [x] flinty rock;
He overturneth the mountains by the roots.
10 He cutteth out [7] channels among the rocks;
And his eye seeth every precious thing.
11 He bindeth the streams [8] that they trickle not;
And the thing that is hid bringeth he forth to light.

12 But [y] where shall wisdom be found?
And where is the place of understanding?
13 Man knoweth not the price thereof;
Neither is it found in the land of the living.
14 The deep saith, It is not in me;
And the sea saith, It is not with me.
15 It cannot be gotten for [9] gold,
Neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.
16 It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir,
With the precious [10] onyx, or the sapphire.
17 [z] Gold and glass cannot equal it,
Neither shall it be exchanged for [11] jewels of fine gold.
18 No mention shall be made of coral or of crystal:
Yea, the price of [a] wisdom is above [12] rubies.
19 The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it,
Neither shall it be valued with [b] pure gold.

whose Source only God can make known. Job recalls his Past Happiness and Dignity 20 [a]Whence then cometh wisdom?

And where is the place of understanding?
21 Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living,
And kept close from the birds of the heavens.
22 [1][b]Destruction and Death say,
We have heard a rumor thereof with our ears.

23 [c]God understandeth the way thereof,
And he knoweth the place thereof.
24 For he [d]looketh to the ends of the earth,
And seeth under the whole heaven;
25 [2]To make a [e]weight for the wind:
Yea, he [f]meteth out the waters by measure.
26 When he made a [g]decree for the rain,
And a way for the [h]lightning of the thunder;
27 Then did he see it, and [3]declare it;
He established it, yea, and searched it out.
28 And unto man he said,
Behold, the [i]fear of the Lord, that is wisdom;
And to depart from evil is understanding.

29 And Job again took up his [k]parable, and said,
2 Oh that I were as in the months of old,
As in the days when God [l]watched over me;
3 When his lamp shined [4]upon my head,
And [m]by his light I walked through darkness;
4 As I was in [5]the ripeness of my days,
When the [6][n]friendship of God was upon my tent;
5 When the Almighty was yet with me,
And my children were about me;
6 When my steps were washed with [o]butter,
And the [p]rock poured me out streams of oil!
7 When I went forth to [q]the gate unto the city,
When I prepared my seat in the [7]street,
8 The young men saw me and hid themselves,
And the aged rose up and stood;
9 The princes [r]refrained from talking,
And [s]laid their hand on their mouth;
10 The voice of the nobles [t]was [8]hushed,
And their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.
11 For when [u]the ear heard me, then it blessed me;
And when the eye saw me, it gave witness unto me:
12 Because I [v]delivered the poor that cried,
The [x]fatherless also, [9]that had none to help him.
13 The [y]blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me;
And I caused the [z]widow's heart to sing for joy.
14 I [a]put on righteousness, and it [10]clothed me:
My justice was as a robe and a [11]diadem.
15 I was eyes to the blind,
And feet was I to the lame.
16 I was a father to [b]the needy:
And [12]the cause of him that I knew not I searched out.
17 And I [c]brake the [13]jaws of the unrighteous,
And plucked the prey out of his teeth.
18 Then [d]I said, I shall die [14]in my nest,
And I shall multiply my days as the sand:
19 My [e]root is [15]spread out [16]to the waters,
And the [f]dew lieth all night upon my branch:
20 My glory is fresh in me,
And my [g]bow is renewed in my hand.
21 Unto me [h]men gave ear, and waited,
And kept silence for my counsel.
22 After my words they [i]spake not again;
And [k]my speech distilled upon them.
23 And they waited for me as for the rain;
