Job bewails the Contumely to which he is subject, and the Harshness of God's Dealings with him

And they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain.
24 I smiled on them, when they had no confidence;
And the light of my countenance they cast not down.
25 I chose out their way, and sat as [a] chief,
And dwelt as a king in the army,
As one that [b] comforteth the mourners.

30 But now they that are younger than I [c] have me in derision,
Whose fathers I disdained to set with the dogs of my flock.
2 Yea, the strength of their hands, whereto should it profit me?
Men in whom [1] ripe age is perished.
3 They are gaunt with want and famine;
[2] They gnaw the dry ground, [3] in the gloom of wasteness and desolation.
4 They pluck salt-wort by the bushes;
And the roots of the broom are [4] their food.
5 They are driven forth from the midst of men;
They cry after them as after a thief;
6 So that they dwell in frightful valleys,
In holes of the earth and of the rocks.
7 Among the bushes they bray;
Under the [5] nettles they [6] are gathered together.
8 They are children of fools, yea, children of [7] base men;
They [8] were scourged out of the land.

9 And now I am become their [d] song,
Yea, I am a byword unto them.
10 They abhor me, they stand aloof from me,
And spare not to [e] spit [9] in my face.
11 For he hath loosed [10] his cord, and [f] afflicted me;
And they have [g] cast off the bridle before me.
12 Upon my right hand rise the [11] rabble;
They [h] thrust aside my feet,
And [i] they cast up against me their ways of destruction.
13 They [12] [k] mar my path,
They set forward my calamity,
Even men that have no helper.
14 [13] As through a wide breach they come:
In the midst of the ruin they roll themselves upon me.
15 [l] Terrors are turned upon me;
[14] They chase [15] mine honor as the wind;
And my welfare is passed away [m] as a cloud.

16 And now [n] my soul is poured out [16] within me;
Days of affliction have taken hold upon me.
17 In the night season [o] my bones are [17] pierced [18] in me,
And [19] the pains that gnaw me take no rest.
18 By God's great force is my garment [p] disfigured;
It bindeth me about as the collar of my coat.
19 He hath cast me into [q] the mire,
And I am become like dust and ashes.
20 I [r] cry unto thee, and thou dost not answer me:
I stand up, and thou gazest at me.
21 Thou art turned to be cruel to me;
With the might of thy hand thou [s] persecutest me.
22 Thou [t] liftest me up to the wind, thou causest me to ride upon it;
And thou dissolvest me in the storm.
23 For I know that thou [u] wilt bring me to death,
And to [20] the [v] house appointed for all living.

24 Howbeit doth not one stretch out the hand in his fall?
Or in his calamity therefore [x] cry for help?

In his Affliction Job protests the Integrity of his Life

25 Did not I [a]weep for him that was in trouble?
Was not my soul grieved for [b]the needy?
26 When I [c]looked for good, then evil came;
And when I waited for light, [d]there came darkness.
27 My [e]heart is troubled, and resteth not;
Days of affliction are come upon me.
28 I go [1][f]mourning without the sun:
I stand up in the assembly, and [g]cry for help.
29 I am a brother to [h]jackals,
And a companion to ostriches.
30 My [i]skin is black, and falleth from me,
And my [k]bones are burned with heat.
31 Therefore is my [l]harp turned to mourning,
And my pipe into the voice of them that weep.

31 I made a covenant with mine eyes;
How then should I [m]look upon a virgin?
2 [2]For what is [n]the portion from God above,
And the heritage from the Almighty on high?
3 Is it not [o]calamity to the unrighteous,
And disaster to [p]the workers of iniquity?
4 Doth not he [q]see my ways,
And [r]number all my steps?

5 If I have [s]walked with falsehood,
And my foot hath hasted to deceit
6 (Let me be [t]weighed in an even balance,
That God may know [u]mine integrity);
7 If my step hath [v]turned out of the way,
And my heart walked after mine eyes,
And if any [z]spot hath cleaved to my hands:
8 Then let me [y]sow, and let another eat;
Yea, let [3][z]the produce of my field be rooted out.

9 If my heart hath been [a]enticed unto a woman,
And I have laid wait at my neighbor's door;
10 Then let my wife [b]grind unto another,
And let [c]others bow down upon her.
11 For that were a [d]heinous crime;
Yea, it were [e]an iniquity to be punished by the judges:
12 For it is [f]a fire that consumeth unto [4][g]Destruction,
And would [h]root out all mine increase.
13 If I have [i]despised the cause of my man-servant or of my maid-servant,
When they contended with me;
14 What then shall I do when God riseth up?
And when he visiteth, what shall I answer him?
15 Did not [k]he that made me in the womb make him?
And did not one fashion us in the womb?

16 If I have [l]withheld [5]the poor from their desire,
Or have caused the eyes of [m]the widow to fail,
17 Or have [n]eaten my morsel alone,
And [o]the fatherless hath not eaten thereof
18 (Nay, from my youth he grew up with me as with a father,
And her have I guided from my mother's womb);
19 If I have seen any perish [p]for want of clothing,
Or that [q]the needy had no covering;
20 If his loins have not blessed me,
And if he hath not been warmed with the fleece of my sheep;
21 If I have lifted up my hand against [r]the fatherless,
Because I saw my help [s]in the gate:
22 Then let my shoulder fall from the shoulder-blade,
And mine [t]arm be broken from the bone.
23 For [u]calamity from God is a terror to me,
And by reason of [v]his majesty I can do nothing.

[1] Or, blackened, but not by the sun
[2] Or, For what portion should I have of God . . . And what heritage &c.? Is there not calamity &c.?
[3] Or, my offspring Heb. my produce.
[4] Heb. Abaddon. See ch. 26. 6.
[5] Or, aught that the poor desired

24 If I have made [a] gold my hope,
And have said to the fine gold,
Thou art my confidence;
25 If I have [b] rejoiced because my wealth was great,
And because my hand had gotten much;
26 If I have [c] beheld [1] the sun when it shined,
Or the moon walking in brightness,
27 And my heart hath been secretly enticed,
And [2] my mouth hath kissed my hand:
28 This also were [d] an iniquity to be punished by the judges;
For I should have [e] denied the God that is above.
29 If I have [f] rejoiced at the destruction of him that hated me,
Or lifted up myself when evil found him
30 (Yea, [g] I have not suffered my [3] mouth to sin
By asking his life with [h] a curse);
31 If the men of my tent have not said,
Who can find one that hath not been [i] filled with his meat?
32 (The [k] sojourner hath not lodged in the street;
But I have opened my doors to [4] the traveller):
33 If [5] like Adam I have [l] covered my transgressions,
By hiding mine iniquity in my bosom,
34 Because I [m] feared the great multitude,
And the contempt of families terrified me,
So that I kept silence, and went not out of the door—
35 Oh that I had one to hear me!
(Lo, here is my [6] signature, [n] let the Almighty answer me)
And that I had the [7] indictment which mine [o] adversary hath written!
36 Surely I would carry it upon my shoulder;
I would bind it unto me as a crown:
37 I would declare unto him [p] the number of my steps;
As [q] a prince would I [8] go near unto him.

38 If my [r] land crieth out against me,

39 If I have [s] eaten the [9] fruits thereof without money,
Or have [t] caused the owners thereof to lose their life:
40 Let [10] [u] thistles grow instead of wheat,
And [11] cockle instead of barley.

The words of Job are ended.

32 So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was [v] righteous in his own eyes. 2 Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel the [x] Buzite, of the family of Ram: [a] against Job was his wrath kindled, [y] because he justified himself [z] rather than God. 3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had [a] condemned Job. 4 Now Elihu had [12] waited to speak unto Job, because they were elder than he. 5 And when Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his wrath was kindled.

6 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said,
I am young, and ye are very [b] old;
Wherefore I held back, and durst not show you mine opinion.
7 I said, Days should speak,
And multitude of years should teach wisdom.
8 But there is a [c] spirit in man,
And the [d] breath of the Almighty giveth them [e] understanding.
9 It is [f] not the great that are wise,
Nor the [g] aged that understand justice.
10 Therefore I [13] said, Hearken to me;
I also will show mine opinion.

11 Behold, I waited for your words,
I listened for your reasonings,
Whilst ye [h] searched out what to say
12 Yea, I attended unto you,
And, behold, there was none that convinced Job,

1 Heb. the light.
2 Heb. my hand hath kissed my mouth.
3 Heb. palate. 4 Heb. the way.
5 Or, after the manner of men 6 Heb. mark.
7 Heb. book. 8 Or, present it to him
9 Heb. strength. 10 Or, thorns
11 Or, noisome weeds
12 Heb. waited for Job with words. 13 Or, say

Or that answered his words, among you.

13 [1] Beware [a] lest ye say, We have found wisdom;
God may vanquish him, not man:
14 For he hath not directed his words against me;
Neither will I answer him with your speeches.

15 They are amazed, they answer no more:
They have not a word to say.
16 And shall I wait, because they speak not,
Because they stand still, and answer no more?
17 I also will answer my part,
I also will show mine opinion.
18 For I am full of words;
The spirit within me [b] constraineth me.
19 Behold, my breast is as wine which hath no vent;
Like new [c] wine-skins [2] it is ready to burst.
20 I will speak, that I may [3] be refreshed;
I will open my lips and answer.
21 Let me not, I pray you, [d] respect any man's person;
Neither will I give flattering titles unto any man.
22 For I know not to [e] give flattering titles;
Else would my Maker soon take me away.

33 Howbeit, Job, I pray thee, hear my speech,
And hearken to all my words.
2 Behold now, I have opened my mouth;
My tongue hath spoken in my [4] mouth.
3 My words shall utter the uprightness of my heart;
And [f] that which my lips know they shall speak sincerely.
4 The [g] Spirit of God hath made me,
And the [h] breath of the Almighty giveth me life.
5 If thou canst, [i] answer thou me;
[k] Set thy words in order before me, stand forth.
6 Behold, [5] I am toward God even as thou art:

[1] Or, Lest ye should say, We have found out wisdom; God thrusteth him down, not man: Now he &c. [2] Or, which are ready
[3] Or, find relief [4] Heb. palate.
[5] Or, I am according to thy wish in God's stead

I also am formed out of the [l] clay.
7 Behold, my [m] terror shall not make thee afraid,
Neither shall my [n] pressure be heavy upon thee.

8 Surely thou hast spoken in my hearing,
And I have heard the voice of thy words, saying,
9 I am [o] clean, [p] without transgression;
I am innocent, neither [q] is there iniquity in me:
10 Behold, he findeth [6] occasions against me,
He [r] counteth me for his enemy;
11 He [s] putteth my feet in the stocks,
He [t] marketh all my paths.
12 Behold, [7] I will answer thee, in this thou art not just;
For God is greater than man.

13 Why dost thou [u] strive against him,
For that he giveth not account of any of his matters?
14 For [v] God speaketh [8] once,
Yea twice, though man regardeth it not.
15 In a [x] dream, in a vision of the night,
When deep sleep falleth upon men,
In slumberings upon the bed;
16 Then [y] he [9] openeth the ears of men,
And sealeth their instruction,
17 [10] That he may withdraw man from his purpose,
And hide pride from man;
18 [11] He [z] keepeth back his soul from the pit,
And his life from perishing [a] by the [12] sword.

19 He is chastened also with [b] pain upon his bed,
[13] And with continual strife in his bones;
20 So that his life [c] abhorreth bread,
And his soul dainty food.
21 His [d] flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen;

[6] Or, causes of alienation
[7] Or, in this thou art not just: I will answer thee; For &c. [8] Or, in one way, yea, in two
[9] Heb. uncovereth.
[10] Or, That man may put away his purpose, And that he may hide
[11] Or, That he may keep back [12] Or, weapons
[13] Another reading is, While all his bones are firm.

And his [a] bones that were not seen stick out.
22 Yea, [b] his soul draweth near unto the pit,
And his life to the destroyers.

23 If there be with him [1] an angel,
An [c] interpreter, one [2] among a thousand,
To [d] show unto man [3] what is right for him;
24 [4] Then God is gracious unto him, and saith,
Deliver him from [e] going down to the pit,
I have found a [f] ransom.
25 His [g] flesh shall be fresher than a child's;
He returneth to the days of his youth.
26 He [h] prayeth unto God, and he is favorable unto him,
So that [i] he seeth his face with joy:
And he [k] restoreth unto man his righteousness.
27 He [5] [l] singeth before men, and saith,
I [m] have sinned, and perverted that which was right,
And [6] it [n] profited me not:
28 He hath [o] redeemed my soul from going into the pit,
And my life shall [p] behold the light.

29 Lo, [q] all these things doth God work,
Twice, yea thrice, with a man,
30 To [r] bring back his soul from the pit,
That he may be enlightened with the [s] light of [7] the living.
31 Mark well, O Job, hearken unto me:
Hold thy peace, and I will speak.
32 If thou hast anything to say, answer me:
Speak, for I desire to justify thee.
33 If not, hearken thou unto me:
[t] Hold thy peace, and I will teach thee wisdom.

34 Moreover Elihu answered and said,
2 Hear my words, ye wise men;
And give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge.
3 For [u] the ear trieth words,
As the palate tasteth food.
4 Let us [v] choose for us that which is right:
Let us know among ourselves what is good.
5 For Job hath said, [x] I am righteous,
And [y] God hath taken away my right:
6 [8] Notwithstanding my right I am accounted a liar;
[9] My [z] wound is incurable, though I am without transgression.
7 What man is like Job,
Who [a] drinketh up scoffing like water,
8 Who goeth [b] in company with the workers of iniquity,
And walketh with wicked men?
9 For he hath said, [c] It profiteth a man nothing
That he should [10] delight himself with God.

10 Therefore hearken unto me, ye men of understanding:
Far be it from God, that he should [d] do wickedness,
And from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.
11 For [e] the work of a man will he render unto him,
And cause every man to find according to his ways.
12 Yea, of a surety, [f] God will not do wickedly,
Neither will the Almighty pervert justice.
13 Who gave him a charge over the earth?
Or who [g] hath [11] disposed the whole world?
14 [12] If he set his heart upon [13] himself,
If he [h] gather unto himself his spirit and his breath;
15 All [i] flesh shall perish together,
And man shall [k] turn again unto dust.

16 [14] If now thou hast understanding, hear this:

[1] Or, a messenger [2] Or, of the thousand
[3] Or, his uprightness
[4] Or, And he be gracious . . . and say . . . ransom: his flesh &c. [5] Or, looketh upon men
[6] Or, it was not requited unto me Or, it was not meet for me [7] Or, life
[8] Or, Should I lie against my right?

[11] Or, laid upon him
[12] According to another reading, If he cause his heart to return unto himself.
[13] Or, man Heb. him. [14] Or, Only understand

17 Shall even [a]one that hateth justice govern?
And [b]wilt thou condemn him that is righteous and mighty?—
18 [1]Him that [c]saith to a king, Thou art vile,
Or to [d]nobles, Ye are wicked;
19 That [e]respecteth not the persons of princes,
Nor regardeth the rich more than the poor;
For they all are the [f]work of his hands.
20 In a moment they die, [2]even [g]at midnight;
The people are shaken and pass away,
And [h]the mighty are taken away without hand.

21 For [i]his eyes are upon the ways of a man,
And he seeth all his goings.
22 There is [k]no darkness, nor thick gloom,
Where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.
23 For he [l]needeth not further to consider a man,
That he should go before God in judgment.
24 He breaketh in pieces [m]mighty men [3]in ways past finding out,
And setteth others in their stead.
25 Therefore he [n]taketh knowledge of their works;
And [o]he overturneth them in the night, so that they are [4]destroyed.
26 He [p]striketh them as wicked men
[5]In the open sight of others;
27 Because they [q]turned aside from following him,
And would not [r]have regard to any of his ways:
28 [6]So that they caused [s]the cry of the poor to come unto him,
And he [t]heard the cry of the afflicted.
29 When he [u]giveth quietness, who then can condemn?
And when he hideth his face, who then can behold him?
Alike whether it be done unto a nation, or unto a man:

[1] The Heb. as pointed reads, Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art vile? Or to nobles, Ye are wicked? [2] Or, and at midnight the people &c.
[3] Or, without inquisition [4] Heb. crushed.
[5] Heb. In the place of beholders.
[6] Or, That they might cause . . . And that he might hear

30 That the [v]godless man reign not,
That there be none to ensnare the people.

31 For hath any said unto God,
I have [x]borne chastisement, [7]I will not offend any more:
32 That which I see not [y]teach thou me:
If I have [z]done iniquity, I will do it no more?
33 Shall his [a]recompense be as thou wilt, that thou refusest it?
For thou must choose, and not I:
Therefore speak what thou knowest.
34 Men of understanding will say unto me,
Yea, every wise man that heareth me:
35 Job [b]speaketh without knowledge,
And his words are without wisdom.
36 Would that Job were [c]tried unto the end,
Because of his answering [d]like wicked men.
37 For he addeth [e]rebellion unto his sin;
He [f]clappeth his hands among us,
And multiplieth his words against God.

35 Moreover Elihu answered and said,
2 Thinkest thou this to be thy right,
Or sayest thou, [g]My righteousness is more than God's,
3 That thou sayest, [h]What advantage will it be unto thee?
And, [i]What profit shall I have, more than if I had sinned?
4 I will answer thee,
And thy companions with thee.
5 [k]Look unto the heavens, and see;
And behold [l]the skies, which are higher than thou.
6 If thou hast sinned, [m]what effectest thou against him?
And if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto him?
7 If thou be righteous, [n]what givest thou him?
Or what receiveth he of thy hand?

[7] Or, though I offend not

8 Thy [a] wickedness may hurt a man as thou art;
And thy righteousness may profit a son of man.

9 By reason of the multitude of oppressions they [b] cry out;
They cry for help by reason of the arm [c] of the mighty.
10 But [d] none saith, Where is God my Maker,
Who [e] giveth songs in the night,
11 Who [f] teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth,
And maketh us [g] wiser than the birds of the heavens?
12 There they [h] cry, [1] but none giveth answer,
Because of the pride of evil men.
13 Surely [i] God will not hear an empty cry,
Neither will the Almighty regard it.
14 How much less when [k] thou sayest [2] thou beholdest him not,
The [l] cause is before him, and thou waitest for him!
15 But now, [m] because he hath not visited in his anger,
[3] Neither doth he greatly regard arrogance;
16 Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vanity;
He [n] multiplieth words [o] without knowledge.

36 Elihu also proceeded, and said,
2 [4] Suffer me a little, and I will show thee;
For [5] I have yet somewhat to say on God's behalf.
3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar,
And will ascribe [p] righteousness to my Maker.
4 For truly [q] my words are not false:
One that is [r] perfect in knowledge is with thee.
5 Behold, God is mighty, and [s] despiseth not any:
He is [t] mighty in strength of [6] understanding.
6 He [u] preserveth not the life of the wicked,

[1] Or, but he answereth not
[2] Or, thou beholdest him not! The cause is before him; therefore wait thou for him
[3] Or, Thou sayest, He doth not greatly regard arrogance. Thus doth &c. [4] Heb. Wait for.
[5] Heb. there are yet words for God.
[6] Heb. heart.

But giveth to [v] the afflicted their right.
7 He [x] withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous:
But [y] with kings upon the throne
He setteth them for ever, and they are exalted.
8 And if they be [z] bound in fetters,
And be taken in the cords [a] of affliction;
9 Then he [b] showeth them their work,
And their transgressions, that they have [c] behaved themselves proudly.
10 He [d] openeth also their ear to instruction,
And [e] commandeth that they return from iniquity.
11 [f] If they hearken and serve him,
They shall spend their days in prosperity,
And their years in [7] pleasures.
12 But if they hearken not, they shall perish [g] by [8] the sword,
And they shall [h] die without knowledge.
13 But they that are godless in heart [i] lay up anger:
They cry not for help when he bindeth them.
14 [9] They [k] die in youth,
And their life perisheth [10] among the [11] unclean.
15 He [l] delivereth the afflicted [12] by their affliction,
And [m] openeth their ear [13] in oppression.
16 Yea, he would have [n] allured thee [14] out of distress
Into a [o] broad place, where there is no straitness;
And that which is set on thy [p] table would be full of fatness.

17 But thou [15] art full of [q] the judgment of the wicked:
Judgment and justice take hold on thee.
18 [16] For let not [r] wrath stir thee up against chastisements;
Neither let the greatness of the [s] ransom turn thee aside.
19 Will thy cry avail, that thou be not in distress,
Or all the forces of thy strength?

Elihu exhorts Job to submit to God, and to magnify God's Unsearchable Greatness

When peoples [1] are cut off in their place.
21 Take heed, [a] regard not iniquity:
For this hast thou chosen rather than [b] affliction.
22 Behold, God doeth loftily in his power:
Who is a [c] teacher like unto him?
23 Who hath [d] enjoined him his way?
Or who can say, [c] Thou hast wrought unrighteousness?

24 Remember that thou [f] magnify his work,
Whereof men have [g] sung.
25 All men have looked thereon;
Man beholdeth it afar off.
26 Behold, [h] God is great, and we know him not;
The [i] number of his years is unsearchable.
27 For [k] he draweth up the drops of water,
Which distil in rain [2] from [3] his vapor,
28 Which the skies pour down
And drop upon man abundantly.
29 Yea, can any understand the [l] spreadings of the clouds,
The [m] thunderings of his pavilion?
30 Behold, he spreadeth his light [4] around him;
And he [5] covereth the bottom of the sea.
31 For by these he [n] judgeth the peoples;
He [o] giveth food in abundance.
32 He covereth his hands with the [6] lightning,
And [p] giveth it a charge [7] that it strike the mark.
33 The [q] noise thereof telleth concerning [8] him,
The cattle also concerning [9] the storm that cometh up.

37 Yea, at this my heart trembleth,
And is moved out of its place.
2 Hear, oh, hear the [r] noise of his voice,
And the [10] sound that goeth out of his mouth.
3 He sendeth it forth under the whole heaven,
And his [6] lightning unto the [11] ends of the earth.
4 After it a voice roareth;
He [t] thundereth with the voice of his majesty;
And he restraineth not [12] the lightnings when his voice is heard.
5 God thundereth marvellously with his voice;
[u] Great things doeth he, which we [v] cannot comprehend.
6 For he saith to [z] the snow, Fall thou on the earth;
Likewise to the [y] shower of rain,
And to the showers of his mighty rain.
7 He [z] sealeth up the hand of every man,
That all men whom he hath made may know it.
8 Then the beasts go into [a] coverts,
And remain in their dens.
9 Out of the [b] chamber of the south cometh the storm,
And [c] cold out of the [13] north.
10 By the breath of God [d] ice is given;
And the breadth of the waters is [14] straitened.
11 Yea, [e] he ladeth the thick cloud with moisture;
He [f] spreadeth abroad [g] the cloud of his [6] lightning:
12 And it is turned round about by his guidance,
That they may do whatsoever he [h] commandeth them
Upon the [i] face of the [k] habitable world,
13 Whether it be for [l] correction, or for [m] his [15] land,
Or for [n] lovingkindness, that he cause it to come.

14 Hearken unto this, O Job:
Stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.
15 Dost thou know how God layeth his charge upon them,
And causeth the [6] lightning of his cloud to shine?
16 Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds,
The [o] wondrous works of him who [p] is perfect in knowledge?
17 [16] How thy garments are warm,
[17] When the earth is still by reason of the south wind?

Jehovah speaks, and sets forth Job's Ignorance of the Creation and Constitution of the Earth; of Light,

18 Canst thou with him [a]spread out the sky,
Which is strong as a molten mirror?
19 Teach us what we shall say unto him;
For we [b]cannot set our speech in order by reason of darkness.
20 Shall it be told him that I would speak?
[1] Or should a man wish that he were swallowed up?

21 And now men [2]see not the light which is bright in the skies;
But the wind passeth, and cleareth them.
22 Out of the north cometh [3]golden splendor:
God [c]hath upon him terrible majesty.
23 Touching the Almighty, [d]we cannot find him out:
He is [e]excellent in power;
And [4][f]in justice and plenteous righteousness [g]he will not afflict.
24 Men do therefore fear him:
He [h]regardeth not any that are wise of heart.

38 Then Jehovah [i]answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said,
2 Who is this that [k]darkeneth counsel
By [l]words without knowledge?
3 [m]Gird up now thy loins like a man;
For [n]I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.
4 Where wast thou [o]when I laid the foundations of the earth?
Declare, [5]if thou hast understanding.
5 Who determined the [p]measures thereof, [6]if thou knowest?
Or who stretched the line upon it?
6 Whereupon [q]were the [7]foundations thereof [8]fastened?
Or who laid the corner-stone thereof,
7 When the morning stars sang together,
And all the [r]sons of God shouted for joy?

8 Or who shut up the sea with doors,
When it brake forth, [9]as if it had issued out of the womb;
9 When I made [s]clouds the garment thereof,
And thick darkness a swaddling-band for it,
10 And [10][t]marked out for it my bound,
And set bars and doors,
11 And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further;
And here shall thy proud waves be stayed?

12 Hast thou commanded the morning since thy days began,
And caused the dayspring to know its place;
13 That it might take hold of [u]the ends of the earth,
And [v]the wicked be shaken out of it?
14 It is changed as clay under the seal;
And all things stand forth [11]as a garment:
15 And [x]from the wicked their light is withholden,
And the [y]high arm is broken.

16 Hast thou entered into [z]the springs of the sea?
Or hast thou walked in the [12]recesses of the deep?
17 Have the [a]gates of death been revealed unto thee?
Or hast thou seen the gates of the [b]shadow of death?
18 Hast thou comprehended [c]the earth in its breadth?
Declare, if thou knowest it all.

19 Where is the way to the dwelling of light?
And as for darkness, where is the place thereof,
20 That thou shouldest take it to [d]the bound thereof,
And that thou shouldest discern the [e]paths to the house thereof?
21 Doubtless, thou knowest, for [f]thou wast then born,
And the number of thy days is great!

Snow, Hail, Rain, and Ice; of the Celestial World; of the Ways of Lions, Wild Goats, Hinds, Wild Asses, and Wild-oxen

22 Hast thou entered the treasuries [a] of the snow,
Or hast thou seen the treasuries of the [b] hail,
23 Which I have reserved against the time of trouble,
Against the day of battle and war?
24 [1] By what way is [c] the light parted,
Or the [d] east wind scattered upon the earth?

25 Who hath cleft a channel for the waterflood,
Or a [e] way for the lightning of the thunder;
26 To cause it to [f] rain on a land where no man is;
On the [g] wilderness, wherein there is no man;
27 To [h] satisfy the waste and desolate ground,
And to cause [i] the [2] tender grass to spring forth?
28 Hath [k] the rain a father?
Or who hath begotten the drops of dew?
29 Out of whose womb came the [l] ice?
And the hoary frost of heaven, who hath [3] gendered it?
30 The waters [4] hide themselves and become like stone,
And the face of the deep [5] is frozen.

31 Canst thou bind the [6] cluster of the [m] Pleiades,
Or loose the bands of Orion?
32 Canst thou lead forth [7] the [n] Mazzaroth in their season?
Or canst thou guide the [m] Bear with her [8] train?
33 Knowest thou the [o] ordinances of the heavens?
Canst thou establish the dominion thereof in the earth?

34 Canst thou lift up thy voice to the clouds,
That [p] abundance of waters may cover thee?
35 Canst thou [q] send forth lightnings, that they may go,
And say unto thee, Here we are?
36 Who hath [r] put wisdom in the [9] inward parts?
Or who hath given [s] understanding to the [10] mind?
37 Who can number the clouds by wisdom?
Or who can [11] [t] pour out the bottles of heaven,
38 When the dust runneth into a mass,
And the clods cleave fast together?

39 Canst thou hunt the [u] prey for the lioness,
Or satisfy the appetite of the young lions,
40 When they [v] couch in their dens,
And [x] abide in the covert to lie in wait?
41 Who provideth for [y] the raven his prey,
When his young ones cry unto God,
And wander for lack of food?

39 Knowest thou the time when the [z] wild goats of the rock bring forth?
Or canst thou mark when the [a] hinds do calve?
2 Canst thou number the months that they fulfil?
Or knowest thou the time when they bring forth?
3 They [b] bow themselves, they bring forth their young,
They cast out their pains.
4 Their young ones become strong, they grow up in the open field;
They go forth, and [12] return not again.

5 Who hath sent out the [c] wild ass free?
Or who hath loosed the bonds of the swift ass,
6 Whose home I have made [d] the wilderness,
And the [e] salt land his dwelling-place?
7 He scorneth the tumult of the city,
Neither heareth he the shoutings of the [13] driver.
8 The range of the mountains is his [f] pasture,
And he searcheth after every green thing.
9 Will the [g] wild-ox be content to serve thee?
Or will he abide by thy crib?
10 Canst thou bind the wild-ox with his band in the furrow?

Jehovah sets forth Job's Ignorance of the Ostrich, the Horse, the Hawk, and the Eagle. Job submits. Jehovah's Challenge

Or will he harrow the valleys after thee?
11 Wilt thou trust him, because his strength is great?
Or wilt thou leave to him thy labor?
12 Wilt thou confide in him, that he will bring home thy seed,
And gather the grain of thy threshing-floor?

13 The wings of the [a]ostrich wave proudly;
But are they the pinions and plumage of [1]love?
14 For she leaveth her eggs on the earth,
And warmeth them in the dust,
15 And forgetteth that the foot may crush them,
Or that the wild beast may trample them.
16 She [2]dealeth [b]hardly with her young ones, as if they were not hers:
Though her labor be in vain, she is [c]without fear;
17 Because God [d]hath [3]deprived her of wisdom,
Neither hath he imparted to her understanding.
18 What time she [4]lifteth up herself on high,
She scorneth the horse and his rider.

19 Hast thou given the [e]horse his might?
Hast thou clothed his neck with the [5]quivering mane?
20 Hast thou made him to [f]leap as a locust?
The glory of his [g]snorting is terrible.
21 [6]He paweth in the valley, and rejoiceth in his strength:
He [h]goeth out to meet [7]the armed men.
22 He mocketh at fear, and is not dismayed;
Neither turneth he back from the sword.
23 The quiver rattleth [8]against him,
The flashing spear and the javelin.
24 He swalloweth the ground with fierceness and rage;
Neither [9]believeth he that it is the [i]voice of the trumpet.
25 As oft as the trumpet soundeth he saith, Aha!
And he smelleth the battle afar off,
The thunder of the captains, and the [k]shouting.

26 Is it by thy wisdom that the hawk soareth,
And stretcheth her wings toward the south?
27 Is it at thy command that the eagle mounteth up,
And maketh [l]her nest on high?
28 On the cliff she dwelleth, and maketh her home,
Upon the point of the cliff, and the stronghold.
29 From thence she [m]spieth out the prey;
Her eyes behold it afar off.
30 Her young ones also suck up blood:
And [n]where the slain are, there is she.

40 Moreover Jehovah answered Job, and said,
2 Shall he that cavilleth [o]contend with the Almighty?
He that [p]argueth with God, let him answer it.

3 Then Job answered Jehovah, and said,
4 Behold, I am of small account; what shall I answer thee?
I [q]lay my hand upon my mouth.
5 Once have I spoken, and [r]I will not answer;
Yea, twice, but I will proceed no further.

6 Then [s]Jehovah answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said,
7 [t]Gird up thy loins now like a man:
I will [u]demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.
8 Wilt thou even [v]annul my judgment?
Wilt thou [x]condemn me, [y]that thou mayest be justified?
9 Or [z]hast thou an arm like God?
And canst thou [a]thunder with a voice like him?

10 Deck thyself now with excellency and dignity;
And [b]array thyself with honor and majesty.

Jehovah's Challenge. God's Power in the Hippopotamus and the Crocodile depicted

11 Pour forth [a] the overflowings of thine anger;
And look upon every one that is [b] proud, and abase him.
12 Look on every one that is proud, and [c] bring him low;
And [d] tread down the wicked [e] where they stand.
13 [f] Hide them in the dust together;
Bind their faces in the hidden place.
14 Then will I also confess of thee
That thine own [g] right hand can save thee.

15 Behold now, [1] behemoth, which [h] I made [2] as well as thee:
He eateth grass as an ox.
16 Lo now, his strength is in his loins,
And his force is in the muscles of his belly.
17 He moveth his tail like a cedar:
The sinews of his thighs are knit together.
18 His bones are as tubes of brass;
His [3] limbs are like bars of iron.

19 He is the [i] chief of the ways of God:
He only [k] that made him giveth him his sword.
20 Surely the mountains bring him forth food,
Where all the beasts of the field do [l] play.
21 He lieth under the lotus-trees,
In the covert of the reed, and the fen.
22 The lotus-trees cover him with their shade;
The [m] willows of the brook compass him about.
23 Behold, if a river [4] overflow, he trembleth not;
He is confident, though a Jordan swell even to his mouth.
24 Shall any [n] take him when he is on the watch,
Or pierce through his nose with a snare?

*41 Canst thou draw out [5] [o] leviathan with a fishhook?
Or press down his tongue with a cord?
2 Canst thou [p] put [6] a rope into his nose?
Or pierce his jaw through with a [7] hook?
3 Will he make many supplications unto thee?
Or will he speak [q] soft words unto thee?
4 Will he make a covenant with thee,
That thou shouldest take him for [r] a servant for ever?
5 Wilt thou play with him as with a bird?
Or wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?
6 Will the bands of fishermen make traffic of him?
Will they part him among the merchants?
7 Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons,
Or his head with fish-spears?
8 Lay thy hand upon him;
Remember the battle, and do so no more.
*9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain:
Will not one be cast down even at the sight of him?
10 None is so fierce that he dare [s] stir him up;
Who then is he that can stand before me?
11 [t] Who hath first given unto me, that I should repay him?
Whatsoever is [u] under the whole heaven is mine.

12 I will not keep silence concerning his limbs,
Nor his mighty strength, nor his goodly frame.
13 Who can [8] strip off his outer garment?
Who shall come within his jaws?
14 Who can open the doors of his face?
[9] Round about his teeth is terror.
15 His [10] strong scales are his pride,
Shut up together as with a close seal.
16 One is so near to another,
That no air can come between them.
17 They are joined one to another;
They stick together, so that they cannot be sundered.
18 His sneezings flash forth light,

And his eyes are like the [a] eyelids of the morning.
19 Out of his mouth go [b] burning torches,
And sparks of fire leap forth.
20 Out of his nostrils a smoke goeth,
As of a boiling pot and burning rushes.
21 His [c] breath kindleth coals,
And a [d] flame goeth forth from his mouth.
22 In his neck abideth strength,
And terror danceth before him.
23 The flakes of his flesh are joined together:
They are firm upon him; they cannot be moved.
24 His heart is as firm as a stone;
Yea, firm as the nether millstone.
25 When he raiseth himself up, the mighty are afraid:
By reason of consternation they are beside themselves.
26 If one lay at him with the sword, it cannot avail;
Nor the spear, the dart, nor the [1] pointed shaft.
27 He counteth iron as straw,
And brass as rotten wood.
28 The [2] arrow cannot make him flee:
Sling-stones are turned with him into stubble.
29 Clubs are counted as stubble:
He laugheth at the rushing of the javelin.
30 His underparts are like sharp potsherds:
He spreadeth as it were a threshing-wain upon the mire.
31 He maketh the deep to boil like a pot:
He maketh the sea like a pot of ointment.
32 He maketh a path to shine after him;
One would think the deep to be hoary.
33 Upon earth [e] there is not his like,
That is made without fear.
34 He beholdeth everything that is high:
He is king over all the [f] sons of pride.

42 Then Job answered Jehovah, and said,
2 I know that [g] thou canst do all things,
And that [h] no purpose of thine can be restrained.
3 Who is this that [i] hideth counsel without knowledge?
Therefore have I uttered that which I understood not,
Things [k] too wonderful for me, which I knew not.
4 Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak;
I will [l] demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.
5 I had [m] heard of thee by the hearing of the ear;
But now mine [n] eye seeth thee:
6 Wherefore I [3] abhor myself,
And repent in dust and ashes.

7 And it was so, that, after Jehovah had spoken these words unto Job, Jehovah said to Eliphaz the [o] Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends; for ye have [p] not spoken of me the thing that is right, [q] as my servant Job hath. 8 Now therefore, take unto you [r] seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a [s] burnt-offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you; [t] for him will I accept, that I deal not with you after your folly; for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath. 9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as Jehovah commanded them: and Jehovah accepted Job.

10 And Jehovah [u] turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: and Jehovah gave Job [v] twice as much as he had before. 11 Then came there unto him all his [x] brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they [y] bemoaned him, and comforted him concerning all the evil that Jehovah had brought upon him: every man also gave him a [4] [z] piece of money, and every one a [a] ring of gold. 12 So Jehovah [b] blessed the [c] latter end of Job more than his beginning: [d] and he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she-asses. 13 [e] He had also seven sons and three daughters. 14 And he
