THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL TO

TIMOTHY

Salutation. Charge respecting Misuse of the Law. Personal Thanksgiving. The Charge reënforced

1 Paul, [a]an apostle of [b]Christ Jesus [c]according to the commandment of [d]God our Saviour, and [b]Christ Jesus our [e]hope; 2 unto [f]Timothy, [g]my true child in faith: [h]Grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and [b]Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 As I exhorted thee to tarry at [i]Ephesus, when I was going into [k]Macedonia, that thou mightest charge certain men not to [l]teach a different doctrine, 4 neither to give heed to [m]fables and endless [n]genealogies, which minister [o]questionings, rather than [p]a [1] dispensation of God which is in faith; so do I now. 5 But the end of the [q]charge is love [r]out of a pure heart and a [s]good conscience and [t]faith unfeigned: 6 from which things some having [2]swerved have turned aside unto [u]vain talking; 7 [v]desiring to be [x]teachers of the law, though they understand neither what they say, nor whereof they confidently affirm. 8 But we know that [y]the law is good, if a man use it lawfully, 9 as knowing this, that [z]law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and [a]unruly, for the [b]ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and [c]profane, for [3]murderers of fathers and [3]murderers of mothers, for manslayers, 10 [d]for fornicators, for [e]abusers of themselves with men, for [f]menstealers, for [g]liars, for [h]false swearers, and if there be any other thing contrary to [i]the [4]sound [5]doctrine; 11 according to [k]the [6]gospel of the glory of [l]the blessed God, which was [m]committed to my trust.

12 I thank him that [7][n]enabled me, even [o]Christ Jesus our Lord, for that he counted me faithful, [p]appointing me to his service; 13 though I was before a blasphemer, and [q]a persecutor, and injurious: howbeit I [r]obtained mercy, because [s]I did it ignorantly in unbelief; 14 and the [t]grace of our Lord abounded exceedingly with [u]faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. 15 [v]Faithful is the saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that [x]Christ Jesus came into the world to [y]save sinners; of whom [z]I am chief: 16 howbeit for this cause I [r]obtained mercy, that in me as chief might Jesus Christ [a]show forth all his longsuffering, for an ensample of them that should thereafter believe on him unto eternal life. 17 Now unto the [b]King [8]eternal, [9][c]immortal, [d]invisible, the [e]only God, [f]be honor and glory [10]for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This [g]charge I commit unto thee, [h]my child Timothy, according to the [i]prophecies which led the way to thee, that by them thou mayest [k]war the good warfare; 19 holding [l]faith and a good conscience; which some having thrust from them made shipwreck concerning [m]the faith: 20 of whom is [n]Hymenæus and [o]Alexander; whom I [p]delivered unto Satan, that they might be [q]taught not to blaspheme.

2 I exhort therefore, first of all, [11] that [r]supplications, prayers, intercessions, thanksgivings, be made for all men; 2 [a]for kings and all that are in high place; that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and gravity. 3 This is good and acceptable in the sight of [b]God our Saviour; 4 [c]who would have all men to be [d]saved, and [e]come to the knowledge of the truth. 5 For there is [f]one God, [g]one mediator also between God and men, himself [h]man, Christ Jesus, 6 who [i]gave himself a ransom for all; the [k]testimony to be borne [l]in its own times; 7 [m]whereunto I was appointed a [1]preacher and [n]an apostle ([o]I speak the truth, I lie not), a teacher of [p]the Gentiles in faith and truth.

8 I [q]desire therefore that the men pray [r]in every place, [s]lifting up [t]holy hands, without wrath and [2]disputing. 9 In like manner, that [u]women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefastness and sobriety; not with braided hair, and gold or pearls or costly raiment; 10 but (which becometh women professing godliness) through good works. 11 [v]Let a woman learn in quietness with all subjection. 12 [v]But I permit not a woman to teach, nor to have dominion over a man, but to be in quietness. 13 [x]For Adam was first formed, then Eve; 14 and Adam was not beguiled, but [y]the woman being beguiled hath fallen into transgression: 15 but she shall be saved through [3]her child-bearing, if they continue in [z]faith and love and sanctification with sobriety.

3 [4][a]Faithful is the saying, If a man seeketh the [b]office of a [5]bishop, he desireth a good work. 2 [c]The [5]bishop therefore must be without reproach, [d]the husband of one wife, [e]temperate, sober-minded, orderly, [f]given to hospitality, [g]apt to teach; 3 [6][h]no brawler, no striker; but gentle, not contentious, [i]no lover of money; 4 one that [k]ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity; 5 (but if a man knoweth not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of [l]the church of God?) 6 not a novice, lest being [m]puffed up he fall into the [7][n]condemnation of the devil. 7 Moreover he must [o]have good testimony from [p]them that are without; lest he fall into reproach and [q]the snare of the devil. 8 [r]Deacons in like manner must be grave, not double-tongued, [s]not given to much wine, [t]not greedy of filthy lucre; 9 [u]holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. 10 And [v]let these also first be proved; then let them serve as deacons, if they be blameless. 11 Women in like manner must be grave, [x]not slanderers, [y]temperate, faithful in all things. 12 Let [r]deacons be [y]husbands of one wife, [z]ruling their children and their own houses well. 13 For they that have served well as deacons [a]gain to themselves a good standing, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly; 15 but if I tarry long, that thou mayest know [8]how men ought to behave themselves in [b]the house of God, which is the [c]church of [d]the living God, the [e]pillar and [9]ground of the truth. 16 And without controversy great is [f]the mystery of godliness;

the flesh,
[h]Justified in the spirit,
[i]Seen of angels,
[k]Preached among the [11]nations,
[l]Believed on in the world,

4 But [n]the Spirit saith expressly, that [o]in later times some shall fall away from the faith, giving heed to [a]seducing spirits and [b]doctrines of demons, 2 through the hypocrisy of men that speak lies, [1][c]branded in their own conscience as with a hot iron; 3 [d]forbidding to marry, and commanding [e]to abstain from meats, which [f]God created to be [g]received with thanksgiving by them that believe and know the truth. 4 For [h]every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, if it be [g]received with thanksgiving: 5 for it is sanctified through [i]the word of God and prayer.

6 If thou put [k]the brethren in mind of these things, thou shalt be a good [l]minister of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith, and of the [m]good doctrine which thou [n]hast followed until now: 7 but refuse [o]profane and old wives' [p]fables. And exercise thyself unto [q]godliness: 8 for [r]bodily exercise is profitable [2]for a little; but [q]godliness is profitable for all things, [s]having promise of the life [t]which now is, and of that which is to come. 9 [u]Faithful is the saying, and worthy of all acceptation. 10 For to this end we labor and strive, because we have [v]our hope set on [x]the living God, who is [y]the Saviour of all men, specially of them that believe. 11 [z]These things command and teach. 12 [a]Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou [b]an ensample to them that believe, in word, in manner of life, [c]in love, in faith, in purity. 13 [d]Till I come, give heed to [e]reading, to exhortation, to teaching. 14 Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee [f]by prophecy, with the [g]laying on of the hands of the [h]presbytery. 15 Be diligent in these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy progress may be manifest unto all. 16 [i]Take heed to thyself, and to thy teaching. Continue in these things; for in doing this thou shalt [k]save both thyself and them that hear thee.

5 [l]Rebuke not an [m]elder, but exhort him as a father; [n]the younger men as brethren: 2 the elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, in all purity. 3 Honor widows that are [o]widows indeed. 4 But if any widow hath children or grandchildren, [p]let them learn first to show piety towards their own family, and to requite their parents: for this is [q]acceptable in the sight of God. 5 Now she that is [o]a widow indeed, and desolate, [r]hath her hope set on God, and continueth in [s]supplications and prayers night and day. 6 But she that [t]giveth herself to pleasure is [u]dead while she liveth. 7 [v]These things also command, that they may be without reproach. 8 But if any provideth not for his own, and specially his own household, he hath [x]denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever. 9 Let none be [y]enrolled as a widow under threescore years old, having been [z]the wife of one man, 10 well reported of for [a]good works; if she hath brought up children, if she hath [z]used hospitality to strangers, if she [b]hath washed the saints' feet, if she hath [c]relieved the afflicted, if she hath diligently followed every good work. 11 But younger widows refuse: for when they have [d]waxed wanton against Christ, they desire to marry; 12 having condemnation, because they have rejected their first [3]pledge. 13 And withal they learn also to be idle, going about from house to house; and not only idle, but [e]tattlers also and [f]busybodies, speaking [g]things which they ought not. 14 [h]I desire therefore that the younger [4]widows [i]marry, bear children, [k]rule the household, [l]give no occasion to the adversary for reviling: 15 for already some [m]are turned aside after [n]Satan. 16 If any woman that believeth [o]hath widows, let her [c]relieve them, and let not the church be burdened; that it may relieve them that are [p]widows indeed.

17 Let [q]the elders that [r]rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who [s]labor in the word and in teaching. 18 For the scripture saith, [5][t]Thou

6 [m]Let as many as are [3]servants under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, [n]that the name of God and the doctrine be not blasphemed. 2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are [o]brethren; but let them serve them the rather, because they that [4]partake of the benefit are believing and beloved. [p]These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man [q]teacheth a different doctrine, and consenteth not to [5][r]sound words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is [s]according to godliness; 4 he is [t]puffed up, knowing nothing, but [6]doting about [u]questionings and [v]disputes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, [x]evil surmisings, 5 wranglings of [y]men corrupted in mind and bereft of the truth, [z]supposing that godliness is a way of gain. 6 [a]But godliness with [b]contentment [c]is great gain: 7 for [d]we brought nothing into the world, for neither can we carry anything out; 8 but [e]having food and covering [7]we shall be therewith content. 9 [f]But they that are minded to be rich fall into a temptation and [g]a snare and many foolish and hurtful lusts, such as drown men in destruction and perdition. 10 For [h]the love of money is a [i]root of all [8]kinds of evil: which some reaching after have been [k]led astray from the faith, and have pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 But thou, O [l]man of God, [m]flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, [n]faith, [o]love, [9]patience, meekness. 12 [p]Fight the good fight of [q]the faith, [r]lay hold on the life eternal, [s]whereunto thou wast called, and didst confess the good [t]confession in the sight of [u]many witnesses. 13 [v]I charge thee in the sight of God, who [10]giveth life to all things, and of [x]Christ Jesus, who [y]before Pontius Pilate witnessed [t]the good confession; 14 that thou keep the commandment, without spot, without reproach, until the [z]appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ: 15 which in [11][a]its own times he shall show, who is [b]the blessed and [c]only Potentate, [d]the [e]King of [12]kings, and [f]Lord of [13]lords; 16 [g]who only hath immortality, [h]dwelling in light unapproachable; [i]whom no man hath seen, nor can see: [k]to whom be honor and power eternal. Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich in [l]this present [14]world, that they [m]be not highminded, nor [n]have their hope set on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, [o]who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; 18 that they do good, that they be rich in [p]good works, [q]that they be ready to distribute, [15]willing to communicate; 19 [r]laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may [s]lay hold on the life which is life indeed.

Benediction

20 O [a]Timothy, guard [1][b]that which is committed unto thee, turning away from the [c]profane babblings and oppositions of the knowledge which is falsely so called; 21 which some professing [d]have [2]erred concerning [e]the faith.

[f]Grace be with you.
