THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO

TITUS

Salutation. Qualifications of an Elder. Disorderly Teachers to be reproved. Duties of the Aged, the Young, etc.

1 Paul, [a]a [1] servant of God, and [b]an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of [c] God's elect, and [d]the knowledge of the truth which is [e]according to godliness, 2 in [f]hope of eternal life, which God, [g]who cannot lie, [h]promised [2]before [i]times eternal; 3 but in [3][k]his own seasons manifested his word in [l]the [4]message, [m]wherewith I was intrusted [n]according to the commandment of [o]God our Saviour; 4 to [p]Titus, [q]my true child after [r]a common faith: [s]Grace and peace from God the Father and [t]Christ Jesus our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in [u]Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that were wanting, and [v]appoint [x]elders in every city, as I gave thee charge; 6 [y]if any man is blameless, the [z]husband of one wife, having children that believe, who are not accused of [a]riot or [b]unruly. 7 For [c]the [5]bishop must be blameless, as [d]God's steward; not [e]self-willed, not soon angry, [6][f]no brawler, no striker, [g]not greedy of filthy lucre; 8 but [h]given to hospitality, [i]a lover of good, sober-minded, just, holy, self-controlled; 9 [k]holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able both to exhort in [l]the [7]sound [8]doctrine, and to convict the gainsayers.

10 [m]For there are many [n]unruly men, [o]vain talkers and deceivers, specially [p]they of the circumcision, 11 whose mouths must be stopped;
men who overthrow whole [q]houses, teaching [r]things which they ought not, [s]for filthy lucre's sake. 12 [t]One of themselves, a prophet of their own, said,

> [u]Cretans are always liars, evil > beasts, idle [9]gluttons.

13 This testimony is true. For which cause [v]reprove them [x]sharply, that they may be [10][y]sound in the faith, 14 not giving heed to Jewish [z]fables, and [a]commandments of men who [b]turn away from the truth. 15 [c]To the pure all things are pure: but [d]to them that are defiled and unbelieving nothing is pure; but both their [e]mind and their conscience are defiled. 16 [f]They profess that they know God; but by their works they [g]deny him, being [h]abominable, and [i]disobedient, and [k]unto every good work [l]reprobate.

2 But speak thou the things which befit [m]the [7]sound [8]doctrine: 2 that [n]aged men be [o]temperate, grave, [o]sober-minded, [10][y]sound [p]in faith, in love, in [11]patience: 3 that aged women likewise be reverent in demeanor, [q]not slanderers nor [r]enslaved to much wine, teachers of that which is good; 4 that they may train the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, 5 to be sober-minded, chaste, [s]workers at home, kind, being [t]in subjection to their own husbands, [u]that the word of God be not blasphemed: 6 [v]the younger men likewise exhort to be [o]sober-minded: 7 in all things showing thyself [x]an ensample of good works; in thy doctrine showing uncorruptness, gravity, 8 sound speech, that cannot be condemned; [y]that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of us.

9 Exhort [1] [a]servants to be in subjection to their own masters, and to be well-pleasing to them in all things; not gainsaying; 10 not purloining, but showing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of [b]God our Saviour in all things. 11 For the grace of God [2]hath [c]appeared, [d]bringing salvation to all men, 12 instructing us, to the intent that, denying ungodliness and [e]worldly lusts, [f]we should live soberly and righteously and godly in [g]this present [3]world; 13 looking for the blessed hope and [h]appearing of the glory [4]of [i]the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; 14 who [k]gave himself for us, [l]that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and [m]purify unto himself a [n]people for his own possession, [o]zealous of good works.

15 These things speak and [p]exhort and [p]reprove with all [5]authority. [q]Let no man despise thee.

3 [r]Put them in mind [s]to be in subjection to rulers, to authorities, to be obedient, to be [t]ready unto every good work, 2 to speak evil of no man, [u]not to be contentious, [u]to be gentle, [v]showing all meekness toward all men. 3 [x]For we also once were foolish, [y]disobedient, [z]deceived, [a]serving [b]divers lusts and pleasures, living in [c]malice and [c]envy, hateful, hating one another. 4 But when the [d]kindness of [e]God our Saviour, and his love toward man, [f]appeared, 5 [g]not by works done in righteousness, which we did ourselves, but [h]according to his mercy he [i]saved us, through the [6][k]washing of regeneration [7]and [l]renewing of the Holy Spirit, 6 [m]which he poured out upon us [n]richly, through Jesus Christ our Saviour; 7 that, being justified by his grace, we might be made [8][o]heirs according to the hope of eternal life. 8 [p]Faithful is the saying, and concerning these things [q]I desire that thou affirm confidently, to the end that they who have [r]believed God may be careful to [9][s]maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men: 9 but [t]shun [u]foolish questionings, and [v]genealogies, and strifes, and [x]fightings about the law; for they are [y]unprofitable and vain. 10 [z]A factious man [a]after a first and second admonition [10][b]refuse; 11 knowing that such a one is [c]perverted, and sinneth, being self-condemned.

12 When I shall send Artemas unto thee, or [d]Tychicus, [e]give diligence to come unto me [f]to Nicopolis: for there I have determined to [g]winter. 13 [h]Set forward Zenas the [i]lawyer and [k]Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them. 14 And let [l]our people also learn to [9][m]maintain good works for [n]necessary [11]uses, that they be not [o]unfruitful.

15 [p]All that are with me salute thee. Salute them that love us [q]in faith.

[r]Grace be with you all.
