THE FIRST BOOK OF THE

KINGS

David's Old Age. Adonijah's attempted Usurpation. Bath-sheba's Remonstrance

1 Now king David was old and stricken in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he gat no heat. 2 Wherefore his servants said unto him, Let there be sought for my lord the king a young virgin: and let her stand before the king, and cherish him; and let her lie in thy bosom, that my lord the king may get heat. 3 So they sought for a fair damsel throughout all the borders of Israel, and found Abishag [a] the Shunammite, and brought her to the king. 4 And the damsel was very fair; and she cherished the king, and ministered to him; but the king knew her not.

5 Then [b] Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, I will be king: and [c] he prepared him chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him. 6 And his father had not displeased him [1] at any time in saying, Why hast thou done so? and he was also a very goodly man; and [d] he was born after Absalom. 7 And he conferred with [e] Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with [f] Abiathar the priest: and they following Adonijah helped him. 8 But [g] Zadok the priest, and [h] Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and [i] Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and [k] the mighty men that belonged to David, were not with Adonijah. 9 And Adonijah [2] slew sheep and oxen and fatlings by the stone of Zoheleth, which is beside [l] En-rogel; and he called all his brethren, the king's sons, and all the men of Judah, the king's servants: 10 but Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and [m] Solomon his brother, he called not.

11 Then Nathan spake unto Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon, saying, Hast thou not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith doth reign, and David our lord knoweth it not? 12 Now therefore come, let me, I pray thee, give thee counsel, that thou mayest save thine own life, and the life of thy son Solomon. 13 Go and get thee in unto king David, and say unto him, Didst not thou, my lord, O king, swear unto thy handmaid, saying, [n] Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? why then doth Adonijah reign? 14 Behold, while thou yet talkest there with the king, I also will come in after thee, and confirm thy words.

15 And Bath-sheba went in unto the king into the chamber: and [o] the king was very old; and Abishag the Shunammite was ministering unto the king. 16 And Bath-sheba bowed, and did obeisance unto the king. And the king said, What wouldest thou? 17 And she said unto him, My lord, thou swarest by Jehovah thy God unto thy handmaid, saying, [p] Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne. 18 And now, behold, Adonijah reigneth; [3] and thou, my lord the king, knowest it not: 19 and [q] he hath [2] slain oxen and fatlings and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the sons of the king, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the captain of the host; but Solomon thy servant hath he not called. 20 And [4] thou, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are upon thee, that thou shouldest tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. 21 Otherwise it will come to pass, [r] when my lord the king shall sleep with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon shall be counted [5] offenders.

22 And, lo, while she yet talked with the king, Nathan the prophet came in. 23 And they told the king, saying, Behold, Nathan the prophet. And when he was come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground. 24 And Nathan said, My lord, O king, hast thou said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? 25 [a] For he is gone down this day, and hath [1] slain oxen and fatlings and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the king's sons, and the captains of the host, and Abiathar the priest; and, behold, they are eating and drinking before him, and say, [b] Long live king Adonijah. 26 [c] But me, even me thy servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and thy servant Solomon, hath he not called. 27 Is this thing done by my lord the king, and thou hast not showed unto thy [2] servants who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?

28 Then king David answered and said, Call to me Bath-sheba. And she came into the king's presence, and stood before the king. 29 And the king sware, and said, [d] As Jehovah liveth, who hath redeemed my soul out of all adversity, 30 verily as [e] I sware unto thee by Jehovah, the God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead; verily so will I do this day. 31 Then Bath-sheba bowed with her face to the earth, and did obeisance to the king, and said, [f] Let my lord king David live for ever.

32 And king David said, Call to me [g] Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And they came before the king. 33 And the king said unto them, Take with you [h] the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon mine own mule, and bring him down to [i] Gihon: 34 and let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet [k] anoint him there king over Israel; and [l] blow ye the trumpet, and say, [m] Long live king Solomon. 35 Then ye shall come up after him, and he shall come and sit upon my throne; for he shall be king in my stead; and I have appointed him to be [3] prince over Israel and over Judah. 36 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, Amen:

Jehovah, the God of my lord the king, say so too. 37 [n] As Jehovah hath been with my lord the king, even so be he with Solomon, and [o] make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David.

38 So [p] Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and [q] the Cherethites and the Pelethites, went down, and caused Solomon to ride upon king David's mule, and brought him to [r] Gihon. 39 And Zadok the priest [s] took the horn of oil out of the Tent, and [t] anointed Solomon. And they [u] blew the trumpet; and all the people said, Long live king Solomon. 40 And all the people came up after him, and the people piped with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth rent with the sound of them.

41 And Adonijah and all the guests that were with him heard it as they had made an end of eating. And when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, Wherefore is this noise of the city being in an uproar? 42 While he yet spake, behold, [v] Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came: and Adonijah said, Come in; for [x] thou art a worthy man, and bringest good tidings. 43 And Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, Verily our lord king David hath made Solomon king: 44 and the king hath sent with him Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and they have caused him to ride upon the king's mule; 45 and Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon; and they are come up from thence rejoicing, [y] so that the city rang again. This is the noise that ye have heard. 46 And also [z] Solomon sitteth on the throne of the kingdom. 47 And moreover the king's servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, [4] [a] Thy God make the name of Solomon better than thy name, and make his throne greater than thy throne: and [b] the king bowed himself upon the bed. 48 And also thus said the king, Blessed be Jehovah, the God of Israel, who [c] hath given one to sit on my throne this day, mine eyes even seeing it.

Adonijah spared. David's Charge to Solomon. His Death. Adonijah wishes to marry Abishag

49 And all the guests of Adonijah were afraid, and rose up, and went every man his way. 50 And Adonijah feared because of Solomon; and he arose, and went, and [a] caught hold on the horns of the altar. 51 And it was told Solomon, saying, Behold, Adonijah feareth king Solomon; for, lo, he hath laid hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let king Solomon swear unto me [1] first that he will not slay his servant with the sword. 52 And Solomon said, If he shall show himself a worthy man, [b] there shall not a hair of him fall to the earth; but if wickedness be found in him, he shall die. 53 So king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and did obeisance to king Solomon; and Solomon said unto him, Go to thy house.

2 Now [c] the days of David drew nigh that he should die; and he charged Solomon his son, saying, 2 [d] I am going the way of all the earth: [e] be thou strong therefore, and show thyself a man; 3 and keep the charge of Jehovah thy God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his ordinances, and his testimonies, [f] according to that which is written in the law of Moses, that [g] thou mayest [2] prosper in all that thou doest, and whithersoever thou turnest thyself; 4 that [h] Jehovah may establish his word which he spake concerning me, saying, [i] If thy children take heed to their way, [k] to walk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, [l] there shall not fail thee (said he) a man on the throne of Israel. 5 Moreover thou knowest also what Joab the [m] son of Zeruiah did unto me, even what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Israel, unto [n] Abner the son of Ner, and unto [o] Amasa the son of Jether, whom he slew, and [3] shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle that was about his loins, and in his shoes that were on his feet. 6 [p] Do therefore according to thy wisdom, and let not his hoar head go down to Sheol in peace. 7 But [q] show kindness unto the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and [r] let them be of those that eat at thy table; [s] for so they came to me when I fled from Absalom thy brother. 8 And, behold, [t] there is with thee Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjamite, of Bahurim, who cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim; but [u] he came down to meet me at the Jordan, and I sware to him by Jehovah, saying, I will not put thee to death with the sword. 9 Now therefore hold him not guiltless, [v] for thou art a wise man; and thou wilt know what thou oughtest to do unto him, and thou shalt bring his hoar head down to Sheol with blood.

10 And [x] David slept with his fathers, and was buried in [y] the city of David. 11 And [z] the days that David reigned over Israel were forty years: [a] seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem. 12 And [b] Solomon sat upon the throne of David his father; and his kingdom was established greatly.

13 Then Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, [c] Comest thou peaceably? And he said, Peaceably. 14 He said moreover, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And she said, Say on. 15 And he said, Thou knowest that [d] the kingdom was mine, and [e] that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign: [f] howbeit the kingdom is turned about, and is become my brother's; [g] for it was his from Jehovah. 16 And now I ask one petition of thee; [4] deny me not. And she said unto him, Say on. 17 And he said, Speak, I pray thee, unto Solomon the king (for he will not say thee nay), that [h] he give me Abishag the Shunammite to wife. 18 And Bath-sheba said, Well; I will speak for thee unto the king.

19 Bath-sheba therefore went unto king Solomon, to speak unto him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself unto her, and sat down on his throne, and [i] caused a throne to be set for the king's mother; and [k] she sat on his right hand. 20 Then she said, I ask one small petition of thee; [l] deny me not. And the king said unto her, Ask on, my mother; for I will not deny thee. 21 And she said, [m] Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah thy brother to wife. 22 And king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, And why dost thou ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? [a]ask for him the kingdom also; [b]for he is mine elder brother; even for him, and for [c]Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah. 23 Then king Solomon sware by Jehovah, saying, [d]God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah hath not spoken this word against his own life. 24 Now therefore as Jehovah liveth, who hath established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, and [e]who hath made me a house, as he promised, surely Adonijah shall be put to death this day. 25 And king Solomon [f]sent by Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell upon him, so that he died.

26 And unto Abiathar the priest said the king, [g]Get thee to Anathoth, unto thine own fields; for [h]thou art [1]worthy of death: but I will not at this time put thee to death, because [i]thou barest the ark of the Lord Jehovah before David my father, and because [k]thou wast afflicted in all wherein my father was afflicted. 27 So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest unto Jehovah, that he might fulfil [l]the word of Jehovah, which he spake concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

28 And the tidings came to Joab; [m]for Joab had turned after Adonijah, [n]though he turned not after Absalom. And Joab fled unto the Tent of Jehovah, and [o]caught hold on the horns of the altar. 29 And it was told king Solomon, Joab is fled unto the Tent of Jehovah, and, behold, he is by the altar. Then Solomon [p]sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go, fall upon him. 30 And Benaiah came to the Tent of Jehovah, and said unto him, Thus saith the king, Come forth. And he said, Nay; but I will die here. And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me. 31 And the king said unto him, [q]Do as he hath said, and fall upon him, and bury him; [r]that thou mayest take away the blood, which Joab shed without cause, from me and from my father's house. 32 And [s]Jehovah will return his blood upon his own head, [t]because he fell upon two men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, and my father David knew it not, to wit, [u]Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and [v]Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah. 33 [w]So shall their blood return upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for ever: but unto David, and unto his seed, and unto his house, and unto his throne, shall there be peace for ever from Jehovah. 34 Then [x]Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and slew him; and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness. 35 And [y]the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the host; and [z]Zadok the priest did the king put [a]in the room of Abiathar.

36 And the king sent and called for [b]Shimei, and said unto him, Build thee a house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and go not forth thence any whither. 37 For on the day thou goest out, [c]and passest over the brook Kidron, know thou for certain that thou shalt surely die: [d]thy blood shall be upon thine own head. 38 And Shimei said unto the king, The saying is good: as my lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do. And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.

39 And it came to pass at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away [e]unto Achish, son of Maacah, king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, Behold, thy servants are in Gath. 40 And Shimei arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish, to seek his servants; and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath. 41 And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again. 42 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Did I not adjure thee by Jehovah, and protest unto thee, saying, Know for certain, that on the day thou goest out, and walkest abroad any whither, thou shalt surely die? and thou saidst unto me, The saying that I have heard is good. 43 Why then hast thou not kept the oath of Jehovah, and the commandment that I have charged thee with? 44 The king said moreover to Shimei, [a] Thou knowest all the wickedness which thy heart is privy to, that thou didst to David my father: therefore [b] Jehovah shall return thy wickedness upon thine own head. 45 But king Solomon shall be blessed, and [c] the throne of David shall be established before Jehovah for ever. 46 [d] So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he went out, and fell upon him, so that he died. [e] And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

3 And [f] Solomon made affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, [g] and brought her into the city of David, [h] until he had made an end of building his own house, and the house of Jehovah, and [i] the wall of Jerusalem round about. 2 Only [k] the people sacrificed in the high places, because there was no house built for the name of Jehovah until those days. 3 And [l] Solomon loved Jehovah, [m] walking in the statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.

4 [n] And the king went to [o] Gibeon to sacrifice there; [p] for that was the great high place: a thousand burnt-offerings did Solomon offer upon that altar. 5 [q] In Gibeon Jehovah appeared to Solomon [r] in a dream by night; and God said, Ask what I shall give thee. 6 And Solomon said, [s] Thou hast showed unto thy servant David my father great lovingkindness, [t] according as he walked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with thee; and [u] thou hast kept for him this great lovingkindness, that thou hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day. 7 And now, O Jehovah my God, [v] thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father: and [x] I am but a little child; [y] I know not how to go out or come in. 8 And [z] thy servant is in the midst of thy people which thou hast chosen, [a] a great people, that cannot be numbered nor counted for multitude. 9 [b] Give thy servant therefore an [1] understanding heart to judge thy people, [c] that I may discern between good and evil; for who is able to judge this thy [2] great people?

[k] Num. 27. 2

10 And the speech pleased the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing. 11 And God said unto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself [3] long life, neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies, but hast asked for thyself understanding to [4] discern justice; 12 behold, [a] I have done according to thy word: lo, [c] I have given thee a wise and an [1] understanding heart; so that there hath been none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee. 13 [f] And I have also given thee that which thou hast not asked, both riches and honor, so that there [5] shall not be any among the kings like unto thee, all thy days. 14 And [g] if thou wilt walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as thy father David did walk, then I will lengthen thy days. 15 And [h] Solomon awoke; and, behold, it was a dream: and he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, and offered up burnt-offerings, and offered peace-offerings, and [i] made a feast to all his servants.

16 Then there came two women that were harlots, unto the king, and [k] stood before him. 17 And the one woman said, Oh, my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house; and I was delivered of a child with her in the house. 18 And it came to pass the third day after I was delivered, that this woman was delivered also; and we were together; there was no stranger with us in the house, save we two in the house. 19 And this woman's child died in the night, because she lay upon it. 20 And she arose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while thy handmaid slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom. 21 And when I rose in the morning to give my child suck, behold, it was dead; but when I had looked at it in the morning, behold, it was not my son, whom I did bear. 22 And the other woman said, Nay; but the living is my son, and the dead is thy son. And this said, No; but the dead is thy son, and the living is my son. Thus they spake before the king.

23 Then said the king, The one saith, This is my son that liveth, and thy son is the dead: and the other saith, Nay; but thy son is the dead, and my son is the living. 24 And the king said, Fetch me a sword. And they brought a sword before the king. 25 And the king said, Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other. 26 Then spake the woman whose the living child was unto the king, for [a] her heart yearned over her son, and she said, Oh, my lord, give her the living child, and in no wise slay it. But the other said, It shall be neither mine nor thine; divide it. 27 Then the king answered and said, Give her the living child, and in no wise slay it: she is the mother thereof. 28 And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and they feared the king: for [b] they saw that the wisdom of God was in him, to do justice.

4 And king Solomon was king over all Israel. 2 And these were the princes whom he had: Azariah the son of Zadok, [c] the priest; 3 Elihoreph and Ahijah, the sons of Shisha, [1] scribes; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, the [2] recorder; 4 and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the host; and Zadok and Abiathar were priests; 5 and Azariah the son of Nathan was over [d] the officers; and Zabud the son of Nathan was [3] chief minister, and the king's friend; 6 and Ahishar was over the household; and Adoniram the son of Abda was over the men subject to taskwork.

7 And Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, who provided victuals for the king and his household: each man had to make provision for a month in the year. 8 And these are their names: Ben-hur, in [e] the hill-country of Ephraim; 9 Ben-deker, in Makaz, and in [f] Shaalbim, and [g] Beth-shemesh, and Elon-beth-hanan; 10 Ben-hesed, in Arubboth (to him pertained [h] Socoh, and all the land of [i] Hepher); 11 Ben-abinadab, in all [4] the [5k] height of Dor (he had Taphath the daughter of Solomon to wife); 12 Baana the son of Ahilud, in [l] Taanach and Megiddo, and all [m] Beth-shean which is beside [n] Zarethan, beneath Jezreel, from Beth-shean to [o] Abel-meholah, as far as [6] beyond [p] Jokmeam; 13 Ben-geber, in [q] Ramoth-gilead (to him pertained [7r] the towns of Jair the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead; even to him pertained [s] the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, threescore great cities with walls and brazen bars); 14 Ahinadab the son of Iddo, in [t] Mahanaim; 15 [u] Ahimaaz, in Naphtali (he also took Basemath the daughter of Solomon to wife); 16 Baana the son of [v] Hushai, in Asher and [8] Bealoth; 17 Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah, in Issachar; 18 [x] Shimei the son of Ela, in Benjamin; 19 Geber the son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, [y] the country of Sihon king of the Amorites and of Og king of Bashan; [9] and he was the only officer that was in the land.

20 [z] Judah and Israel were many as the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking and making merry. *21 [a] And Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms [b] from the River unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt: [c] they brought tribute, and served Solomon all the days of his life. 22 And Solomon's provision for one day was thirty [10] measures of fine flour, and threescore measures of meal, 23 ten fat oxen, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and a hundred sheep, besides harts, and gazelles, and roebucks, and fatted fowl. 24 For he had dominion over all the region [11] on this side the River, from Tiphsah even to [d] Gaza, [e] over all the kings [11] on this side the River: and [f] he had peace on all sides round about him. 25 [g] And Judah and Israel dwelt safely, every man under his vine and under his fig-tree, [h] from Dan even to Beer-sheba, all the days of Solomon. 26 [i] And Solomon had [12] forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen. 27 And those officers provided victuals for king Solomon, and for all that came unto king Solomon's table, every man in his month; they let nothing be lacking. 28 Barley also and straw for the horses and [a] swift steeds brought they unto the place [1] where the officers were, every man according to his charge.

29 And [b] God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and largeness of heart, [c] even as the sand that is on the sea-shore. 30 And Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all [d] the children of the east, and [e] all the wisdom of Egypt. 31 For [f] he was wiser than all men; than [g] Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and [h] Calcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol: and his fame was in all the nations round about. 32 [i] And he spake three thousand proverbs; and his songs were a thousand and five. 33 And he spake of trees, from the cedar that is in Lebanon even unto the hyssop that springeth out of the wall: he spake also of beasts, and of birds, and of creeping things, and of fishes. 34 And [k] there came of all peoples to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all kings of the earth, who had heard of his wisdom.

*5 [l] And Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants unto Solomon; for he had heard that they had anointed him king in the room of his father: for [m] Hiram was ever a lover of David. 2 And Solomon sent to Hiram, saying, 3 Thou knowest how that [n] David my father could not build a house for the name of Jehovah his God for the wars which were about him on every side, until Jehovah put them under the soles of his feet. 4 But now [o] Jehovah my God hath given me rest on every side; there is neither adversary, nor evil occurrence. 5 And, behold, [p] I purpose to build a house for the name of Jehovah my God, as Jehovah spake unto David my father, saying, Thy son, whom I will set upon thy throne in thy room, he shall build the house for my name. 6 Now therefore command thou that they cut me cedar-trees out of Lebanon; and my servants shall be with thy servants; and I will give thee hire for thy servants according to all that thou shalt say: for thou knowest that there is not among us any that knoweth how to cut timber like unto the Sidonians.

7 And it came to pass, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, Blessed be Jehovah this day, who hath given unto David a wise son over this great people. 8 And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I have heard the message which thou hast sent unto me: I will do all thy desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of [2] fir. 9 My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon unto the sea; and I will make them into rafts to go by sea [q] unto the place that thou shalt appoint me, and will cause them to be broken up there, and thou shalt [3] receive them; and [r] thou shalt accomplish my desire, in giving food for my household. 10 So [4] Hiram gave Solomon timber of cedar and timber of fir according to all his desire. 11 And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand [5] measures of wheat for food to his household, and twenty measures of [6] pure oil: thus gave Solomon to Hiram year by year. 12 And [s] Jehovah gave Solomon wisdom, as he promised him; and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and they two made a league together.

13 And [t] king Solomon raised a [7] levy out of all Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand men. 14 And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses; a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home: and [u] Adoniram was over the men subject to taskwork. 15 And [v] Solomon had threescore and ten thousand that bare burdens, and fourscore thousand that were hewers in the mountains; 16 [x] besides Solomon's chief officers that were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, who bare rule over the people that wrought in the work. 17 And [y] the king commanded, and they [8] hewed out great stones, costly stones, to lay the foundation of the house with wrought stone. 18 And Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders and [z] the Gebalites did fashion them, and prepared the timber and the stones to build the house.

6 [a] And it came to pass in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Ziv, which is the second month, that he [1] began to build the house of Jehovah. 2 And the house which king Solomon built for Jehovah, the length thereof was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits. 3 And the porch before [2] the temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth of the house; and ten cubits was the breadth thereof before the house. 4 And for the house [a] he made [3] windows of fixed lattice-work. 5 And [b] against the wall of the house he built stories round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and [c] of [4] the oracle; and he made [d] side-chambers round about. 6 The nethermost story was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad; for on the outside he made offsets in the wall of the house round about, that the beams should not have hold in the walls of the house. 7 And [e] the house, when it was in building, was built of stone made ready [5] at the quarry; and there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building. 8 The door for the middle side-chambers was in the right [6] side of the house: and they went up by winding stairs into the middle story, and out of the middle into the third. 9 So [f] he built the house, and finished it; and he covered the house with beams and [7] planks of cedar. 10 And he built the stories against all the house, each five cubits high: and [8] they rested on the house with timber of cedar.

11 And the word of Jehovah came to Solomon, saying, 12 Concerning this house which thou art building, [g] if thou wilt walk in my statutes, and execute mine ordinances, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then will I establish my word with thee, which I spake unto David thy father. 13 And [h] I will dwell among the children of Israel, and [i] will not forsake my people Israel.

14 [k] So Solomon built the house, and finished it. 15 And he built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar: [9] from the floor of the house unto the walls of the ceiling, he covered them on the inside with wood; and [l] he covered the floor of the house with boards of [10] fir. 16 [m] And he built twenty cubits on the hinder part of the house with boards of cedar from the floor unto the walls of the ceiling: he built them for it within, for an oracle, even for [n] the most holy place. 17 And the house, that is, the temple before the oracle, was forty cubits long. 18 And there was cedar on the house within, carved with [11] [o] knops and open flowers: all was cedar; there was no stone seen. 19 And he prepared an oracle in the midst of the house within, to set there the ark of the covenant of Jehovah. 20 And within the oracle was a space of twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height thereof; and he overlaid it with pure gold: [12] and he covered the altar with cedar. 21 So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold: and he drew chains of gold across before the oracle; and he overlaid it with gold. 22 And the whole house he overlaid with gold, until all the house was finished: also [p] the whole altar that belonged to the oracle he overlaid with gold.

23 [q] And in the oracle [r] he made two cherubim of olive-wood, each ten cubits high. 24 And five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub: from the uttermost part of the one wing unto the uttermost part of the other were ten cubits. 25 And the other cherub was ten cubits: both the cherubim were of one measure and one form. 26 The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was it of the other cherub. 27 And he set the cherubim within the inner house; and [s] the wings of the cherubim were stretched forth, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house. 28 And he overlaid the cherubim with gold.

29 And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of cherubim and palm-trees and open flowers, within and without. 30 And the floor of the house he overlaid with gold, within and without. 31 And for the entrance of the oracle he made doors of olive-wood: the [1]lintel and door-posts were a fifth part of the wall. 32 So he made two doors of olive-wood; and he carved upon them carvings of cherubim and palm-trees and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold; and he spread the gold upon the cherubim, and upon the palm-trees. 33 So also made he for the entrance of the temple door-posts of olive-wood, out of a fourth part of the wall; 34 and [a]two doors of [2]fir-wood: the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding. 35 And he carved thereon cherubim and palm-trees and open flowers; and he overlaid them with gold fitted upon the graven work. 36 And [b]he built the inner court with three courses of hewn stone, and a course of cedar beams.

37 [c]In the fourth year was the foundation of the house of Jehovah laid, in the month Ziv. 38 And in the eleventh year, in the month Bul, which is the eighth month, was the house finished [3]throughout all the parts thereof, and according to all the fashion of it. So was he seven years in building it.

7 And [d]Solomon was building his own house thirteen years, and he finished all his house. 2 For [e]he built the house of the forest of Lebanon; the length thereof was a hundred cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits, upon four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars. 3 And it was covered with cedar above over the forty and five [4]beams, that were upon the pillars; fifteen in a row. 4 And there were [5]beams in three rows, and window was over against window in three ranks. 5 And all the doors and posts were made square with beams: and window was over against window in three ranks. 6 And he made [f]the porch of pillars; the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth thereof thirty cubits; and a porch before them; and pillars and a [g]threshold before them. 7 And he made the porch of the throne where he was to judge, even the porch of judgment: and [h]it was covered with cedar from floor to floor. 8 And his house where he was to dwell, the other court within the porch, was of the like work. [i]He made also a house for Pharaoh's daughter ([k]whom Solomon had taken to wife), like unto this porch.

9 All these were of costly stones, even of hewn stone, [6]according to measure, sawed with saws, within and without, even from the foundation unto the coping, and so on the outside unto the great court. 10 And the foundation was of costly stones, even great stones, stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits. 11 And above were costly stones, even hewn stone, according to measure, and cedar-wood. 12 And [l]the great court round about had three courses of hewn stone, and a course of cedar beams; [7]like as the inner court of the house of Jehovah, and [m]the porch of the house.

13 And [n]king Solomon sent and fetched Hiram out of Tyre. 14 [o]He was the son of a widow of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass; and [p]he was filled with wisdom and understanding and skill, to work all works in brass. And he came to king Solomon, and [q]wrought all his work. 15 For he fashioned [r]the two pillars of brass, [8][s]eighteen cubits high apiece: and a line of twelve cubits compassed [9]either of them about. 16 And he made two capitals of molten brass, to set upon the tops of the pillars: the height of the one capital was five cubits, and the height of the other capital was five cubits. 17 There were nets of checker-work, and wreaths of chain-work, for the capitals which were upon the top of the pillars; seven for the one capital, and seven for the other capital. 18 So he made the pillars; and there were two rows round about upon the one network, to cover the capitals that were upon the top of the [1] pillars: and so did he for the other capital. 19 And the capitals that were upon the top of the pillars in the porch were of lily-work, four cubits. 20 And there were capitals above also upon the two pillars, close by the belly which was beside the network: and [a] the pomegranates were two hundred, in rows round about upon the other capital. 21 [b] And he set up the pillars at the porch of the temple: and he set up the right pillar, and called the name thereof [2] Jachin; and he set up the left pillar, and called the name thereof [3] Boaz. 22 And upon the top of the pillars was lily-work: so was the work of the pillars finished.

23 [c] And he made the [d] molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass, and the height thereof was five cubits; and a line of thirty cubits compassed it round about. 24 And under the brim of it round about there were [e] knops which did compass it, [4] for ten cubits, compassing the sea round about: the knops were in two rows, cast when it was cast. 25 [f] It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east; and the sea was set upon them above, and all their hinder parts were inward. 26 And it was a handbreadth thick; and the brim thereof was wrought like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily: it held two thousand baths.

27 And [g] he made the ten bases of brass; four cubits was the length of one base, and four cubits the breadth thereof, and three cubits the height of it. 28 And the work of the bases was on this manner: they had panels; [5] and there were panels between the ledges; 29 and on the panels that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubim; and upon the ledges [6] there was a pedestal above; and beneath the lions and oxen were wreaths of hanging work. 30 And every base had four brazen wheels, and axles of brass; and the four feet thereof had [7] undersetters: beneath the laver were the undersetters molten, with wreaths at the side of each. 31 And the mouth of it within the capital and above was a cubit: and the mouth thereof was round after the work of a pedestal, a cubit and a half; and also upon the mouth of it were gravings, and their panels were foursquare, not round. 32 And the four wheels were underneath the panels; and the axletrees of the wheels were in the base: and the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit. 33 And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel: their axletrees, and their felloes, and their spokes, and their naves, were all molten. 34 And there were four undersetters at the four corners of each base: the undersetters thereof were of the base itself. 35 And in the top of the base was there a round compass half a cubit high; and on the top of the base the [8] stays thereof and the panels thereof were of the same. 36 And on the plates of the stays thereof, and on the panels thereof, he graved cherubim, lions, and palm-trees, according to the space of each, with wreaths round about. 37 [h] After this manner he made the ten bases: all of them had one casting, one measure, and one form.

38 [i] And he made ten lavers of brass: one laver contained forty baths; and every laver was four cubits; and upon every one of the ten bases one laver. 39 And he set the bases, five on the right [9] side of the house, and five on the left side of the house: and he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward, toward the south.

40 And [10] Hiram made the [11] lavers, and the shovels, and the basins. So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he wrought for king Solomon in the house of Jehovah: 41 the two pillars, and the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars; and the [k] two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars;

48 And Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house of Jehovah: [g]the golden altar, and the table whereupon the showbread was, of gold; 49 and the candlesticks, five on the right side, and five on the left, before the oracle, of pure gold; and [h]the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, of gold; 50 and the cups, and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the [i]firepans, of pure gold; and the hinges, both for the doors of the inner house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, to wit, of the temple, of gold.

51 [k]Thus all the work that king Solomon wrought in the house of Jehovah was finished. And [l]Solomon brought in the things which David his father had dedicated, even the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, and put them in the treasuries of the house of Jehovah.

8 [m]Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all [n]the heads of the tribes, the princes of the fathers' houses of the children of Israel, unto king Solomon in Jerusalem, [o]to bring up the ark of the covenant of Jehovah out of [p]the city of David, which is Zion. 2 And all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto king Solomon at [q]the feast, in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month. 3 And all the elders of Israel came, and [r]the priests took up the ark. 4 And they brought up the ark of Jehovah, and [s]the tent of meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tent; even these did the priests and the Levites bring up. 5 And king Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, that were assembled unto him, [t]were with him before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be counted nor numbered for multitude. 6 And [u]the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of Jehovah [v]unto its place, into the oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even [x]under the wings of the cherubim. 7 For the cherubim spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark and the staves thereof above. 8 And [4][y]the staves were so long that the ends of the staves were seen from the holy place before the oracle; but they were not seen without: and there they are unto this day. 9 [z]There was nothing in the ark save the two tables of stone which Moses put there at Horeb, [5][a]when Jehovah made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt. 10 And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place, that [b]the cloud filled the house of Jehovah, 11 so that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud; for the glory of Jehovah filled the house of Jehovah.

12 [c]Then spake Solomon, Jehovah hath said that [d]he would dwell in the thick darkness. 13 [e]I have surely built thee a house of habitation, [f]a place for thee to dwell in for ever. 14 And the king turned his face about, and [g]blessed all the assembly of Israel: and all the assembly of Israel stood. 15 And he said, [h]Blessed be Jehovah, the God of Israel, [i]who spake with his mouth unto David my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying, 16 [k]Since the day that I brought forth my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house, that [l]my name might be there; but [m]I chose David to be over my people Israel. 17 [n]Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of Jehovah, the God of Israel. 18 But Jehovah said unto David my father, Whereas it was in thy heart to build a house for my name, thou didst well that it was in thy heart: 19 [a]nevertheless thou shalt not build the house; but thy son that shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house for my name. 20 And Jehovah hath established his word that he spake; for [b]I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as Jehovah promised, and have built the house for the name of Jehovah, the God of Israel. 21 And there have I set a place for the ark, [c]wherein is the covenant of Jehovah, which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

22 And [d]Solomon stood before the altar of Jehovah in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and [e]spread forth his hands toward heaven; 23 and he said, O Jehovah, the God of Israel, [f]there is no God like thee, in heaven above, or on earth beneath; [g]who keepest covenant and lovingkindness [1]with thy servants, that walk before thee with all their heart; 24 who hast kept with thy servant David my father that which thou didst promise him: yea, thou spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thy hand, as it is this day. 25 Now therefore, O Jehovah, the God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him, saying, [2][h]There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel, if only thy children take heed to their way, to walk before me as thou hast walked before me. 26 Now therefore, O God of Israel, let thy word, I pray thee, be verified, [i]which thou spakest unto thy servant David my father.

27 But will God in very deed dwell on the earth? behold, [k]heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house that I have builded! 28 Yet have thou respect unto the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O Jehovah my God, to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer which thy servant prayeth before thee this day; 29 [l]that thine eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place whereof thou hast said, My name shall be there; to hearken unto the prayer which thy servant shall pray toward this place. 30 And hearken thou to the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, [m]when they shall pray toward this place: yea, hear thou in heaven thy dwelling-place; and when thou hearest, forgive.

31 [3][n]If a man sin against his neighbor, and an oath be laid upon him to cause him to swear, and he come and swear before thine altar in this house; 32 then hear thou in heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, [o]condemning the wicked, to bring his way upon his own head, and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

33 [p]When thy people Israel are smitten down before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee; [q]if they turn again to thee, and confess thy name, and pray and make supplication unto thee in this house: 34 then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest unto their fathers.

35 [r]When heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, [4]when thou [5]dost afflict them: 36 then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, [4][s]when thou teachest them the good way wherein they should walk; and [t]send rain upon thy land, which thou hast given to thy people for an inheritance.

37 [u]If there be in the land famine, if there be pestilence, if there be blasting or mildew, locust or caterpillar; if their enemy besiege them in the land of their [6]cities; whatsoever plague, whatsoever sickness there be; 38 what prayer and supplication soever be made by any man, or by all thy people Israel, who shall know every man the plague of his own heart, and spread forth his hands toward this house: 39 then hear thou in heaven thy dwelling-place, and forgive, and

54 [r] And it was so, that, when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication unto Jehovah, [s] he arose from before the altar of Jehovah, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread forth toward heaven. 55 And he stood, and [t] blessed all the assembly of Israel with a loud voice, saying, 56 Blessed be Jehovah, that hath given rest unto his people Israel, according to all that he promised: [u] there hath not [5] failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised by Moses his servant. 57 Jehovah our God be with us, as he was with our fathers: [v] let him not leave us, nor forsake us; 58 that [x] he may incline our hearts unto him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his ordinances, which he commanded our fathers. 59 And let these my words, wherewith I have made supplication before Jehovah, be nigh unto Jehovah our God day and night, that he maintain the cause of his servant, and the cause of his people Israel, [6] as every day shall require; 60 [y] that all the peoples of the earth may know that [z] Jehovah, he is God; there is none else. 61 [a] Let your heart therefore be perfect with Jehovah our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day.

with him, [a] offered sacrifice before Jehovah. 63 And Solomon offered for the sacrifice of peace-offerings, which he offered unto Jehovah, two and twenty thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. [b] So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of Jehovah. 64 The same day did the king hallow the middle of the court that was before the house of Jehovah; for there he offered the burnt-offering, and the meal-offering, and the fat of the peace-offerings, because [c] the brazen altar that was before Jehovah was too little to receive the burnt-offering, and the meal-offering, and the fat of the peace-offerings. 65 So [d] Solomon held the feast at that time, and all Israel with him, a great assembly, [e] from the entrance of Hamath [f] unto the brook of Egypt, before Jehovah our God, seven days and seven days, even fourteen days. 66 On the eighth day he sent the people away; and they blessed the king, and went unto their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that Jehovah had showed unto David his servant, and to Israel his people.

9 [g] And it came to pass, when Solomon had finished the building of the house of Jehovah, and [h] the king's house, and [i] all Solomon's [1] desire which he was pleased to do, 2 that [k] Jehovah appeared to Solomon the second time, as he had appeared unto him at Gibeon. 3 And Jehovah said unto him, I have heard thy prayer and thy supplication, that thou hast made before me: I have hallowed this house, which thou hast built, [l] to put my name there for ever; and [m] mine eyes and my heart shall be there perpetually. 4 And as for thee, [n] if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded thee, and wilt keep my statutes and mine ordinances; 5 then [o] I will establish the throne of thy kingdom over Israel for ever, according as I [2] promised to David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man upon the throne of Israel. 6 [p] But if ye shall turn away from following me, ye or your children, and not keep my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you, but shall go and serve other gods, and worship them; 7 [q] then will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; and [r] this house, which I have hallowed for my name, will I cast out of my sight; and [s] Israel shall be a proverb and a byword among all peoples. 8 [3] And though this house is so high, yet shall every one that passeth by it be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, [t] Why hath Jehovah done thus unto this land, and to this house? 9 and they shall answer, [u] Because they forsook Jehovah their God, who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath Jehovah brought all this evil upon them.

10 [v] And it came to pass [x] at the end of twenty years, wherein Solomon had built the two houses, the house of Jehovah and the king's house 11 (now Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar-trees and fir-trees, and with gold, according to all his desire), that then king Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee. 12 And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him; and they pleased him not. 13 And he said, What cities are these which thou hast given me, my brother? And [4] he called them the land of [y] Cabul unto this day. 14 [z] And Hiram sent to the king sixscore talents of gold.

15 And this is the [5] reason of the [6] levy which king Solomon raised, to build the house of Jehovah, and his own house, and [a] Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and [b] Hazor, and [c] Megiddo, and Gezer. 16 Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slain the [d] Canaanites that dwelt in the city, and [e] given it for a portion unto his daughter, Solomon's wife. 17 And Solomon built Gezer, and [f] Beth-horon the nether, 18 and Baalath, and [7] Tamar in the wilderness, in the land, 19 and all the store-cities that Solomon had, and [g] the cities for his chariots, and the cities for [h] his horsemen, and

23 These were the chief officers that were over Solomon's work, [g] five hundred and fifty, [h] who bare rule over the people that wrought in the work.

24 But [i] Pharaoh's daughter came up out of the city of David unto her house which Solomon had built for her: then [k] did he build Millo.

25 And [l] three times in a year did Solomon offer burnt-offerings and peace-offerings upon the altar which he built unto Jehovah, burning incense therewith, upon the altar that was before Jehovah. So he finished the house.

26 And [m] king Solomon made a navy of ships in [n] Ezion-geber, which is beside Eloth, on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom. 27 [o] And Hiram sent in the navy his servants, shipmen that had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomon. 28 And they came to [p] Ophir, and fetched from thence gold, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to king Solomon.

10 [q] And when the [r] queen of [s] Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of Jehovah, she came [t] to prove him with hard questions. 2 And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels [u] that bare spices, and very much gold, and precious stones; and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart. 3 And Solomon told her all her questions: there was not anything hid from the king which he told her not. 4 And when the queen of Sheba had seen all the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, 5 and the food of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the [3] attendance of his ministers, and their apparel, and his cupbearers, and [4] [v] his ascent by which he went up unto the house of Jehovah; there was no more spirit in her. 6 And she said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thine [5] acts, and of thy wisdom. 7 Howbeit I believed not the words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the half was not told me; [6] thy wisdom and prosperity exceed the fame which I heard. 8 Happy are thy men, happy are these thy servants, that stand continually before thee, and that hear thy wisdom. 9 [x] Blessed be Jehovah thy God, who delighted in thee, to set thee on the throne of Israel: [y] because Jehovah loved Israel for ever, therefore made he thee king, [z] to do justice and righteousness. 10 And [a] she gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices very great store, and precious stones: there came no more such abundance of spices as these which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon.

11 [b] And the navy also of Hiram, that brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir great plenty of [7] almug-trees and precious stones. 12 And the king made of the almug-trees [8] pillars for the house of Jehovah, and for the king's house, harps also and psalteries for the singers: there came no such almug-trees, nor were seen, unto this day.

13 And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, besides that [9] which Solomon gave her of his royal bounty. So she turned, and went to her own land, she and her servants.

14 [c] Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred threescore and six talents of gold, 15 besides that which the traders brought, and the traffic of the merchants, and of all the kings of [1]the mingled people, and of the governors of the country. 16 And [a]king Solomon made two hundred bucklers of beaten gold; six hundred shekels of gold went to one buckler. 17 And he made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three [2]pounds of gold went to one shield: and [b]the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon. 18 Moreover the king made a great throne of [c]ivory, and overlaid it with the finest gold. 19 There were six steps to the throne, and the top of the throne was round behind; and there were [3]stays on either side by the place of the seat, and two lions standing beside the stays. 20 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps: there was not the like made in any kingdom. 21 And all king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: none were of silver; it was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon. 22 For [d]the king had at sea a navy of Tarshish with the navy of Hiram: once every three years came the navy of Tarshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

23 [e]So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom. 24 And all the earth sought the presence of Solomon, [f]to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart. 25 And they brought every man his tribute, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, and armor, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.

26 [g]And Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, that he bestowed in the [h]chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. 27 [i]And the king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycomore-trees that are in the lowland, for abundance. 28 [k]And the horses which Solomon had were brought out of Egypt; and the king's merchants received them in droves, each drove at a price. 29 And a chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty; and so [l]for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, did they bring them out [4]by their means.

11 Now [m]king Solomon loved many foreign women, [5]together with the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians, and Hittites; 2 of the nations concerning which Jehovah said unto the children of Israel, [n]Ye shall not go among them, neither shall they come among you; for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods: Solomon clave unto these in love. 3 [o]And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines; and his wives turned away his heart. 4 For it came to pass, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods; and [p]his heart was not perfect with Jehovah his God, as was the heart of David his father. 5 For Solomon went after [q]Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, and after [r]Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites. 6 And Solomon did that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah, and went not fully after Jehovah, as did David his father. 7 Then did Solomon build a high place for [s]Chemosh the abomination of Moab, in the mount that is before Jerusalem, and for [t]Molech the abomination of the children of Ammon. 8 And so did he for all his foreign wives, who burnt incense and sacrificed unto their gods.

9 And Jehovah was angry with Solomon, [u]because his heart was turned away from Jehovah, the God of Israel, [v]who had appeared unto him twice, 10 and [x]had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he kept not that which Jehovah commanded. 11 Wherefore Jehovah said unto Solomon, Forasmuch as this [6]is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded thee, [y]I will surely rend the kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy servant. 12 Notwithstanding in thy days I will not do it, for David thy father's sake: but I will rend it out of the hand of thy son. 13 Howbeit [a] I will not rend away all the kingdom; but [b] I will give one tribe to thy son, for David my servant's sake, and [c] for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen.

14 And Jehovah raised up an adversary unto Solomon, Hadad the Edomite: he was of the king's seed in Edom. 15 For it came to pass, [d] when David was in Edom, and Joab the captain of the host was gone up to bury the slain, and had smitten every male in Edom 16 (for Joab and all Israel remained there six months, until he had cut off every male in Edom); 17 that Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go into Egypt, Hadad being yet a little child. 18 And they arose out of Midian, and came to [e] Paran; and they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house, and appointed him victuals, and gave him land. 19 And Hadad found great favor in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him to wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen. 20 And the sister of Tahpenes bare him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house; and Genubath was in Pharaoh's house among the sons of Pharaoh. 21 And [f] when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the host was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, Let me depart, that I may go to mine own country. 22 Then Pharaoh said unto him, But what hast thou lacked with me, that, behold, thou seekest to go to thine own country? And he answered, Nothing: howbeit only let me depart.

23 And [g] God raised up another adversary unto him, Rezon the son of Eliada, who had fled from his lord [h] Hadadezer king of Zobah. 24 And he gathered men unto him, and became captain over a troop, [i] when David slew them of Zobah: and they went to Damascus, and dwelt therein, and reigned in Damascus. 25 And he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, besides the mischief that Hadad did: and he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria.

26 And [k] Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephraimite of Zeredah, a servant of Solomon, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow, [l] he also lifted up his hand against the king. 27 And this was the reason why he lifted up his hand against the king: [m] Solomon built Millo, and [1] repaired the breach of the city of David his father. 28 And the man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valor; and [n] Solomon saw the young man that he was industrious, and he gave him charge over all the [2] labor of the house of Joseph. 29 And it came to pass at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that [o] the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him in the way; now Ahijah had clad himself with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field. 30 And [p] Ahijah laid hold of the new garment that was on him, and rent it in twelve pieces. 31 And he said to Jeroboam, Take thee ten pieces; for thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel, Behold, [q] I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee 32 ([r] but he shall have one tribe, for my servant David's sake and for Jerusalem's sake, [s] the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel); 33 because that they have forsaken me, and [t] have worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of Moab, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon; and they have not walked in my ways, to do that which is right in mine eyes, and to keep my statutes and mine ordinances, as did David his father. 34 Howbeit I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand; but I will make him prince all the days of his life, for David my servant's sake whom I chose, [3] who kept my commandments and my statutes; 35 but [u] I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it unto thee, even ten tribes. 36 And [v] unto his son will I give one tribe, [x] that David my servant may have a lamp alway before me in Jerusalem, [y] the city which I have chosen me to put my name there. 37 And I will take thee, and thou shalt reign [1] according to all that thy soul desireth, and shalt be king over Israel. 38 And it shall be, if thou wilt hearken unto all that I command thee, and wilt walk in my ways, and do that which is right in mine eyes, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as David my servant did; that [a] I will be with thee, and [b] will build thee a sure house, as I built for David, and will give Israel unto thee. 39 And I will for this afflict the seed of David, but not for ever. 40 Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam; but Jeroboam arose, and fled into Egypt, unto [c] Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

41 [d] Now the rest of the [2] acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon? 42 And the time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years. 43 And Solomon [e] slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David his father: and [f] Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

12 [g] And Rehoboam went to Shechem: for all Israel were come to [h] Shechem to make him king. 2 And it came to pass, [i] when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it (for he was yet in Egypt, whither he had fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam dwelt in Egypt, 3 and they sent and called him), that Jeroboam and all the assembly of Israel came, and spake unto Rehoboam, saying, 4 [k] Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make thou the grievous service of thy father, and his heavy yoke which he put upon us, lighter, and we will serve thee. 5 And he said unto them, [l] Depart yet for three days, then come again to me. And the people departed.

6 And king Rehoboam [m] took counsel with the old men, that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give ye me to return answer to this people? 7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou wilt be a servant unto this people this day, and wilt serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be thy servants for ever. 8 But he forsook the counsel of the old men which they had given him, and took counsel with the young men that were grown up with him, that stood before him. 9 And he said unto them, What counsel give ye, that we may return answer to this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke that thy father did put upon us lighter? 10 And the young men that were grown up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou say unto this people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter unto us; thus shalt thou speak unto them, My little finger is thicker than my father's loins. 11 And now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king bade, saying, [n] Come to me again the third day. 13 And the king answered the people roughly, and forsook the counsel of the old men which they had given him, 14 and spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, [o] My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. 15 So the king hearkened not unto the people; [p] for it was a thing brought about of Jehovah, [q] that he might establish his word, which Jehovah spake by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 And when all Israel saw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: [r] to your tents, O Israel: now see to thine own house, David. So Israel departed unto their tents. 17 But [s] as for the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. 18 Then king Rehoboam sent [t] Adoram, who was over the men subject to taskwork; and all Israel stoned him to death with stones. And king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 [a]So Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day. 20 And it came to pass, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was returned, that they sent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: [b]there was none that followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only.

21 [c]And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, and the tribe of Benjamin, a hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, that were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon. 22 But the word of God came unto [d]Shemaiah the man of God, saying, 23 Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and unto all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the [e]rest of the people, saying, 24 Thus saith Jehovah, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: return every man to his house; [f]for this thing is of me. So they hearkened unto the word of Jehovah, and returned and went their way, according to the word of Jehovah.

25 Then [g]Jeroboam built Shechem in the hill-country of Ephraim, and dwelt therein; and he went out from thence, and built [h]Penuel. 26 And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now will the kingdom return to the house of David: 27 [i]if this people go up to offer sacrifices in the house of Jehovah at Jerusalem, then will the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rehoboam king of Judah; and they will kill me, and return to Rehoboam king of Judah. 28 Whereupon the king took counsel, and [k]made two calves of gold; and he said unto them, [1]It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: [l]behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. 29 And he set the one in [m]Beth-el, and the other put he in [n]Dan. 30 And [o]this thing became a sin; for the people went to worship before [2]the one, even unto Dan. 31 And [p]he made houses of high places, and [q]made priests from among all the people, that were not of the sons of Levi. 32 And Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, [r]like unto the feast that is in Judah, and he [3]went up unto the altar; so did he in Beth-el, [4]sacrificing unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Beth-el [s]the priests of the high places that he had made. 33 And he [3]went up unto the altar which he had made in Beth-el on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised [5]of his own heart: and he ordained a feast for the children of Israel, and [3]went up unto the altar, [t]to burn incense.

13 [u]And, behold, there came a man of God out of Judah by the word of Jehovah unto Beth-el: and Jeroboam was standing by the altar [v]to burn incense. 2 And [x]he cried against the altar by the word of Jehovah, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith Jehovah: Behold, a son shall be born unto the house of David, [y]Josiah by name; and upon thee shall he sacrifice the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and men's bones shall they burn upon thee. 3 And he gave a sign the same day, saying, [z]This is the sign which Jehovah hath spoken: Behold, the altar shall be rent, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured out. 4 And it came to pass, when the king heard the saying of the man of God, which he cried against the altar in Beth-el, that Jeroboam put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him. And his hand, which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he could not draw it back again to him. 5 The altar also was rent, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of Jehovah. 6 And the king answered and said unto the man of God, [a]Entreat now the favor of Jehovah thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again. And [b]the man of God entreated Jehovah, and the king's hand was restored him again, and became as it was before. 7 And the king said unto the man of God, Come home with me, and refresh thyself, and [c]I will give thee a reward. 8 And the man of God said unto the king, [a] If thou wilt give me half thy house, I will not go in with thee, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place; 9 for so was it charged me by the word of Jehovah, saying, Thou shalt eat no bread, nor drink water, neither return by the way that thou camest. 10 So he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Beth-el.

11 Now [b] there dwelt an old prophet in Beth-el; and [1] one of his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Beth-el: the words which he had spoken unto the king, them also they told unto their father. 12 And their father said unto them, What way went he? Now his sons had [2] seen what way the man of God went, that came from Judah. 13 And he said unto his sons, Saddle me the ass. So they saddled him the ass; and he rode thereon. 14 And he went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an [3] oak; and he said unto him, Art thou the man of God that camest from Judah? And he said, I am. 15 Then he said unto him, Come home with me, and eat bread. 16 And he said, [c] I may not return with thee, nor go in with thee; neither will I eat bread nor drink water with thee in this place: 17 for it was said to me [d] by the word of Jehovah, Thou shalt eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that thou camest. 18 And he said unto him, I also am a prophet as thou art; and an angel spake unto me by the word of Jehovah, saying, Bring him back with thee into thy house, that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied unto him. 19 So he went back with him, and did eat bread in his house, and drank water.

20 And it came to pass, as they sat at the table, that the word of Jehovah came unto the prophet that brought him back; 21 and he cried unto the man of God that came from Judah, saying, Thus saith Jehovah, Forasmuch as thou hast [4] been disobedient unto the mouth of Jehovah, and hast not kept the commandment which Jehovah thy God commanded thee, 22 but camest back, and hast eaten bread and drunk water in the place of which he said to thee, Eat no bread, and drink no water; thy body shall not come unto the sepulchre of thy fathers. 23 And it came to pass, after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he saddled for him the ass, to wit, for the prophet whom he had brought back. 24 And when he was gone, [e] a lion met him by the way, and slew him: and his body was cast in the way, and the ass stood by it; the lion also stood by the body. 25 And, behold, men passed by, and saw the body cast in the way, and the lion standing by the body; and they came and told it in the city where [f] the old prophet dwelt.

26 And when the prophet that brought him back from the way heard thereof, he said, It is the man of God, who [4] was disobedient unto the mouth of Jehovah: therefore Jehovah hath delivered him unto the lion, which hath torn him, and slain him, according to the word of Jehovah, which he spake unto him. 27 And he spake to his sons, saying, Saddle me the ass. And they saddled it. 28 And he went and found his body cast in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the body: the lion had not eaten the body, nor torn the ass. 29 And the prophet took up the body of the man of God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it back; and he came to the city of the old prophet, to mourn, and to bury him. 30 And he laid his body in his own grave; and they mourned over him, saying, Alas, my brother! 31 And it came to pass, after he had buried him, that he spake to his sons, saying, When I am dead, then bury me in the sepulchre wherein the man of God is buried; [g] lay my bones beside his bones. 32 [h] For the saying which he cried by the word of Jehovah against the altar in Beth-el, and [i] against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of [k] Samaria, shall surely come to pass.

33 After this thing Jeroboam returned not from his evil way, but made again from among all the people priests of the high places.

[1] [a]whosoever would, he consecrated him, that there might be priests of the high places. 34 [b]And [2]this thing became sin unto the house of Jeroboam, [c]even to cut it off, and to destroy it from off the face of the earth.

14 At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam fell sick. 2 And Jeroboam said to his wife, Arise, I pray thee, and [d]disguise thyself, that thou be not known to be the wife of Jeroboam; and get thee to [e]Shiloh: behold, there is Ahijah the prophet, who [f]spake concerning me that I should be king over this people. 3 [g]And take with thee ten loaves, and cakes, and a [3]cruse of honey, and go to him: he will tell thee what shall become of the child. 4 And Jeroboam's wife did so, and arose, and went to [h]Shiloh, and came to the house of [i]Ahijah. Now Ahijah could not see; [k]for his eyes were set by reason of his age. 5 And Jehovah said unto Ahijah, Behold, the wife of Jeroboam cometh to inquire of thee concerning her son; for he is sick: thus and thus shalt thou say unto her; for it will be, when she cometh in, that [l]she will feign herself to be another woman.

6 And it was so, when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door, that he said, Come in, thou wife of Jeroboam; why feignest thou thyself to be another? for I am sent to thee with heavy tidings. 7 Go, tell Jeroboam, thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel: [m]Forasmuch as I exalted thee from among the people, and made thee [4]prince over my people Israel, 8 and rent the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it thee; and [n]yet thou hast not been as my servant David, who kept my commandments, and who followed me with all his heart, [o]to do that only which was right in [p]mine eyes, 9 but hast done evil above all that were before thee, and [p]hast gone and made thee other gods, and [q]molten images, to provoke me to anger, and [r]hast cast me behind thy back: 10 therefore, behold, I will bring evil upon the house of Jeroboam, and [s]will cut off from Jeroboam every man-child, [t]him that is shut up and him that is left at large in Israel, and [u]will utterly sweep away the house of Jeroboam, as a man sweepeth away dung, till it be all gone. 11 [v]Him that dieth of Jeroboam in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the birds of the heavens eat: for Jehovah hath spoken it. 12 Arise thou therefore, get thee to thy house: and [x]when thy feet enter into the city, the child shall die. 13 And all Israel shall mourn for him, and bury him; for he only of Jeroboam shall come to the grave, because in him there is found some good thing toward Jehovah, the God of Israel, in the house of Jeroboam. 14 Moreover [y]Jehovah will raise him up a king over Israel, who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam that day: [5]but what? even now. 15 For Jehovah will smite Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water; and [z]he will root up Israel out of [a]this good land which he gave to their fathers, and [b]will scatter them beyond the River, [c]because they have made their Asherim, provoking Jehovah to anger. 16 And he will give Israel up [d]because of the sins of Jeroboam, [6]which he hath sinned, and wherewith he hath made Israel to sin.

17 And Jeroboam's wife arose, and departed, and came to [e]Tirzah: and [f]as she came to the threshold of the house, the child died. 18 [g]And all Israel buried him, and mourned for him, according to the word of Jehovah, which he spake by his servant Ahijah the prophet.

19 And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, [h]how he warred, and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. 20 And the days which Jeroboam reigned were two and twenty years: and he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his stead.

21 [i]And Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, [k]the city which Jehovah had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there: and his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. 22 [l]And Judah did that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah, and they provoked him to jealousy with their sins which they committed, above all that their fathers had done. 23 For they also built them [a]high places, and [1][b]pillars, and [c]Asherim, on every high hill, and [d]under every green tree; 24 and there were also [e]sodomites in the land: they did according to all the abominations of the nations which Jehovah drove out before the children of Israel.

25 [f]And it came to pass in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem; 26 and he took away the treasures of the house of Jehovah, and the treasures of the king's house; [g]he even took away all: and [h]he took away all the shields of gold which Solomon had made. 27 And king Rehoboam made in their stead shields of brass, and [i]committed them to the hands of the captains of the [2]guard, who kept the door of the king's house. 28 And it was so, that, as oft as the king went into the house of Jehovah, the guard bare them, and brought them back into the guard-chamber.

29 [k]Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 30 [l]And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually. 31 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and [m]his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. And [3]Abijam his son reigned in his stead.

15 [n]Now in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam the son of Nebat began Abijam to reign over Judah. 2 Three years reigned he in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was [4]Maacah the daughter of [5]Abishalom. 3 And he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him; and [o]his heart was not perfect with Jehovah his God, as the heart of David his father. 4 Nevertheless for David's sake did Jehovah his God give him a [p]lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem; 5 [q]because David did that which was right in the eyes of Jehovah, and turned not aside from anything that he commanded him all the days of his life, [r]save only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite. 6 [s]Now there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.

7 And [t]the rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? [u]And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam. 8 [v]And Abijam slept with his fathers; and they buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his stead.

9 And in the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel began Asa to reign over Judah. 10 And forty and one years reigned he in Jerusalem: and [x]his mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom. 11 And [y]Asa did that which was right in the eyes of Jehovah, as did David his father. 12 And [z]he put away the sodomites out of the land, and [a]removed all the idols that his fathers had made. 13 [b]And also Maacah his mother he removed from being [6]queen, because she had made an abominable image [7]for an Asherah; and Asa cut down her image, and [c]burnt it at the brook Kidron. 14 [d]But the high places were not taken away: nevertheless [e]the heart of Asa was perfect with Jehovah all his days. 15 And [f]he brought into the house of Jehovah the things that his father had dedicated, and the things that himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

16 [g]And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. 17 [h]And Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and [i]built Ramah, [k]that he might not suffer any one to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. 18 Then [l]Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of Jehovah, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants; and [m]king Asa sent them to Benhadad, the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, that dwelt at [n]Damascus, saying, 19 [8]There is [o]a league between me and thee, between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent unto thee a present of silver and gold; go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me. 20 And Benhadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel, and smote [a] Ijon, and [b] Dan, and [c] Abelbeth-maacah, and all [d] Chinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali. 21 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard thereof, that [e] he left off building Ramah, and dwelt in [f] Tirzah. 22 Then king Asa made a proclamation unto all Judah; none was exempted: and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha had builded; and king Asa built therewith [g] Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah.

23 [h] Now the rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? But in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet. 24 And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; and [i] Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead.

25 And [k] Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah; and he reigned over Israel two years. 26 And he did that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah, and [l] walked in the way of his father, and [m] in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin. 27 And [n] Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha smote him at [o] Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon. 28 Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah did Baasha slay him, and reigned in his stead. 29 And it came to pass that, as soon as he was king, he smote all the house of Jeroboam: he left not to Jeroboam any that breathed, until he had destroyed him; [p] according unto the saying of Jehovah, which he spake by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite; 30 for the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and [q] wherewith he made Israel to sin, because of his provocation wherewith he provoked Jehovah, the God of Israel, to anger.

31 [r] Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 32 [s] And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

33 In the third year of Asa king of Judah began Baasha the son of Ahijah to reign over all Israel in Tirzah, and reigned twenty and four years. 34 And he did that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah, and [t] walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin.

16 1 And the word of Jehovah came to [u] Jehu the son of [v] Hanani against Baasha, saying, 2 Forasmuch as [w] I exalted thee out of the dust, and made thee [1] prince over my people Israel, and [x] thou hast walked in the way of Jeroboam, and hast made my people Israel to sin, to provoke me to anger with their sins; 3 behold, [y] I will utterly sweep away [z] Baasha and his house; and [a] I will make thy house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat. 4 [b] Him that dieth of Baasha in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth of his in the field shall the birds of the heavens eat.

5 [c] Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 6 And Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in [d] Tirzah; and Elah his son reigned in his stead. 7 And moreover by [e] the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani came the word of Jehovah against Baasha, and against his house, both because of all the evil that he did in the sight of Jehovah, to provoke him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and because [f] he smote [2] him.

8 In the twenty and sixth year of Asa king of Judah began Elah the son of Baasha to reign over Israel in Tirzah, and reigned two years. 9 And his servant [g] Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him. Now he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, [h] who was over the household in Tirzah:

10 and Zimri went in and smote him, and killed him, in the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his stead. 11 And it came to pass, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that [a] he smote all the house of Baasha: he left him not a single man-child, neither of his kinsfolks, nor of his friends. 12 Thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, [b] according to the word of Jehovah, which he spake against Baasha by [c] Jehu the prophet, 13 for all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, which they sinned, and wherewith they made Israel to sin, [d] to provoke Jehovah, the God of Israel, to anger with their vanities. 14 [e] Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

Now the people were encamped against [f] Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines. 16 And the people that were encamped heard say, Zimri hath conspired, and hath also smitten the king: wherefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the host, king over Israel that day in the camp. 17 And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah. 18 And it came to pass, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the [1] castle of the king's house, and burnt the king's house over him with fire, and [g] died, 19 for his sins which he sinned in doing that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah, in [h] walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, to make Israel to sin. 20 [i] Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that he wrought, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

21 Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed Omri. 22 But the people that followed Omri prevailed against the people that followed Tibni the son of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

[x] Judg. 12. 4

23 In the thirty and first year of Asa king of Judah began Omri to reign over Israel, and reigned twelve years: six years reigned he in [k] Tirzah. 24 And he bought the hill [2] Samaria of Shemer for two talents of silver; and he [3] built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of Shemer, the owner of the hill, [2] [l] Samaria. 25 And [m] Omri did that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah, and [n] dealt wickedly above all that were before him. 26 For he [o] walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sins wherewith he made Israel to sin, to provoke Jehovah, the God of Israel, to anger with their vanities. 27 Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he showed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 28 So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria; and Ahab his son reigned in his stead.

29 And in the thirty and eighth year of Asa king of Judah began Ahab the son of Omri to reign over Israel: and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty and two years. 30 And Ahab the son of Omri did that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah [p] above all that were before him. 31 And it came to pass, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that [q] he took to wife [4] Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the [r] Sidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshipped him. 32 And he reared up an altar for Baal in [s] the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria. 33 And Ahab made [t] the Asherah; and Ahab [u] did yet more to provoke Jehovah, the God of Israel, to anger than all the kings of Israel that were before him. 34 [v] In his days did Hiel the Beth-elite build Jericho: he laid the foundation thereof with the loss of Abiram his first-born, and set up the gates thereof with the loss of his youngest son Segub, according to the word of Jehovah, which he spake by Joshua the son of Nun.
