THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE

THESSALONIANS

Salutation. Thanksgiving for their Faith and Fidelity. The Lord's Coming to be preceded by the Lawless One

1 [a]Paul, and [b]Silvanus, and [c]Timothy, unto the [d]church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ;
2 [e]Grace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound [f]to give thanks to God always for you, [g]brethren, even as it is meet, for that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the [h]love of each one of you all toward one another aboundeth;
4 so that we ourselves [i]glory in you in [k]the churches of God for your [l]patience and faith [k]in all your persecutions and in the afflictions which ye endure;
5 which is a [l]manifest token of the righteous judgment of God; to the end that ye may be [m]counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer:
6 if so be that [n]it is a righteous thing with God to recompense affliction to them that afflict you,
7 and to you that are afflicted rest with us, [o]at the revelation of the Lord Jesus [p]from heaven [q]with the angels of his power [r]in flaming fire,
8 rendering vengeance to them that [s]know not God, and to them that [t]obey not the [2]gospel of our Lord Jesus:
9 who shall suffer punishment, even [u]eternal destruction [v]from the face of the Lord and from the glory of his might,
10 when he shall come to be [x]glorified in his saints, and to be marvelled at in all them that believed (because our [y]testimony unto you was believed) in that [z]day.
11 To which end we also [a]pray always for you, that our God may [b]count you worthy of your [c]calling, and fulfil every [3]desire of [d]goodness and every [e]work of faith, with power;
12 that the [f]name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Now we beseech you, [g]brethren, [4]touching [h]the [5]coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and our [i]gathering together unto him;
2 to the end that ye be not quickly shaken from your mind, nor yet be troubled, either by [k]spirit, or by [l]word, or by [m]epistle as from us, as that [n]the day of the Lord is [o]just at hand;
3 [p]let no man beguile you in any wise: for it will not be, except the [q]falling away come first, and [r]the man of [6]sin be revealed, the [s]son of perdition,
4 he that opposeth and exalteth himself against all [t]that is called God or [7]that is worshipped; so that he sitteth in the [8]temple of God, [u]setting himself forth as God.
5 Remember ye not, that, [v]when I was yet with you, I told you these things?
6 And now ye know [x]that which restraineth, to the end that he may be revealed in his own season.
7 For [y]the mystery of lawlessness doth already work: [9]only there is [z]one that restraineth now, until he be taken out of the way.
8 And then [r]shall be revealed the lawless one, whom the Lord [10]Jesus shall [11]slay [z]with the breath of his mouth, and bring to nought by the [a]manifestation of his [5]coming;
9 even he, whose [5]coming is according to the working of [b]Satan with all [1] power and [a] signs and lying wonders, 10 and with all deceit of unrighteousness for [b] them that [2] perish; because they received not the love of [c] the truth, that they might be saved. 11 And for this cause [d] God sendeth them a working of [e] error, that they should believe a lie: 12 that they all might be judged who [f] believed not the truth, but [g] had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 [h] But we are bound to give thanks to God always for you, [i] brethren beloved of the Lord, for that [k] God chose you [3] from the beginning [l] unto salvation [m] in sanctification of the Spirit and [4] belief of the truth: 14 whereunto he [n] called you through [o] our [5] gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 15 So then, brethren, [p] stand fast, and [q] hold the traditions which ye were taught, whether [r] by word, or [r] by epistle of ours.

16 [s] Now our Lord Jesus Christ [t] himself, and God our Father who [u] loved us and gave us eternal comfort and [v] good hope through grace, 17 [x] comfort your hearts and [y] establish them in every good work and word.

3 [z] Finally, [a] brethren, [b] pray for us, that [c] the word of the Lord may run and be glorified, even as also it is with you; 2 and that we may be [d] delivered from unreasonable and evil men; for all have not faith. 3 But [e] the Lord is faithful, who shall establish you, and guard you from [6] [f] the evil one. 4 And we have [g] confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both [h] do and will do the things which we command. 5 And the Lord [i] direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the [7] patience of Christ.

6 Now we command you, brethren, [k] in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye [l] withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh [m] disorderly, and not after [q] the tradition which [8] they received of us. 7 For yourselves know how ye ought to [n] imitate us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you; 8 neither did we [o] eat bread for nought at any man's hand, but in [p] labor and travail, [q] working night and day, that we might not burden any of you: 9 not because we have not [r] the right, but to make ourselves [s] an ensample unto you, that ye should imitate us. 10 For even [t] when we were with you, this we commanded you, [u] If any will not work, neither let him eat. 11 For we hear of some that [v] walk among you disorderly, that work not at all, but are [x] busybodies. 12 Now them that are such we command and [y] exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ, that with [z] quietness they work, and eat their own bread. 13 But ye, [a] brethren, [b] be not weary in well-doing. 14 And if any man obeyeth not our word by [c] this epistle, note that man, that ye [d] have no company with him, to the end that he may be [e] ashamed. 15 And yet [f] count him not as an enemy, but [g] admonish him as a [h] brother.

16 Now [i] the Lord of peace [k] himself give you peace at all times in all ways. [l] The Lord be with you all.

17 The salutation of me Paul [m] with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write. 18 [n] The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.
