THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE

PHILIPPIANS

Salutation. Thanksgiving and Supplication on the Readers' Behalf. "To live is Christ, to die is Gain"

1 [a]Paul and [b]Timothy, [1][c]servants of [d]Christ Jesus, to [e]all the [f]saints in Christ Jesus that are at [g]Philippi, with the [2][h]bishops and [i]deacons: 2 [k]Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [l]I thank my God upon all my remembrance of you, 4 always [m]in every supplication of mine on behalf of you all making my supplication with joy, 5 for your [n]fellowship in furtherance of the [3][o]gospel [p]from the first day until now; 6 being confident of this very thing, that he who began a good work in you will perfect it until [q]the day of Jesus Christ: 7 even as [r]it is right for me to be thus minded on behalf of you all, because [4]I [s]have you in my heart, inasmuch as, both in [t]my bonds and in the [u]defence and confirmation of the [3][o]gospel, ye all are partakers with me of grace. 8 For [v]God is my witness, how I long after you all in the tender mercies of [d]Christ Jesus. 9 And this I pray, that [x]your love may abound yet more and more in [y]knowledge and all discernment; 10 so that ye may [5][z]approve the things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and void of offence unto [q]the day of Christ; 11 being filled with the [6][a]fruits of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

12 Now I would have you know, brethren, that the things which happened unto me [b]have fallen out rather unto the progress of the [3][c]gospel; 13 so that [c]my bonds became manifest in Christ [7]throughout the whole prætorian guard, and to [d]all the rest; 14 and that most of the brethren in the Lord, [8]being confident through [c]my bonds, are more abundantly [e]bold to speak the word of God without fear. 15 [f]Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will: 16 [9]the one do it of love, knowing that I am [g]set for the defence of the [3][o]gospel; 17 [10]but the other proclaim Christ [h]of faction, not sincerely, thinking to raise up affliction for me in [c]my bonds. 18 What then? only that in every way, whether in pretence or in truth, Christ is proclaimed; and therein I rejoice, yea, and will rejoice. 19 For I know that this shall turn out to my salvation, [i]through your supplication and the supply of [k]the Spirit of Jesus Christ, 20 according to my [l]earnest expectation and [m]hope, that in nothing shall I be [m]put to shame, but that with [e]all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be [n]magnified in my body, [e]whether by life, or by death. 21 For to me [p]to live is Christ, and to die is gain. 22 [11]But if to live in the flesh, — if [12]this shall bring [q]fruit from my work, then [13]what I shall choose I know not. 23 But I am in a strait betwixt the two, having the [r]desire to depart and [s]be with Christ; for it is very far better: 24 yet to abide in the flesh is more needful for your sake. 25 And [t]having this confidence, I know that I shall abide, yea, and abide with you all, for your progress and joy [14]in the faith; 26 that your [u]glorying may abound in Christ

Sundry Exhortations: to Lowliness of Mind — the Mind of Christ; to Zeal and Blamelessness. Commendation of Jesus in me through my presence with you again. 27 Only [1] let your manner of life be [a] worthy of the [2] [b] gospel of Christ: that, whether I come and see you or be absent, I may hear of your state, that ye [c] stand fast in [d] one spirit, with one soul [e] striving [3] for the faith of the [2] gospel; 28 and in nothing affrighted by the adversaries: which is for them [f] an evident token of perdition, but of your salvation, and that from God; 29 because to you [g] it hath been granted in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to [h] suffer in his behalf: 30 having the same [i] conflict which [k] ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

2 If there is therefore any exhortation in Christ, if any [4] consolation of love, if any [l] fellowship of the Spirit, if any [m] tender mercies and compassions, 2 [n] make full my joy, that ye [o] be of the same mind, having the same love, being of one accord, [5] of one mind; 3 doing nothing through [p] faction or through [q] vainglory, but in lowliness of mind [r] each counting other better than himself; 4 [s] not looking each of you to his own things, but each of you also to the things of others. 5 [t] Have this mind in you, which was also in [u] Christ Jesus: 6 who, [v] existing in the [w] form of God, [y] counted not the being on an equality with God a thing to be grasped, 7 but [z] emptied himself, taking the form of a [6] [a] servant, [7] [b] being made in the likeness of men; 8 and being found in fashion as a man, [z] he humbled himself, becoming [c] obedient even unto death, yea, the [d] death of the cross. 9 [e] Wherefore also God [f] highly exalted him, and gave unto him [g] the name which is above every name; 10 that in the name of Jesus [h] every knee should bow, of [i] things in heaven and things on earth and [8] things under the earth, 11 and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is [k] Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 So then, my beloved, [l] even as ye have always obeyed, not [9] as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own [m] salvation with [n] fear and trembling; 13 for it is [o] God who worketh in you both to will and to work, [p] for his good pleasure. 14 Do all things without [q] murmurings and questionings; 15 that ye may become [r] blameless and harmless, [s] children of God without blemish in the midst of a [t] crooked and perverse generation, among whom ye [u] are seen as [10] [v] lights in the world, 16 holding forth the word of life; that I may have whereof to glory in [x] the day of Christ, that I did not [y] run in vain neither [z] labor in vain. 17 Yea, and if I am [11] [a] offered upon [b] the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all: 18 and in the same manner do ye also joy, and rejoice with me.

19 But I hope in the Lord Jesus to [c] send [d] Timothy shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state. 20 For I have no man [e] likeminded, who will care [12] truly for your state. 21 For they all [f] seek their own, not the things of Jesus Christ. 22 But ye know [g] the proof of him, that, [h] as a child serveth a father, so [e] he served with me in furtherance of the [2] gospel. 23 [c] Him therefore I hope to send forthwith, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me: 24 but [i] I trust in the Lord that I myself also shall come shortly. 25 But I counted it necessary to send to you [k] Epaphroditus, my brother and [l] fellow-worker and [m] fellow-soldier, and your [13] [n] messenger and [o] minister to my need; 26 since he longed [14] after you all, and was sore troubled, because ye had heard that he was sick: 27 for indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, that I might not have sorrow upon sorrow. 28 I have sent him therefore the more diligently, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful. 29 [a]Receive him therefore in the Lord with all joy; and [b]hold such in honor: 30 because [c]for the work of [1]Christ he came nigh unto death, hazarding his life to [d]supply that which was lacking in your service toward me.

3 Finally, my brethren, [e]rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not irksome, but for you it is safe. 2 Beware of the [f]dogs, beware of the [g]evil workers, beware of the concision: 3 for [h]we are the circumcision, who [i]worship by the Spirit of God, and [k]glory in [l]Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh: 4 though [m]I myself might have confidence even in the flesh: if any other man [2]thinketh to have confidence in the flesh, I yet more: 5 [n]circumcised the eighth day, of the [o]stock of Israel, of the [p]tribe of Benjamin, a [o]Hebrew of Hebrews; as touching the law, [q]a Pharisee; 6 as touching zeal, [r]persecuting the church; as touching the [s]righteousness which is in the law, found [t]blameless. 7 Howbeit [u]what things were [3]gain to me, these have I counted loss for Christ. 8 Yea verily, and I count all things to be loss for the excellency of the [v]knowledge of [l]Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but [z]refuse, that I may gain Christ, 9 and be found in him, [4]not having [y]a righteousness of mine own, even that which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, [z]the righteousness which is from God [5]by faith: 10 that I may [v]know him, and [a]the power of his resurrection, and the [b]fellowship of his sufferings, becoming [c]conformed unto his death; 11 if by any means I may [d]attain unto the resurrection from the dead. 12 Not that I have already [e]obtained, or am already [f]made perfect: but I press on, if so be that I may [6g]lay hold on that for which also I [h]was laid hold on by [i]Christ Jesus. 13 Brethren, I count not myself [7]yet to have laid hold: but one thing I do, [i]forgetting the things which are behind, and stretching forward to the things which are before, 14 I [k]press on toward the goal unto the prize of the [8l]high calling of God in [m]Christ Jesus. 15 Let us therefore, as many as are [9n]perfect, be thus minded: and if in anything ye are [o]otherwise minded, this also shall [p]God reveal unto you: 16 only, whereunto we have attained, [q]by that same rule let us walk.

17 Brethren, be ye [r]imitators together of me, and mark them that so walk even as ye have us for an [s]ensample. 18 For [t]many walk, of whom I told you often, and now tell you even [u]weeping, that they are the enemies of [v]the cross of Christ: 19 whose end is perdition, whose god is [x]the belly, and whose [y]glory is in their shame, who [z]mind earthly things. 20 For [a]our [10]citizenship is in heaven; whence also we [b]wait for a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: 21 who shall [c]fashion anew the body of our humiliation, that it may be [d]conformed to the [e]body of his glory, [f]according to the working whereby he is able even to [g]subject all things unto himself.

4 Wherefore, my brethren beloved and [h]longed for, my joy and crown, so [i]stand fast in the Lord, my beloved.

2 I exhort Euodia, and I exhort Syntyche, to [k]be of the same mind in the Lord. 3 Yea, I beseech thee also, true yokefellow, help these women, for they labored with me in the [11]gospel, with Clement also, and the rest of my [l]fellow-workers, whose [m]names are in the book of life.

4 [n]Rejoice in the Lord always: again I will say, Rejoice. 5 Let your [12]forbearance be known unto all men. [a]The Lord is at hand. 6 In nothing be [b]anxious; but in everything by [c]prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. 7 And [d]the peace of God, which [e]passeth all understanding, shall [f]guard your hearts and your [g]thoughts in [h]Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, [i]whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are [1]honorable, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are [2]of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, [3]think on these things. 9 The things which ye both learned and received and heard and saw [k]in me, these things do: and [l]the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I [4]rejoice in the Lord greatly, that now at length [m]ye have revived your thought for me; [5]wherein ye did indeed take thought, but ye lacked opportunity. 11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therein to be [n]content. 12 I know how to be abased, and I know also how to abound: in everything and in all things have I learned the secret both to be filled and to be [o]hungry, both to abound and to be [p]in want. 13 I can do all things in him that [q]strengtheneth me. 14 Howbeit ye did well that ye had [r]fellowship with my affliction. 15 And ye yourselves also know, ye Philippians, that in [s]the beginning of the [6]gospel, when I departed from [t]Macedonia, no church had [u]fellowship with me in the matter of giving and receiving but ye only; 16 for even in [v]Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my need. 17 [x]Not that I seek for the gift; but I seek for the fruit that increaseth to your account. 18 But I have all things, and abound: I am filled, having received from [y]Epaphroditus the things that came from you, an [z]odor of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well-pleasing to God. 19 And [a]my God shall supply every need of yours according to his [b]riches in glory in Christ Jesus. 20 Now unto [7][c]our God and Father [d]be the glory [8]for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. [e]The brethren that are with me salute you. 22 [f]All the [g]saints salute you, especially they that are of Cæsar's household.

23 [h]The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ [i]be with your spirit.
